The citizens of Monmouth met on Monday night to discuss the practicability of vacating the portion of Jackson street lying near the railroad, for half a block, to build a depot building on. We think this is a pretty good move for where the depot is there is not room enough. Let's encourage all the public improvements we can.

Surely spring is here or close at hand for everything is growing and everybody is busy.

On account of sickness in A. G. Good's family, the protracted meeting did not begin Monday as announced.

The Hewitt family held their annual reunion the 23d of February at the home of Judge Hewitt, of Albany, Oregon, of nine brothers. There were seven present and their families. D. M. Hewitt and wife of Monmouth, attended. There were 21 of the relatives present and all had a good time. There have been no deaths in the immediate families since their last meeting. Among the nine brothers there is one doctor, and Judge Hewitt, of Albany, but no preacher. They are a highly respected family and have lived in Polk county for years, their former home being near Astoria.

A Cold, LaGrippe, then Pneumonia. Is too often the fatal sequence. La Grippe coughs hang on, weaken the system, and lower the vital resist-

R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Harnegat, N. J., says: "I was troubled with a severe LaGrippe cough which completely exhausted me. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soon stopped the coughing spells entirely. It can't be beat." Sold by Stafrin.
