

Avoid High Prices

Here is a point well worth remembering. Remember that the vacationist who goes to the sea-shore, mountains or country and who forgets to take the necessary conveniences is liable to excessive charge. Why not let us supply you with all your vacation needs, such as soap, perfumes, talcums toilet waters, etc. at a price far less than you would pay away from home. A new, fresh stock is here awaiting your inspection.

WEEK IN SOCIETY.

QUIET, murmuring, peaceful, mid-summer reigns supreme over the city. Even in the early morning hours the shoppers are few indeed who venture out 'neath the amicable rays of "Old Sol." Among the younger set one hears the oft-voiced complaint, "If we only had something to do!" It has been much too warm for dances and the club was disbanded upon the arrival of the hot summer evenings. Nature played us false when she deprived us of the pleasure of launch parties, canoeing and delightful river or lake house-parties which, in summer, are by far the most popular form of amusement with towns fortunate enough to possess picturesque little lakes, or even the coolness of the commercial old Willamette would be appreciated. To be sure the demure LaCreole comes in for its share toward offering its hospitality for the amusement of the exacting, frivolous human, but its blossomed, fringed banks are not wide enough for a canoe, and its clear, silvery, mountain water, carpeted with prickly stones, is not particularly adapted to the thin-soled sandals of my lady of the bathing cap. However, picnic parties are planned almost every Sunday, for a day on the old creek, in the mountains, or a day's sojourn at the country homes of the different members of the "Fortunate Club," and the pleasure of a day with Mother Earth, away from the scorching heat of town comes as a haven to the fatigued dweller. Auto parties are becoming more popular, and as the theatrical season will begin earlier in Portland and Salem this year, it is probable that a great many will take advantage of the good roads and secure seats for the opening nights.

FOR MRS. H. C. BOYLE.

Mrs. H. C. Boyle of Tacoma, Washington, the house guest of Mrs. C. I. Soudberg, has been the honor guest at several delightful affairs the past week. On Friday of last week Mrs. Charles A. Bennett entertained at a garden party in her honor. The guests were intimate friends of the hostess. Mrs. Sanford B. Taylor telephoned invitations for a garden party on Monday and the spacious Taylor lawn was an old-fashioned garden of dainty green ferns and shrubbery. On Wednesday, Mrs. D. P. Patterson entertained at a porch party, when she asked a few friends to spend the afternoon in honor of Mrs. Boyle.

Miss Helen School Entertains.

One of the tiniest and prettiest of hostesses to entertain this season is little Miss Helen School, who invited several equally small friends and their chaperones to help her celebrate the wonderful event of her first birthday, Friday, August 24.

The afternoon from 2 o'clock until 5:00 was a Belshazzar's feast to the tiny youngsters, who were in a "Wizard of Oz" land, where everything was gingerbread, happiness and sweet things. Perambulators were made ready about 5:00 o'clock and the guests were conveyed to their respective homes, the most of whom were like tiny elves, so tired after their first social advent that blissful Morpheus visited their pillows ere the journey had scarcely begun.

The guests and their chaperones included: Mrs. Lott D. Brown and Miss Flora, Mrs. Chauncey L. Crider and Masters Van and Chauncey Jr., Mrs. Sanford B. Taylor and Master Billie, Mrs. Fred Zeller and Misses Marie and Ruth, and Mrs. P. Cramet and son Robert, of Portland.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union has called a meeting for August 13, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Smith, 619 Washington street. Election of officers will be one of the important factors of the meeting and all members are urgently requested to be present.

Mrs. H. C. Boyle, of Tacoma, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, will return to her home Monday, August 12.

Miss Nada Scott left this morning for a two-weeks' visit with Miss Gertrude Phelps at Ona, Oregon. On her return home she will visit friends in Newport for several days.

Miss Leta Grant (a) as her guests at a theater party for "Louisiana Lou," which was presented at the Grand opera house in Salem, on Wednesday evening, Miss Pauline Snyder, Harry Nichols, Marcus Haze, Cleve Robinson and Miss Henrietta Houser. The guests and hostess were motored over by J. C. Uglow.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church entertained about 75 guests at a picnic party on Tuesday, August 6.

Autos were donated by Messrs. Lloyd Soehren, Herbert Shepherd, Fred Elliott, Dr. E. H. McCallon, Dr. L. A. Bollman, and Dr. V. C. Staats.

The party left the Methodist church about 10 o'clock and arrived at the delightful location chosen for the day's fete on the banks of the LaCreole, near the summer home of Edward Dunn. The business session of the meeting was also held here and was presided over by Mrs. W. P. Miller, president of the association. Committees in charge of the affair: Mrs. L. A. Bollman and Mrs. E. H. McCallon, transportation; Mrs. J. H. Shepherd, Mrs. Samuel Burk and Mrs. A. S. Campbell, refreshments. The success of the affair is attributed to faithfulness of the members in charge of the different arrangements.

Birthday Party.

H. J. Green, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Green, was host on Tuesday of last week at a birthday party, the occasion being the anniversary of Master Green's 5th

Delightful Shopping

Where can you shop delightfully—this hot weather? I've had to keep perfectly quiet in order to live, yet you say you've had a day of delightful shopping.

Yes, I've been shopping in up-to-date stores—stores kept cool, dustless and well ventilated by

G-E Electric Fans

No wonder those stores are popular—they are so comfortable. They do as much business in summer as at any other season.

Money spent in electric fans is a paying investment. The 12-inch and 16-inch G-E Oscillating Fans are the most appropriate for stores. Their swinging breezes keep the air in good circulation throughout the store. The customers, being comfortable, buy with better judgment, and are satisfied.
