War Raises Prices.

The Balkan war has brought about a rise in certain lumber prices in Europe because of the big demand for wood for ammunition boxes.

Dogwood Grows Scarce.

Dogwood, the principle source of shuttles in cotton mills, is growing scarcer year by year, and various substitutes are being tried, but with no great success.

To Prevent Fires.

The officials of the Yosemite National park are co-operating with the forest officers of the Stanislaus and Sierra National forests for fire prevention and control in both the park and the forests.

Plant Trees by Machine.

Experiments with a tree planting machine at the Utah Agricultural experiment station indicate that it may be used to advantage in reforesting old burned areas on the national forests.

Beautiful Women of the 400 Who Have Luxuriant Hair.

In gay New York where women get ideas from their foreign sisters, the hair tonic called PARISIAN Sage at 50 cents is in great demand.

PARISIAN Sage is the discovery of a well known scientist, and he claims most emphatically that it is the only hair preparation that will kill the persistent dandruff germs.

At any rate the Giroux Mfg. Co., of Buffalo, N. Y., American manufacturers of PARISIAN Sage, give through Conrad Starlin this guarantee, the strongest given:

"We guarantee PARISIAN Sage to end dandruff in two weeks; to stop falling hair; to make dull, lifeless hair beautiful and luxuriant; to cure itching diseases of the scalp, or money back."
