WEEK IN SOCIETY.

(By Gladys Canter.)

I WISH the society editor of the Oregonian hadn't bent me to it in saying, "Society, like the Arab, has taken up its tents and motored (figuratively 'walked' of course) to the seashore," for that is exactly what a great many did the past week. A few have returned but the majority will spend a few more weeks in the shade of the sand dunes. In most cases camels, sometimes called "automobiles," will be picketed on some green oasis, tents will be pitched, camp fires lighted and clam bakes, crab feeds et cetera, will be indulged in to their heart's content.

Besides these erstwhile Arabians, the set at home has been far from desuetude. While formal affairs have been practically ostracized during the hot months, delightful afternoons and evenings of a very informal nature that are filled with the spirit of genuine pleasure, but too small for mention, have flitted into favor.

Good Times Club Entertains.
An interesting event of the past week was the dinner and jollification given by the members of the "Good Times" club to their husbands and families, at the W. O. W. hall on Friday, August 9.

The affair was to have been given at the City Park and plans were made to that effect but owing to the threatening appearance of the weather the arrangements were changed.

The big banquet rooms on the first floor were thrown open for the first, rustic tables covered with snowy linen, tall vases of roses, sweet peas and nasturtiums graced the festive board and promptly at 6 o'clock dinner was served. There was everything to eat from beans to the most delicious salads.

After the banquet music was enjoyed in the hall proper. Leone Williams and Hazel Knight rendered a charming duet. Miss Ruth McCom had a piano solo. Mrs. Ella J. Metzger and Mrs. Theodore Johnson presented a piano solo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nolan and Jack Daley of Portland, who are touring the coast by automobile, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barnes for several days this week. The party left Wednesday morning for Eugene and Corvallis and southern points.

In Honor of Mrs. Donahoe.
Mrs. Lott D. Brown telephoned invitations for an informal reception for Mrs. S. T. Donahoe, of Portland, on Wednesday afternoon from 2:00 o'clock until 5:00. Mrs. Sanford B. Taylor poured; Mrs. J. L. White and Mrs. C. L. Crider assisted about the rooms. About fifty guests left cards most of whom were old friends of Mrs. Donahoe who was a resident of this city about two years ago.

Thursday Afternoon Club.
Mrs. Lloyd Soehren entertained the members of the Thursday afternoon club on Thursday afternoon at their beautiful little country home, "Hilhee Lodge." The guests were conveyed to Hilhee in automobiles.

Delightful Shopping

Where can you shop delightfully--this hot weather? I've had to keep perfectly quiet in order to live, yet you say you've had a day of delightful shopping.

Yes, I've been shopping in up-to-date stores--stores kept cool, dustless and well ventilated by

G-E Electric Fans

No wonder those stores are popular--they are so comfortable. They do as much business in summer as at any other season.

Money spent in electric fans is a paying investment. The 12-inch and 16-inch G-E Oscillating Fans are the most appropriate for stores. Their swinging breezes keep the air in good circulation throughout the store. The customers, being comfortable, buy with better judgment, and are satisfied.
