WEEK IN SOCIETY.

(By Gladys Canter.)

BEGINNING with the revels of the Priscillas and John Aldens' whose delightful little informal parties might cause their staid and dignified ancestors to shake their pretty powdered heads in consternation at the frolics of their namesakes, followed by a wedding of interest and several interesting "showers," for a popular bride elect, the social line is not as empty as usual and we have it from the inner shrine that several large affairs are to be given by the different members of the card clubs sometime this month.

Rehearsals are taking up a great portion of the time of the younger contingent and "Perkins the Printer" is blossoming wonderfully under the direction of Mrs. Edward Caldwell. Gilbert Klefauer will have several interesting songs and will be assisted by members of the Young Woman's club in the party scene. Here, local talent will present several very clever dances which are original with the participants.

Mrs. C. L. Crider is expecting Mrs. George Pratt of Seattle, the last of the week who will be the house guest of the Criders and Van Orsels. Several affairs have been planned in her honor.

Thursday night Grand Master W. H. Wheeler and Mrs. Wheeler who are touring the state visiting the different forest and Rebekah lodges were guests of honor at a banquet after the regular meeting of the I. O. O. F. The members of the Rebekah lodge were invited guests.

Friday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Euterpean Choral club the members presented Miss Ada Longnecker, who became the bride of John Simmons Wednesday, October 16, a set of solid silver tea spoons with initials as a token of their appreciation of her work as accompanist.

Rebekahs Entertain.
After the regular meeting Wednesday night the Rebekah lodge entertained about 50 members and guests. A short musical program was rendered and light refreshments were served. This was the first real meeting of the fall term and was given in the form of a rally to get the members together for the winter months.

Skating Party.
Thursday evening members of the exclusive Priscilla club and a corresponding number of the John Alden fraternity entertained very informally at the skating rink at a skating party. Several guests were invited to join them and the evening was spent in whirling around to the tune of "Come Away With Me Lucille," etc. A banquet or "free" as the chairman said, was served at the New Scott late in the evening.

High School Y. W. C. A. Entertain.
The High school student body were guests of honor Friday evening when members of the Y. W. C. A. entertained for them at the auditorium. About 30 guests were present including Mrs. George Gerlinger and members of the faculty. A short musical program was rendered. Miss Elva Lucas sang, Miss Dorothy Bennett had a musical selection and short addresses were delivered. Lunch was served in the banquet room.

Freshman Reception.
The first Freshman reception of the year will be given at the High school this evening by members of the Sophomore class. The guests will include members of the Freshman class and the faculty. The affair has been perfectly planned, guessing games, matching contests, etc., are one of the noticeable features of the evening's entertainment. Striking programs are yellow backgrounds emblazoned with a black "D" and each guest will be required to sign.

Honor Miss Longnecker.
Members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church were hostesses at an evening in honor of Ada H. Longnecker on Thursday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison. The occasion was a miscellaneous "shower" consisting of silver, linen and china.

During the evening Mrs. A. M. McNeil played several instrumental selections. Mrs. W. H. Bottorff sang and Miss Longnecker played. Dainty refreshments were served. The guest list included: Mesdames Taylor Dunn, Dee Dunn, G. H. Hawkins, Abel Uglow, B. Buckner, B. H. McCallon, George Wismer, W. Miller, A. M. McNeil, L. B. Bellman, Horatio Morrison, W. H. Bottorff, Lloyd Soehren, Maude Richardson, Nancy Fowler, Al Longnecker, F. H. Morrison, Messrs. and Mesdames L. R. Fields, Jerry Driscoll, Misses Pine-McCallon, Anna Mae Longnecker, Edna Morrison, Francis Dempsey, Faye Barber, Helene Syron, Lillian Lawrence, Mae Shelton, Charlotte Vaughn, Kathryn Fox, Effa Brown, Dollie Burk, Goldie Vaughn, Eva Buckner, Esther Bottorff, Cora Tuft, Roberta McCallon, Messrs. Allan Bottorff and Wendall Sanders.

Simmons-Longnecker.
One of the prettiest of the early fall weddings took place Wednesday evening October 16, when Ada Hodson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Longnecker, was united in marriage to John M. Simmons. Promptly at eight o'clock the bridal couple entered the living room to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin played by Miss Minnie Clow. Little Miss Uda Buckner led carrying the ring concealed in a white rose. The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her away. The party took their places under a floral arch, standing beneath a wedding veil of white roses. Rev. D. Lester Fields read the impressive ring ceremony. Miss Anna Longnecker sang "I Love You So." During the ceremony Miss Clow played "Promenade" very softly.

The bride wore green, a head wreath of forget-me-nots and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her going away gown was of blue chiffon over blue silk worn with a navy blue tailored coat and blue tailored hat. After a short honeymoon in Portland and vicinity Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will locate in Weiser, Idaho, where Mr. Simmons will enter business. Guests at the wedding were: Messrs. and Mesdames X. X. Buckner, Taylor Dunn, S. Taylor Jones, Bert Jones, Bert Osborne, Ira West, Henry Niese, James Hodson, Jack Billips, of Portland, J. M. Sweeney, Rev. and Mrs. D. Lester Fields, Misses Minnie and Crystal Clow, Belle Burke, Goldie Vaughn, Pauline Rickley, Anne Garner, Julia and Ruth Nunn, Messrs. Homer Dashfield, Harold Miller, William Caldwell and Charles Bennett.
