LOVE WINS AFTER 40 YEARS

Dallas Wedding Culmination of Sweet-heart Dream of Long Ago.

A very pretty informal wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bevens, 602 Ellis street, Friday, April 11, at 8:30 o'clock p. m., when Mr. Bevens' sister, Mrs. Frances Hall, of Buena Vista, became the wife of Amos H. Holman, of this city. Their marriage is particularly interesting, since they were lovers more than 40 years ago. Rev. Heath of Salem, pastor of the M. E. church, of Buena Vista, officiated. The bride was dressed in a becoming gown of midnight blue, and wore shell-pink carnations. Only a few relatives and friends were present. Immediately after the ceremony a most delicious wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Bevens, assisted by Miss Norma Holman. The groom is a well-known resident of this city, having lived here for a number of years. The bride is well known in the Buena Vista vicinity for her many valuable traits of character. Mr. and Mrs. Holman expect to make their home in Dallas in the near future.

BALLSTON GETS NEW TEACHER

A. B. Sacre Selected to Take Place Made Vacant By Resignation.

A. B. Sacre, formerly of Monmouth, but who has been recently engaged in school work in Eastern Oregon has been selected to take the position of principal of the Ballston schools made vacant by the resignation of H. J. Peavy who left for the East last week with the remains of Mrs. Peavy who also was a teacher in the Ballston schools and who died suddenly last week. Mr. Peavy's return is somewhat problematical.

SCHOOLS MAY SEND DELEGATES

Good Representation Wanted at State Sunday School Convention.

The twenty-eighth annual convention of the Oregon State Sunday School association will be held in Oregon City, April 24 to 26, 1913. Each school in the county is entitled to two delegates, so be sure and be represented.

Special rates on the railroads will be made to delegates.

Speakers and field workers from all over the United States will be in attendance at this convention. Do not miss it. Send delegates' names to Rev. E. A. Smith, Oregon City, for registration.

HUGH G. BLACK, Co. Sec'y.

Round-up Dates Fixed.

Dates for the Pendleton Round-up have been fixed definitely for September 11-12. The former successes of this typically western show are expected to be repeated, or even outdone, since greater preparations are being made for the coming event than ever before.

Trespass notices, weather proof, for sale at Observer Job office.

Legal blanks for sale at this office.

Wants Public Market.

The Grants Pass Courier is urging the establishment of a public market now that a co-operative creamery is assured for that place. "The creamery, the cannery and the public market belong in the same category," it says.

Wanted.

A competent solicitor, either man or woman, who can furnish their own conveyance, and canvass the county, can hear of an attractive proposal which will pay them well for two or three months' work, by applying to, or addressing "G," Observer office, 4-25

National Master Coming.

National Master Wilson, of the Patrons of Husbandry, will come to Oregon to attend the meetings of the State Grange in May. He will probably visit the other northwest states on his trip to the coast.

Had His Work Out Out.

Grace, aged 5, had twin brothers, a year older than herself, who were mischievous.

"Papa," she said one day, "every night when Harry and Willie say their prayers they ask God to make them good boys."

"That's nice," replied the father. "Well," replied the little skeptic, "why don't He?"--Kellogg's Square Dealer.

Horse Show at Stayton.

Stayton will have a show of fine horses on Saturday of this week. Prizes are offered in all classes and there will be sports and games.
