School Children Busy.
School children of the state are busy gardening, intent on securing prizes offered at the State Fair next fall. The schools of Portland are teaching gardening just as religiously as they do arithmetic, and 2,700 boys and girls are tilling individual plots and planting vegetables. The same activity is going on throughout the whole state and this year's contest will more generally represent all Oregon than last.

To Discuss Equipment.
Representatives of the Salem, Falls City & Western will be at a meeting of the State Railroad commission next Wednesday when the question of automatic signal equipment will be taken up. In addition to that questions as to grade crossings will also be discussed. Many other railroads in the state will be represented as well.

Livestock Exposition.
The Pacific International Livestock exposition, scheduled for Portland next fall, promises to be one of the best stock shows ever held in the West. Great preparations are being made already to secure the entry of a very large number of blooded cattle, sheep and hogs. This is the third annual show and premiums amounting to $10,000 have been arranged.

Will Talk to Farmers.
Prof. Thos. Shaw, agriculturist for the Great Northern railway, has been engaged by the Hill lines in Oregon to give a series of lectures in the cities and towns along these roads. He will talk to farmers at the different points along the Hill line up the Deschutes river, ending his trip in that section the last of this week.
