

ODDS AND ENDS

A Fitting Climax to an Eventful Sale

The Winding up of a Monster Merchandise Selling Event

Never, in the history of the mighty Willamette Valley has merchandise received such a Gigantic Slaughter as the Dallas Mercantile Company has been serving up during the past month. Special sales are advertised but the vast majority lack the "SPECIAL" part of the sale. We Believe we have a meritorious right to say, Our Sale was all we claimed. We did just as we advertised. Our promises were fulfilled.

A SURPRISE AND THE REASON FOR IT

At the wind-up of a Great Sale where there has been No Reserve, full freedom allowed and your choice of any and all goods given, we could not expect otherwise than to have Odds and Ends accumulate; such has been OUR FATE. We RISE to the task of shaking them off. They must and shall GO that we may accomplish in a full measure that which we sought.

Have You Ever Attended a Real Odd and End Sale?

One where all classes of Merchandise seemed to meet you with a nod and a beckon? Where the many things you need and want can be had at the Odd and End price? Well, such a sale will open in full blast
