Here's the Only Movable Tunnel
On the Map and It's Unique

CALIFORNIA boasts of many big and odd things that the rest of the country does not possess, such as giant redwood trees and sixty-seven varieties of climate, but now it is capping the climax with the only movable street tunnel in the country. This unique tunnel is formed under the old residence of Adolf Spreckles, which is being moved. When the contract for the removal of the house was signed the street railway company objected to the obstruction of traffic, and it forced the movers to elevate the house so that cars could pass beneath it. The movers proceeded via the aerial route. The picture shows a street car passing through the movable tunnel.

FAST SWIMMING.

Strokes to Use and Methods to Follow to Acquire Speed.

The general rule may be set down that no swimmer should attempt speed—until he can swim. As well as in racing—until he can cover a quarter of a mile with a good stroke. It matters not whether one aims at becoming an all around competitor or a specialist at the sprints, the same rule obtains. Once the stroke has been perfected, the chosen events may be taken up, but even then it is the best policy to alternate fast swimming with easy stretches, at moderate pace, under the watchful eye of the coach. It is always advisable to limit the number of time trials.

There are but two strokes which can be recommended to the racing man for free style swimming, the crawl for distances not exceeding 220 yards and both the crawl and the trudgen for longer journeys. Some question is still in the mind of many as to which is preferable for the latter events, but in the writer's opinion—based upon the teachings of the past—any set of movements which affords best results at the furthest will also prove best at the longer courses after the swimmer has accustomed his muscles to the action by constant practice.—Outing Magazine.

SLAUGHTER IN BATTLE.

Gettysburg Losses Eclipsed Those at Balaklava and Inkerman.

At Balaklava the light brigade lost 37 per cent of its men, and at Inkerman the guards lost 45 per cent, and both got down to history in verse and prose as having been annihilated. At Gettysburg the Second Wisconsin lost 233 out of 302, the Nineteenth Indiana lost 210 out of 288 and the One Hundred and Fiftieth Pennsylvania volunteers out of 380 men and 17 officers brought back about eighty men and only one officer not wounded. The One Hundred and Twenty-first, the One Hundred and Forty-second, the One Hundred and Forty-ninth and the One Hundred and Fiftieth Pennsylvania lost quite as heavily.

Among the First corps officers wounded in the first day's fight were Generals Doubleday, Meredith and Paul and Colonels Morrow, Stone, Wister, Fairchild, Dudley, Biddle, Tilden, Leonard, Coulter and McFarland. The disasters of the afternoon to the Second division were lessened by its capture of much of Iverson's brigade, of Ewell's corps, out at the Mummasburg road, near Oak Hill.—General H. S. Hildekoper in National Magazine.

Witty Retort.

A lady of great beauty and attractiveness who was an ardent admirer of Ireland once crowned her praise of it at a party by saying:

"I think I was meant for an Irish woman."

"Madam," rejoined a witty son of Erin who happened to be present, "thousands would back me in saying that you were meant for an Irishman."

—London Tit-Bits.

Persuasion.

"I can't marry you," she said. "You are old enough to be my father."

"Don't hesitate on that account. Ten years from now nobody will suspect it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Imitative.

Mother—Whatever are you doing to poor dolly, child? Child—I'm just going to put her to bed, mummy. I've taken off her hair, but I can't get her teeth out.—London Tit-Bits.

Soul System.

"Algy writes to seven girls."

"It's a wonder he doesn't get his love affairs mixed."

"He keeps a card index."—Washington Herald.

The Nature of the Creature.

"Your cook?"

"Oh, she is so careless that I don't believe she could drop a remark without breaking her word."—Smart Set.

Be not simply good; be good for something.—Thoreau.

His Cleverness.

"Don't be so lazy. There's plenty o' room at the top, and you're clever enough to get there."

"But," replied the lazy genius, "think how clever it is of me to find a place at the bottom, where there isn't so much room."

Such a Stupid Man.

Fair Customer—I tell you that I wear a No. 2. Clerk—But, madam, this shoe that you just took off is a No. 4. Fair Customer—Yes, I know, but it has stretched horribly.—Boston Transcript.

Many There Who Could Do It.

"It is said that the devil never takes a vacation."

"Well, if he doesn't it isn't because he can't find anybody to run the place in his absence."—Judge.

He who follows two hares is sure to catch neither.

He Did Not Need It.

Buskin—I can't go on. I haven't any makeup. Manager—What are you playing tonight? Buskin—The fool in Manager—Go right on. Never mind the makeup.

HOMESTEADS—If you want a good 320 acre homestead you should write to me at once. I spent several hundred dollars and almost a year's time investigating the different homestead districts of the Northwest. I finally bought out a relinquishment here adjoining the town of Imperial. I now have two or three other first-class relinquishments near mine for sale. The price is no more, if as much, as the usual location fee charged by locators. This valley is thickly settled, prosperous, has schools, the advantages of a small town, daily passenger and freight automobile service connecting with railroads. We will soon have a railroad. Plenty of water and wood, good even climate, grow almost any crop. Write me now, enclosing stamp, and I will tell you all about these claims. Address: Sherman Montgomery, Imperial, Crook County, Oregon. 812-9-5
