and wise take an occasional look into this place, during the holidays. There will be special attractions. There is never a dull minute around this shop. It has been a going concern for 5 years. It is the place in town to turn the idle hours into busy minutes. What is the name and location of this good place.
 Dallas Prize Shooting Gallery, 308 Main.

NUMBER 26—Before your gaze at this time is a bakery—the one that bakes that good bread—just like mother used to bake when she had good luck. This is not the oldest firm in the city but it is one that has made many friends already. All bread is baked out of flour, but the fact that some of it is better than others is proof that the baking has much to do with the quality. The pies, cakes and pastry of all kinds that come from this bakery are superior. They have opened an inviting coffee and lunch department which is bound to become very popular. What is the name and location of this bakery, also give the name of the proprietor.
 The Dallas Bakery, 611 Court—A. D. Brown.

NUMBER 27—This number is to represent a firm of abstractors who have brought the records of the county down to a scientific basis. Both are attorneys. On give attention to the law while the other largely manages the abstract business. They have been accumulating their plant for the last 7 years. One year ago they installed a fine proof vault. They are always ready to issue abstracts of title on short notice and at very reasonable rates. The members of this firm are both young and active, ready and willing to take hold of any question at law, or to give the most modern service in furnishing abstracts of title. What is the name and address of this firm?
 Brown & Sibley, 610 Mill.

NUMBER 28—This number represents one of the busiest industrial institutions in the city. It is a hive of industry six days in a week and gives employment to a number of men. They manufacture doors and windows, frames, inside finish of every description—bank, office and store fittings, cabinet, stair and general mill work. What is the name and address?
 Dallas Planing Mill, 213 Mill.

NUMBER 29—A painter was once asked what he mixed his paints with. He replied, "with brains." We have before you a firm of painters who use the same ingredient. They have been "spreading it on pretty thick" around here for over two years. They have a store full of paints, wall paper and decorative supplies of all kinds. And they have the hands full of contracts all the time. They can paper or calomine that room, or the whole house so as to get the best results. They always make a good job if they have to apply two coats—and a pair of pants. Another feature with this firm is the manufacture of mirrors and art glass effects. What is the name and address?
 Dugan Bros., 508 Washington.

NUMBER 30—One of the prominent dry goods stores of Dallas is before you. It is where you find the Home Journal patterns, the R. & G. corsets, the Black Cat hose, Peters shoes, and the big line of coats and suits for the ladies and misses. There are larger stores than this one in Oregon, but none more modern and complete in detail. It is the store where the new goods are found, and where there are plenty of kindly manners, courteous, patient salespeople to wait on the crowd that is continually pushing its portals. The name is one that describes the chief means of transportation in Africa. Give the name and address.
 Campbell's, 426 Main.

NUMBER 31—What is the name of this good hotel, where they please you with those fine meals. Breakfast, luncheon and dinner come each time as a pleasant surprise to the appetite, served in such a genteel and polite manner. Everything served is first-class, and it is always nicely served. There are good rooms at this hotel always clean and well kept. They make a specialty here of luncheon and dinner, and if you have no room, they will serve you what you are missing until you do. The name is very familiar in hotel circles. It is one of the best first-class hotels in the Willamette valley. A new and modern building.
 New Scott Hotel, G. E. Corson, Proprietor.

NUMBER 32—It's the clothes that make the man—if you think it makes no difference about the clothes, just you try going down street without any. Here is an establishment that is a complete outfitter for all that half of humanity that wears trousers. It is next door to a corner and runs clear round and has an entrance on another street. It is not a wide room, but its capacity is doubled by the neat balcony that runs all the way round the room. It is the store where they have the beautiful Clutha clothes, the Forsheim show, the Headlight overalls, and other superior lines. It is the place where "if men wear it, they have it." What is the name and address?
 Elton Clothing House, 102 Main.

NUMBER 33—A prominent department store is now called to your attention. It is located in a modern building, of three stories. It can not point to a long story of achievement and growth—that is in the future. They carry about everything but groceries and hardware—dry goods, clothing, furnishing goods, millinery, shoes, hats, hosiery, etc. These goods are new and down to date. It is where you find the Gordon hose, the Linner and La Camillo corsets, the Fashion shoe. It is the store where they have the good looking, pleasant, painstaking salespeople who never tire in making it easy and pleasant for you to shop with them. Good merchandise and very low prices are the additional features that draw trade to this store. Give name and location.
 Polk County Mercantile Co., 531 Court.

NUMBER 34—A large number of the monuments that mark the last resting place of the pioneers of this city and county were erected by the gentleman to whom we allude in this paragraph. Has been in business in the county 24 years. He has the latest thing in marble and granite, beautiful designs to select from, or if you have a design of your own he will take pleasure in carrying it out. No one is more competent. Has modern facilities, looks personally after every job, and guarantees absolute satisfaction. His place of business is close to the business center. Give name and address. It is better to patronize homes than to take chances with houses away from home.

 G. L. Hawkins, 508 Church.

NUMBER 35—Here is a variety store that is making great headway toward showing some beautiful and interesting things for the Christmas holidays. Heretofore it has been a 5, 10, 15 and 25 cent store, but it has determined to climb the ladder higher and will add a variety of goods that come from the holidays. They are live wires. What is the name and address?
 Model Variety Store, 300 Main.

NUMBER 36—In these piping times of skimp and save it behoves the head of the family to make his money stretch as far as possible. The second-hand store is the one place where this feat can be accomplished. Here is an institution that came under present control in the early part of this year. It is an interesting sight to walk down through the store and see what has been gathered together. They have about everything, but a second-hand cow. Their policy is to buy everything that doesn't eat. There are bargains here in household goods of all kinds, in harness, in tools, etc. They have a big line of good stoves. Every thing going very cheap. A name that begins with a letter way down at the bottom of the alphabet. Give name and address.
 B. R. Watson, 326 Main.

NUMBER 37—It's the soles of the people he keeps in view, for he is the doctor of boot and shoe; and he serves the living and not the dead, with the best of leather, wax, nails, an thread. He can sew on a sole, or nail it fast, and do a good job and make it last. A great many patients come to his door, worn out and run down, besides feeling sore; though he doesn't use poisons, plaster or pill, he cures all sick shoes, no matter how ill. What is the name and location? A name that is spelled with 7 letters!
 Irving Tamplin, 311 Main.

THEY WERE VERY RICH.

What Else They Were Was Quantly Told by Mary Lyon.
 When in 1837 Mary Lyon founded Holyoke college she collected the money required for its first building in sums that ranged from 6 cents to $1,000. She got 1,800 persons to subscribe. Her feat gave the world a glimpse of an unusually wide foundation in the public interest, but she did not accomplish it without much hard work or without gaining wide experience of human nature.
 "One evening Miss Lyon arrived in the village of Ashfield, Mass., at a home where she was always welcomed, gladly. She was full of hope and enthusiasm. Would the squire take her at once to W., where, she had learned, there was a family of wealth that might give liberally toward the seminary building?"
 "Supper and a good night's rest, Miss Lyon," was the reply, "and then my horses shall take you there."
 The next morning as they were starting the squire's wife laid a gentle hand on Miss Lyon's shoulder, with the warning: "Do not expect too much, my dear Miss Lyon. We know the people. I fear you will not be successful."

With a beaming face Miss Lyon replied: "Oh, I am told they are very rich. I am sure they will help liberally."
 When she entered the house on her return Miss Lyon went quickly to her friend, and, grasping her arm, while conflicting emotions played over her face, she said:
 "Yes, it is all true, just as I was told. They live in a costly house, it is full of costly things, they wear costly clothes"—then, drawing nearer and almost closing her eyes, she whispered with unforgetting emphasis, "but, oh, they're little bits of folks!"—Youth's Companion.

To the Public.
 In leaving the office of County Judge on the first Monday in January, 1913, I will open a law office in Dallas, where I practiced law for many years, prior to my election as County Judge. I am prepared at this time to transact any law business, not coming in the County Court, and after January first all kinds, whether in the County Court or any other court; I will make a specialty of all Probate Law and equity. My charges will be reasonable for legal advice, and for all work that may be entrusted to me. I ask for a share of your business. Please do not forget me. Office in court house until first Monday of January.
 Respectfully,
 ED. F. COAD.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that most infectious diseases such as whooping cough, diphtheria and scarlet fever are contracted when the child has a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and greatly lessen the danger of contracting these diseases. This remedy is famous for its cure of colds. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child with implicit confidence. Sold by all dealers.

An Astoria company Thanksgiving day began the manufacture of oxygen generated from waste products.
 You will find that druggists everywhere speak well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. They know from long experience in the sale of it that in cases of coughs and colds it can always be depended upon, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

KNOWLEDGE COMPETITION

Following will be found a number of brief paragraphs, each one bringing out a few of the distinctive features or characteristics of this city's business institutions or professional men. There is a query or two in each paragraph. To the party who first answers them correctly in detail will be given choice of the prizes noted above. The next nearest correct will be given choice of the remaining prizes, and so on till they are exhausted. Names must not be abbreviated but given in the usual style of the firm's advertising; street numbers must be given correctly and all answers must be neat and legible. There is no guessing about these. There is a clue in every one by which the identity may be confirmed.
 Answers may be sent by mail or brought to this office any time before next Wednesday evening. On Friday of next week the sequel of this feature will be published. At that time the prize-winners will be notified, and they are then entitled to call and get them.
 The competition is open to every one who reads this except employees of the paper and their relatives.
 Address all answers to:
KNOWLEDGE CONTEST,

NUMBER 1—This not painted wood nor polished stone, but hearts and furniture that make the home. This furniture store has been doing business here many years, the last four years under its present title. They have 75 feet front, all plate glass windows that attract the attention of every lover of the home. Just as the holidays are coming they are unusually inviting. They carry a big stock of furniture, carpets, wall paper, and house furnishings on pay or description. They are the people who put out that excellent mattress under their own name. Also have the Ostermoor and the Seelye mattress. It is the home of the Hosiery Kitchen Cabinet. Their picture department is very pleasing. What is the name and address of this company?
 Sterling Furniture Co., 508 Mill.

NUMBER 2—This here I'll string my tuneful lyre, and twang my merry lute, and draw sweet strains of vibrant joy from violin and flute. This is the store that hath charms to soothe the savage breast. "Everything in music" is the motto here. They have the Schumann pianos—a piano that is in a class by itself for tone and finish. They also have the Gable & Nelson and other makes. They will sell you a piano here on very easy terms—so that you can pay for it while you are using it. They have a big stock of sheet music. They are headquarters for Edison Phonographs and Records. What is the name and address? It is one of the places where in town you buy sewing machines.
 Daniel's Music House, 630 Court.

NUMBER 3—What is the name and address of the leading jewelry store who began business in this city 19 years ago? Each one of these years is a separate asset worth much to the purchaser of merchandise as to the quality of which he is forced to rely on the word of the dealer. The customers of many years ago are still his customers, besides lots of new ones. The people have learned that anything that is recommended to them in this store will always turn out right. He has a beautiful line of goods for the holiday season. It is here that you find the Gorham sterling silver and silver plate. Hawke's and Libby's cut glass, the W. W. W. guaranteed rings, the Ball watch and many other superior lines. He is the official watch inspector for the Southern Pacific R. R. company. What is the name and address?
 G. H. Morris, 606 Court.

NUMBER 4—When you're blue, or cold, or silver with the grippe, the chills, or liver; when the doctor's auto stands before your door; he'll write down good and plain the drug to ease your pain, and say, "get this made up quick at"—drug store. This drug store is very central. It is one of the best equipped drug stores in the city. There are no old passes of goods on the shelves here. Everything is comparatively new and fresh and modern. The store has not been more than a hundred years here. It is where they have the biggest plate mirror in town. It is the place where they have the Archey family remedies. Give the name and address.
 Ellis Drug Store, 609 Court.

NUMBER 5—This is the leading cigar store and billiard emporium of the city. Now, don't get in a hurry and jump at conclusions. But it is the leading one just the same. Hardly know how to describe it so you will not recognize it from the lines. It has just two pool tables and there is a billiard table. It is a dull hour when they are not all busy. It is the place where gentlemen congregate and coin the idle hours into busy minutes. There is a big stock of cigars, tobacco and smokers' articles. Give name and address.
 S. F. Felton & Co., 518 Mill.

NUMBER 6—This hotel over all the county is known; the stockman, the farmer, the merchant—his home. For many, many years it has been the inn that has sheltered these classes from fatigue and din. The rates are so low and the rooms so good that people flock here from every neighborhood. When you visit the city, don't think it is far; it is only two blocks from the S. P. Cars. A splendid place to patronize, give its name and win the prize.
 Dallas Hotel, Mill and Church.

NUMBER 7—The vendor of flowers and plants must be an artist to be successful. Here is a florist of superior talent, who has established a name in all this section of the country. He has everywhere attracted the attention of all who have artistic eyes in the line of beautiful effects with flowers. He makes a specialty of interior decorating for teas, card parties, luncheons, dinners, birthdays and weddings. Always has a big variety of cut flowers and plants. Has greenhouse at a central location. What is the name and address?
 G. L. Thomas, Jefferson and Mill.

NUMBER 8—What brand of flour is it that appeals most to Polk county people, as well as to those of many other counties in Oregon? You are also to give the name of the mill that manufactures it. An inspection of this plant will show to be one of the cleanest and most perfect in operation in the whole West. The highest perfection is reached in the manufacture of this flour; it is perfectly uniform; every pound is just as good as every other pound. It is manufactured right here at home, and you should remember that this is "Made in Oregon" flour. Patronize home industry and keep your money right here at home.

 Oregon's Best—Dallas Flouring Mills.

NUMBER 9—A certain mineral water and soda works factory has a reputation for the excellence of their product. Has been doing business in this city for many years. Great water and mineral waters of all kinds originate here and are distributed all over the district. Their carbonated beverages have no superior in the entire province. Sole agents in this city for Haverly's Best. You will see the name at all the prominent soda fountains and candy stores. You are to give the name and address of this institution. They are also manufacturers of Lime-Sulphur spray, and of other talc and sanitary cleaners; clean everything except dirty linen and bad character—and fish. Uses the latest dry, or French, process sends for and delivers, and guarantees satisfaction. The dry, or French, cleaning process is one of the important textile discoveries of recent years. But the process is somewhat complex and difficult. It needs expert handling. This busy tailor also attends to alterations, repairs their picture department in very pleasing. What is the name and address of this company?
 Dallas Soda Works, 422 Ellis.

NUMBER 10—Who are the people who "know how" in the cleaning line in this city? The proprietor is a custom tailor and sanitary cleaner; cleans everything except dirty linen and bad character—and fish. Uses the latest dry, or French, process sends for and delivers, and guarantees satisfaction. The dry, or French, cleaning process is one of the important textile discoveries of recent years. But the process is somewhat complex and difficult. It needs expert handling. This busy tailor also attends to alterations, repairs their picture department in very pleasing. What is the name and address of this company?
 Phil Begin, 514 Mill.

NUMBER 11—The science of restoration is no longer dependent on materia medica and surgery. The pendulum is swinging the other way, and in the numerous methods of treating disease that of Chiropractic is one of the most popular. It is based on a knowledge of the human body, the chiro, or hand, and the nerves emanating therefrom. Here is represented an institution that gives advice in dietetics, medical gymnastics and hydrotherapy, presided over by a thoroughly qualified Chiropractor. Has a nicely equipped institution, with a lady attendant. A Chiropractor so thoroughly understands the mechanism of the human body and Chiropractic science that they can usually locate the cause of your trouble without asking you a question. What is the name and address of this Chiropractor?
 Dr. D. G. Rempel, 114 Court.

NUMBER 12—When you are ready to get that "buzz wagon" here is an establishment that will interest you greatly. The machine that is sold at this garage is one of the most popular in the whole automobile game. There are so many points in its favor that a few people who investigate fail to decide in its favor. The new 1913 model is all complete with every necessity and convenience at $985; is the greatest bargain in the auto world. You are to give the name of this automobile, also the name and location of this garage. They do the highest class of repair work at this garage, including vulcanizing. Also carry a full line of auto accessories.
 Overland, Catherwood's Garage.

NUMBER 13—Many people have learned that it is not necessary to travel down town to the business center to get good groceries and family supplies at low prices. The high cost of living is due to high rents as much as to any other cause. In this number we introduce a lively grocery store that is not paying high rent, because it is not in the business district. Telephone lines all lead to this store and their own special delivery system reaches all parts of the city very promptly. They will sell you the very best brands of goods and guarantee absolute satisfaction. What is the name of firm and the location?
 M. R. Young & Son, 912 Birch.

NUMBER 14—Who are the liverymen who have been almost a whole year "in harness" in this city? Any kind of a rig you want will be found in this stable. They have the kind of horses that are "safe and sane", and still they get along without that ventilation "pushing on the lines." They know the livery business from start to finish. This stable is headquarters for the sale of horses for all purposes. What is the name and address?
 McCann & Collins, 651 Court.

NUMBER 15—"Where was Moses when the light failed?" is a question that has come down through the ages. If Moses had only known of this popular electrical company he would not have met with that momentous misfortune. These experienced electricians know how to harness the electric apparatus so that it will not fail, as long as there is any "juice" on the circuit. They furnish electric fixtures, power apparatus, motors, etc. They do contract work in the electrical line all around the city and country. They are chock full of electricity, and all you have to do is to press the button or ring the phone—they do the rest. Give the name and address.
 Smith & Ellison Electric Co., 611 Court.

NUMBER 16—Here we introduce one of the best looking grocery stores in the city. It has not been under the present ownership more than a hundred years, but it is making good. When you enter the commodious vegetable fountain is the first thing to catch the eye; further back is the enclosed screen for many good things—cheese, honey, etc. On either side are shelves and tables containing the latest and best brands of staple and fancy groceries and table delicacies. It will be found the sanitary grocery store in the store where they have the Amber blend of coffee—many people will have no other coffee but the Amber blend. Give the name and address of this grocer.

 U. S. Laughery, 617 Court.

NUMBER 17—Who is the milliner for men in Dallas? This big store is modern throughout—the place where the smart dresses get their becoming touch. Beautiful fixtures throughout—just what you need. Everything the latest in men's furnishings. The place for the young men to "get ahead." Likewise the place for the elder ones to "come back." It is the store where the Sophomore clothes, and Schloes Bros. fine tailored garments find the door to the open market. It is the store that has the Mallory and Stetson hats, the Forsheim and Goutal shoes, the Evergreen hosiery, and scores of other superior brands in all lines. You will see his name, with his proper title, right in the tile at the threshold. What is the name and address?
 Wm. Herzog, Leading Clothier, 408 Main.

NUMBER 18—In this number we suggest a meat market in a modern building that looks swell—a front that opens full and ventilation that is perfect. The meats at this market are kind and that are "right, handled right, cut right, and sold right." The boys behind the block are smart, good looking and very pleasant. It is the market that appears so neat and clean that a look inside is an aid to the eye. They have nice show cases equipped with cold storage pipes, and everything to facilitate the very best service. The only thing that is lacking in the equipment is the "meat market smell." The family trade, a specialist, have made this market famous on account of their excellence. What is the name and address?
 Dallas Meat Co., 615 Court.

NUMBER 19—The one predominant feature at this drug store that everybody will recognize is its reputation for the careful filling of physician's prescriptions. This is not the kind of a drug store that advertises a liniment of such merit that when applied to the stub end of a dog's tail caused the said tail to grow out perfectly, and then applied in the same way to the severed piece, picked up from the dog's tail, caused it to grow a new dog to grow out—but the kind that sells all first-class dependable drugs, standard remedies and sundries, in every case just what they purport to be. It is the oldest drug store in the city, a drug store of experience and attainment at its head, and competent assistants in every department. What is the name and address?
 The Fuller Pharmacy, 400 Main.

NUMBER 20—Who is the man who furnishes the garden and field seeds that will grow? He has had the experience that will give him the rank in the seed business. His card reads: "Wholesale and retail field and garden seeds, hay, grain, flour and feed, poultry and bee supplies." He does a large mail order business and carries a specialty of best quality trade in the very best manner. This store has been many years before the public. What they sell always turns out to be just as it is represented. Give the name and address.
 S. M. Ray & Co., 226 Main.

NUMBER 21—"Made in Dallas" is a slogan that ought to be burned into the memory of every smoker. Some of the best cigars are made here. This cigar factory and store has been a prominent concern for over a year. Ever smoke a "Little Green" cigar? If you do, you know "hardest to catch" 5 cent cigars in the whole west. You are to give the name of the manufacturer, and the location, and the next time you line up to the cigar counter you are to call upon these cigars. They have a nice pudding in the smoking. A first-class pool and billiard hall will be found at this place also.
 G. R. Coad, 523 Main.

NUMBER 22—Where is it in Dallas that you get the wet goods that go right to the spot?—If you know where that is. This liquor store has been doing business here many years. They make a specialty of bond, cigars, fine wines and cordials—and they cater to family trade. They are the distributors of the Olympia beer. All that is necessary to get what you want is to whinger it to them over the phone and the identical article will be found on your premises on short notice. This house can meet the taste of the most critical connoisseur. Give the name and street number.
 Olympia Wine Co., 520 Main.

NUMBER 23—Where is it they always have something new in sweets? Things have been going along this way for over two years. First one thing, then another, and then another thing after another. It is where they have the good candies, the still better smokes. It is where people go to buy a live newspaper, that comes in the evening. There is no better place this side of Portland to get that sweet tooth cured. What is the name and address?
 Boots-Kersey, 218 Main.

NUMBER 24—Where do those people who really appreciate fine work in photography sit for their photographs? To whom do they go when they wish, not just a good photograph, but that superior quality of work which is turned out from the studio of a real artist? The character of the work here is in a class by itself and is appreciated by all discriminating people. The studio is located right in the heart of the business district, occupying several nicely equipped rooms on the second floor. It has been under the present very efficient management over one year. Carbon and sepia portraits, interior and exterior views, developing and finishing. Give the name and address.
 C. B. Stone, Main.

NUMBER 25—Where is the place in town to get a little fun and a good shot? How straight can you shoot? How smoke, chew—or eat candy? If you want to get healthy, wealthy
