

Hart Schaffner & Marx Summer Suits Grand Clean-up on these $25 Suits Special This Week $12.50

A Big Loss for US on every suit but the continued rain has checked the sale of Summer Suits and we have decided to Sell Them All This Week

When we decide the time has come to sell, we SELL, regardless of cost. Our loss is your gain. But every Hart Schaffner & Marx Suit sold is a good advertisement and means a future demand for GOOD Clothes: the Hart Schaffner & Marx kind.

We have been urged to buy "SECONDS" in a good many lines—especially in Men's Underwear, Shirts, etc.—garments made by reputable manufacturers, but culled out as defective. These are sold to Kike Stores all over the country at about one-third the regular price, and often sold as first-class goods. We never sell that class of goods. Don't believe any store in Dallas would sell them as first-class. But you can't sometimes always tell.

PITCHER'S BATTLE WON BY DALLAS

LOCALS TAKE BIG END OF ONE TO NOTHING MATINEE.

Watt Shipp's Salem Team Proves Formidable Rivals But "Barney" Fools 'Em As Usual.

The Dallas base ball club added another scalp to its belt when Watt Shipp's Salem team was defeated Sunday on the local base ball lot by the score of 1 to 0. It was a pitcher's battle all the way between Barham for Dallas and Myers for Salem with the former getting away with the biggest end of the matinee. Barham was in great form and whiffed 16 of the visitors, holding them down to two scattered hits. Myers also had the locals guessing and the only Dallas man to connect safely were Fenton and E. Barham. The feature of the game was the fact that in seven innings, only 21 men faced Barham.

In the first half of the eighth, "Barney" crawled out of a very small hole when, with men on second and third and nobody down, and handling a slippery ball, he retired the following three men on strikes.

Jupe Pluv and Senator Morton, the Most Honorable Ump called the matinee in the eighth stanza with the following score:

Kirk, rf	3 0 0 1 0
Eberhart, 2b	3 0 0 2 5 1

*Hillery substituted for Boydston in seventh inning.

Score by innings—

Dallas 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1

Summary—Sacrifice hits, Rice, Cooper. Stolen base, Herzog. Base on balls, off Myers. 1 Strike out by Barham 16, by Myers 6. Passed ball, Holman. Time of game, one hour and 15 minutes. Umpire Morton.

Program Pleases; Big Crowds

Ellison-White Chautauqua Company Gets Encouraging Words From California; Interest is Great.

That the cities in California where the Ellison-White Chautauqua company has already held their assemblies, are very much pleased with the programs and the success of the meetings, is proven by the many enthusiastic telegrams which have been pouring in upon the head office in Portland during the past two weeks.

Among them are the following: Santa Monica—"Great crowd and great enthusiasm; White City Band, of Chicago, with Thaviu Grand Opera company packed the tent and grounds for both concerts at Modesto. Committee says we must have them again, next year." Turlock, Cal.—"Chautauqua audience so well pleased with Senator Burdett and Artists' Trio, that there has been voluntarily organized a permanent Chautauqua assembly here, demanding that the Ellison-White System come again next year."

Lodi, Cal.—"To Ellison-White Chautauqua System: 'I cannot tell you how wild this town is over Chautauqua. I have never seen such enthusiasm. Every member of the entertaining force is greeted splendidly, and we are told that the acts are perfect. An wiring you tonight that the contract is signed for next year by over 200 of the best people of Lodi. Prominent men who have knocked the proposition this year passed signature papers through the audience tonight. Others cut loose on the streets, and I have been told that every man approached signed up.'—J. B. Hurd."

WINONA LADIES OF INDIANA

Four Noted Vocalists to Open Polk County Chautauqua.

The Winona Ladies, of Indiana, have been doing chautauqua and lyceum work for several years. The company consists of: Miss Lillian Norman, soprano; Miss Maud Cree, mezzo soprano; Miss Esther Canter, alto; Miss Nina Shanklin, contralto.

They will present not only the standard music some times called classical, but also popular music, with some novelties not often used in concert work. With them comes the noted Harrell, of Boston, who is a musical entertainer and magician of rare ability. It is regarded as important that our Chautauqua has such good programs for its opening day, and we feel that we are fortunate in having secured two such attractions as these.
