MRS. VAUGHN PASSES

Well-Known Dallas Women Succumbs in Valiant Fight With Grim Reaper.

Mrs. G. Wesley Vaughn, wife of G. Wesley Vaughn and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Uglow, died at the family residence Friday, July 12, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Vaughn had been ill for about three weeks but was greatly improved Friday afternoon. About 7 o'clock a sudden turn for the worse was noticed and the soul of one of Dallas' most loved and respected women had passed to its final resting place before the anxious watchers hardly realized that the attack might be fatal.

The attending physician believes that the disease affected her brain causing almost instant death.

Funeral services were conducted from the family residence on Monday afternoon by Rev. L. R. Fields, of the Methodist church and interment took place in I. O. O. F. cemetery. The burial offerings were many and beautiful, thus attesting to the esteem in which the deceased and her family are held by friends.

Mrs. Vaughn, who was Miss Lorene Uglow, was born November 14, 1833, in Dallas. On January 3, 1906, she was united in marriage to G. Wesley Vaughn and two children were born to them, a boy who died in infancy, and a little girl who survives her. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn have lived in Dallas since their marriage, at 592 Lyle street.

Besides Mr. Vaughn and little Charlotte, the deceased is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Abel Uglow, J. C. Uglow, Mrs. George Wismer, of Rockport, Washington, Mrs. Patrick T. Johnson, of Raymond, Washington, Mrs. Warren Cressey, of South Bend, Washington, brother and sisters.

STATE NEWS

Tillman Reuter, who makes grain grow on the semi-arid lands of Central Oregon where none grew before, does not want any one to overlook the forthcoming International Dry Farming Congress to be held at Lethbridge, Alberta, October 21-26. He is collecting exhibits of the products Oregon grows by dry-farming, and, as usual, expects to win the leading prizes with products of Oregon dry farms. He has got into the habit of winning firsts for this state and expects to repeat his success this year.

In these days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Henth, Michigan, Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed, unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following.
