

What Would the Suffragettes Do If They Met the King Like This?

Photo by American Press Association.

If the militant suffragettes had a chance to catch King George of England and his daughter, Princess Mary, out riding like this it is very probable there would be a big story for the papers. But it is not likely that they will get anywhere near the king, for he is closely guarded wherever he goes, even when out riding for exercise, as shown in the picture. He has been particularly well guarded since the recent renewal of the suffragette outbreaks. Princess Mary is especially fond of riding and often accompanies her royal father on such canter.

Did You Ever Notice?

When a duck lays an egg she just waddles off as if nothing had happened. When a hen lays an egg there's a hell of a noise. The hen advertises. Hence the demand for hen's eggs instead of ducks'.
