The Royal
The Royal is the best selling typewriter in America today. I have sold three of these splendid machines in Dallas in the last eight days. Seven of them have been placed in Polk county since I took the local agency two months ago. If you are going to buy a typewriter—and no business man should be without one in this day and age—you should by all means investigate the Royal.

The rebuilt Underwood advertised in the Observer last week was sold yesterday. We will offer another exceptional bargain soon in the shape of a rebuilt No. 4 Smith Premier. The price will move it in a hurry.

We carry everything in the way of supplies for the typist, and you will no longer find it necessary to buy from traveling agents or send to Portland for what you need.

Come in and see us about it.

Proclamation.
To the Citizens of the City of Dallas: By virtue of my office I am empowered with the authority to regulate the use of explosives on the 4th of July. I am in receipt of a communication from the Woman's club, to prohibit the use of firecrackers and bombs of all kinds. I see by ordinance No. 1, section 13, of the city of Dallas, leaves it to me to decide in this matter. Now I don't wish to do anything to curb the good patriotic feeling of any one on our national holiday, but we must consider when we are making glad, that we must not endanger life and property, for we all know that each year in the past the 4th of July in the United States has taken its toll of life and property.

Now, therefore, I proclaim: That there shall not be any explosives of any kind thrown, in, or about any of the streets or the city park in the city of Dallas, on July 4th, 1913, under penalty of law, which is a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $25.00.

This order does not prohibit a man from buying fireworks and taking them home to celebrate, providing he does not endanger the life and property of his neighbors. He alone will be held responsible for that.

In case the 4th of July committee desires to have a display of fireworks at night, they shall go to a suitable field and there give their display that all may enjoy the sight.

Dated at Dallas, Oregon, this 19th day of June, 1913.

J. G. VAN ORSDEL,
Mayor of the City of Dallas.

TO FILL AIRLIE POSTOFFICE
Civil Service Commission to Hold Examination for Postmaster.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on Saturday July 12, an examination will be held at Dallas, Ore., as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth class postmaster at Airlie, Ore., and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $411 for the last fiscal year.

Age limit, 21 years and over on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a state where women are declared by statute to be of full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted.

Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the postoffice for which the examination is announced.

The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application forms and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Airlie, Oregon, and the local secretary at Dallas, Oregon, or from the U. S. Civil Service commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington at least seven days before the date of the examination, otherwise it may be impracticable to examine the applicants.

nona Ladies, of Indiana, the Artists-Trio, the Georgia Jubilee Singers and the splendid Chicago Male Quartet. Certainly our chautauqua will not suffer from lack of good music.

Of especial interest to the ladies is the coming of Miss Belle Kearney whose lecture on "The Old South" is said to be a real treat. Miss Kearney is a queenly womanly woman, with a remarkable speaking voice, so that large crowds have no difficulty in hearing her. Her lecture engagements on her tour of the world were attended by the most prominent of the English-speaking people.

Special morning work, including lectures of deep interest, and Indian games for the youngsters are provided each afternoon during the chautauqua. The committee in charge reports that season tickets are selling well, and are much enthused over the prospects for our first chautauqua.

from the management of the Ellison-White Chautauqua company suggesting methods of creating interest in the coming chautauqua in this city, and explaining in detail the merits of the program offered, gave rise to a general discussion of plans to promote the coming season. As a result a motion was adopted offering a prize of $10 in cash to the young lady who succeeds in selling the largest number of season tickets before the opening day. Arrangements were also made for placing the tickets on sale in neighboring towns.

Would Start Business Course.
Proposal to establish a business course in connection with the Dallas High school, and night classes for the benefit of all others who might wish to take advantage of the plan, was contained in a letter received from Charles E. Taylor, an experienced business college instructor. Mr. Taylor visited the city last week and after an investigation, expressed himself as pleased with the outlook. The matter was given the unqualified endorsement of the club and further consideration of it was referred to the committee on city and county affairs.

Secretary Tooze reported that he had furnished information, upon request, to the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway for the publication of a booster book relative to the communities on its line.

Minor Matters.
A communication from the extension department of the O. A. C. offering to furnish one or more lecturers from that institution during the Dallas chautauqua, was read, and turned over to the secretary for further consideration.

Chairman N. L. Guy, from the amusement committee, reported that matters in connection with the Fourth of July celebration were running smoothly, that the committees were all working and that every indication gave promise of success. In connection with the proposed auto excursion to other towns advertising the Fourth, President Fuller, chairman of the advertising committee for the celebration, announced that the trip would probably be made on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24 and 25.

Would Start Business Course.
Proposal to establish a business course in connection with the Dallas High school, and night classes for the benefit of all others who might wish to take advantage of the plan, was contained in a letter received from Charles E. Taylor, an experienced business college instructor. Mr. Taylor visited the city last week and after an investigation, expressed himself as pleased with the outlook. The matter was given the unqualified endorsement of the club and further consideration of it was referred to the committee on city and county affairs.

Secretary Tooze reported that he had furnished information, upon request, to the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway for the publication of a booster book relative to the communities on its line.

Minor Matters.
A communication from the extension department of the O. A. C. offering to furnish one or more lecturers from that institution during the Dallas chautauqua, was read, and turned over to the secretary for further consideration.

Chairman N. L. Guy, from the amusement committee, reported that matters in connection with the Fourth of July celebration were running smoothly, that the committees were all working and that every indication gave promise of success. In connection with the proposed auto excursion to other towns advertising the Fourth, President Fuller, chairman of the advertising committee for the celebration, announced that the trip would probably be made on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24 and 25.

Tonsorial Art.
Barber-Poor Jim has been sent to a lunatic asylum.
Victim (In chair)—Who's Jim?
"Jim is my twin brother, sir. Jim has long been broodin' over the hard times, and I suppose he finally got crazy."
"Is that so?"
"Yes, he and me has worked side by side for years, and we are so alike we couldn't tell each other apart. We both brooded a great deal too. No money in this business now."
"What's the reason?"
"Prices too low. Unless a customer takes a shampoo it doesn't pay to shave or haircut. Poor Jim, I caught him trying to cut a customer's throat because he refused a shampoo, so I had to have the poor fellow locked up. Makes me sad. Sometimes I feel sorry I didn't let him slash all he wanted to. It might have saved his reason. Shampoo, sir?"
—Milwaukee Journal.

The Way.
If you want to get a cubist Or a futurist effect, Take the shade of an idea Which is quite completely wrecked, Put a pencil in the fingers Of an active two-year-old And just let him to draw pictures He will do as he is told.

Then go get a rabbit rooster That's been scratching in the dirt. Make him walk across the picture With an extra jaunty flirt. Keep him thusly promenading 'Till his spattered over the page Lines and jabs about the baby's. For this style is all the rage.

Now throw ink spots on the picture, And if still remains a trace Of a line which could have meaning 'Try that meaning to erase With a currycomb or toothpick; Then when you have done it all To the likeness of a brainstrom Call it "Maidens at a Ball."
—Baltimore American.

The Difference.
A Frenchman who was visiting this country was kidnapped last summer by some of his admirers in Maryland and sentenced to go through with an all day picnic in the woods, where there were plenty of cold food and a lot of chiggers. The food that was handed to him crucified his palate. The ham was tar flavored, the pastry was soggy, and the cake was moist and heavy, and in as polite a manner as he could be lifted up his voice to heaven and wept that such things should be.

"Why, monsieur," one of the young women answered his lamentation, "I thought we Americans had improved immensely in our cuisine. Look at our fashionable restaurants. Even their menus are printed in French."
"Yes," retorted the witty Frenchman, "but they are still cooked in American."

A Culinary Idea.
"How will you have your eggs cooked?" asked the waiter.
"Make any difference in the cost of 'em?" inquired the cautious customer with the brimless hat and the ragged beard.
"No."
"Then cook 'em on the top of a slice of ham," said the customer, greatly relieved.—Smith's Weekly.

He Will.
A stupid justice of the peace—Let's hope the tribe will not increase—Tied up a pair the other day And had the bridegroom say "over." A youth who'd been going the pace Dropped finally out of the race. He fell quite a bit, And I know where he hit. Though, of course, he can't mention the place. —Julia.

Same Thing.
"Hillet—See here! Did you tell Bull I'd been cheated again? Perry—No; I merely said you had made another of your characteristic investments—London Mail.

Do not allow idleness to deceive you, for while you give him time he steals tomorrow from you.—Crowley.

Winona Ladies of Indiana
After several successful seasons on the concert platform, both on summer Chautauqua circuit and winter entertainment courses, the Winona Ladies of Indiana, are to come to us as the opening attraction, afternoon and evening of the first day of our Chautauqua. These girls do not pose as grand opera singers, but they have a splendid range of popular music and many pleasing stunts. The quartette is a particularly happy combination of personalities which are so pleasing that the quartette has earned the name of the "Sunshine Girls." It is given them to open our Chautauqua programs this summer, and we believe that this is a particularly happy selection.
