

CLUB CONCERT IS PLANNED

CHORUS MUSIC AND FOLK DANCES TO BE FEATURE.

Euterpean Chorus of 30 Voices to Have Charge; Members of Oregon Normal Faculty to Coach Girls.

(Irene H. Gerlinger.)

It is customary on the third Wednesday in January of each year for the Women's clubs all over Oregon to give entertainments to raise money for the State Federation scholarship Loan Fund. By means of this fund many worthy young women are aided in their efforts to get a higher education. The Dallas Woman's club this year is fortunate in having its own Euterpean Woman's Chorus of 30 voices under the capable leadership of Mrs. Gilbert MacGregor to give the concert. In addition to several beautiful four-part songs by the chorus, there will be orchestral music, violin solos by the talented young violinist, Mr. Herzog, and some interesting folk dances. The folk dances have recently had a great popular revival all over the country, and on January 15th, for the first time a Dallas audience will witness them. Miss Marlan, of the Monmouth Normal school faculty, is coming over to coach a dozen of the young high school girls, and she will be assisted by Mrs. B. Casey and Miss Pauline VanOrsdel, patronesses of these dances.

Miss Edith Starbuck has full charge of the business management of the entertainment. After all expenses are paid, one-half of the proceeds will go to the Scholarship Loan fund, and the other half toward buying a piano for the Woman's club. It is expected that the Armory will be packed to hear all this array of talent as it was packed the night of the recent library play.

The following are the members of the Woman's Chorus:

Sopranos: Misses Alice Grant, Anna May Longnecker, Ruth Crider, Caroline Gohrke, Roxana Fiske, Claudia Coad, Mesdames Bottorff, E. M. Smith, George Skiff, Jesse Barham, Whitney, C. L. Crider.

Second Sopranos: Mesdames Miller, S. B. Taylor, Edith Plank, J. C. Uglow, Vollheim, Misses Starbuck and Buena Fiske.

First Altos: Mesdames Bollman, Metzger, J. L. White, Misses Nola Coad, Claudia Brown, Alice Miles, Nada Seott.

Second Altos: Mesdames Miles and Zeller, Misses McDevitt and Morrison, Mrs. McNicol accompanist. Admission for all school and college students, 25c; 50c for every one else.

INSTALL--THEN FEAST

United Artisans Have Happy Time Following Initiation and Regular Installation.

The United Artisans closed installation services last night at a late hour at Woodman hall with a supper in the banquet room where nearly one hundred members of the order were seated. Initiation of four new members into the mysteries of the order preceded the installation service which was conducted by Past Master Artisan J. E. Miller, assisted by Deputies Marie Zellar and Sadie Lynn.

The officers for the ensuing term follow: Nellie M. Staffin, M. A.; Martha A. Nevel, capt.; Elba Preston, inspector; Willis Simonton, secretary; Mary L. Simonton, treasurer; Geo. D. Steward, S. con.; B. F. Preston, M. C.; Arch Robinson, J. C.; Alta Savage, instructor; T. W. Watson, warder; Dr. V. C. Staans, medical examiner; Winifried M. Wing, musician; Libbie E. Holmes and Agnes Watson, F. C.; J. W. Sweeney, F. W. Zellar and Alta Savage, finance committee.

P. S. GREENWOOD,
1-7 City Marshal of Dallas, Oregon.

Luxury of a Spin on Ice. Yesterday the devotees of ice skating sought the various small lakes and ponds in the neighborhood for an old-time spin such as they seldom see here. A number of the high school students went to the McDaniel lake, near Rickreall. Others found good "skidding" closer to home, but the old, back-east way of a winter's glide was enjoyed perhaps for the last time this year by the enthusiastic lovers of the glistening ice.

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Election of officers comprised the principal business taken up at the annual meeting of the LaCreole club, Dallas' social organization, held at the club rooms on Sunday afternoon.

Officers elected for the coming year are as follows:

- President, W. V. Fuller.
- Vice-President, Walter L. Tooz.
- Secretary, Tracy Staats.

Treasurer, Walter Vassal. Board of Directors, O. E. Holmes, L. D. Brown, T. C. Stockwell, G. O. Grant, N. L. Guy.

House committee, appointed by President Fuller, W. L. Soehren, F. H. Morrison, T. J. Cherrington.

Of the above officers Fuller was elected for the seventh successive term and Walter Vassal as treasurer was again elected to an office that he has held continuously since the organization of the club in the early '90's. Tracy Staats has served as secretary off and on for many years.

The club is in a prosperous condition financially and in point of membership a recent reduction in the admission fee for a few weeks having resulted in many accessions to the roll.

STRINGENT ORDER ISSUED.

Sheriff Grant Takes Matters Into His Own Hands and Plans House Etiquette.

Sheriff John M. Grant is particularly in his later years. Now nobody would ever accuse a fellow wore a standing collar, or any collar at all, yet he assumed the duties of that official had Dallas, Oregon, Jan. 6, 1913.

It is hereby ordered that J. R. Teal appear in all official duties with a stand up collar, otherwise all acts be and are and it is further ordered that J. G. Brown, H. Holman, and J. E. Sibley act as a committee to see that this order is strictly complied with. By order of J. M. GRANT, Sheriff.

The only place where John "fell down" is in his committee. It is an open secret that none of them could tell a "stand up collar" if they happened to see one. Why didn't he select Al Snyder?
