

STURGIS' "LUXURY" GO-CARTS & CARRIAGES

BODY—All-steel frame, full tubular pusher, nicked handle, adjustable handle.

HOOD—Leather cloth, autoextension style with removable side curtains, nickel braces, friction fixture.

UPHOLSTERING—Leather cloth, seat and back heavily padded.

SPRINGS—The famous Luxury springs, seat and back attached thereto.

WHEELS—Quick-detachable, 15-spoke, tinned and lacquered, 10X cushion rubber tires, foot brake, nickel-plated hub caps.

PRICE $13.50

We have go-carts that we can sell you from $4.50 to $40.00.

THE PLACE TO BUY! THE PLACE TO EXCHANGE YOUR OLD FURNITURE FOR NEW

DAVIS & HORN

The Reliable Home Furnishers

Phone 20. Main and Washington Sts., DALLAS

News of City and County

Mrs. S. B. Adams of Portland is visiting friends in Dallas.

Dr. McNeil, Osteopathic Physician, Miss Wanda Keyt from Perrydale was in Dallas Saturday.

Price Bros. had their awning painted red this week or rather part of it.

Mike McNulty of Polk Station was transacting business in Dallas Saturday.

—Many come miles to dine at the Gail.

W. M. Wyme of Dallas spent several days during the last week at Falls City.

Mrs. Chas. Gregory is visiting her parents near Sheridan, she will be absent all week.

G. W. Montgomery of Perrydale paid his Dallas friends a visit Friday and Saturday.

We eat, fit and make our own suits.—Phil Begin. 67-4f.

Miss Ruth McTimmons came in from McTimmons Valley to spend Sunday in Dallas.

Nita Burch of Dallas was visiting relatives in Amity the first of the week.—Amity Standard.

The finest bread comes from "Prune City" flour. 100-11.

J. L. Bell of Falls City, Tie Inspector for the S. P. Railway, was in Dallas one day last week.

Sunday was a lovely day with the unanimous expression heard in common conversation yesterday.

Do you need a new suit? The place to buy it is at Price Bros. Remodeling Sale. 100-11.

Miss Blanch Meache of Portland, was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy, part of last week.

Enna Skelton of the Dallas Mercantile Company is in Portland picking up the late styles in millinery.

—The greatest thing in Dallas—a meal at the Gail.

A case of scarlet fever is reported at the home of Prof. Dunkleberger, the premises is under quarantine.

Don't forget the band concert to-morrow night, it will be worth breaking an engagement for as it will be good.

Baptist Church revivals March 15, W. B. Hicks and F. G. McKee, leaders. 99-4f.

Lyle Harpole returned home on Monday morning after several days' visit with relatives in Dallas.—Amity Standard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Vassall and W. G. Vassall spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Goetz, north of the city. 100-11.

Price Bros. Remodeling Sale is now on. Attend it. 100-11.

In the basket ball game Saturday night, Co. L. of Dallas was defeated by Dallas High School, by a score of 43 to 18.

Bids for the new hospital were opened Monday night, but the contract will not be awarded until later in the week.

Miss Edith Stalley, one of Forest Grove's popular young ladies arrived in Dallas this morning to visit Mrs. Gerald Volk.

Grocers like to sell "Prune City" flour because it is always satisfactory. 100-11.

J. A. Morley, a merchant of Forest Grove is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and is visiting relatives in the vicinity of Dallas.

John D. Turner who is associated with Carson & Brown, attorneys of Salem, was transacting business in the Court House yesterday.

Drs. Lowe & Turner, eye specialists at Hotel Gail Monday and Thursday, March 2nd and 3rd. 100-11.

Raleigh Burch of Dallas was visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe Burch, the first of the week.—Amity Standard.

Clarence Ortman of the Thatcher section, has been visiting his brother George, who is running a farm at Gilliam, near Dallas.—Forest Grove Press.

Attend the remodeling sale at Price Bros. this week. 100-11.

Miss Jennie Muscott of Dallas, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, of this city yesterday. Miss Muscott is the city librarian at Dallas.—Salem Journal.

Miss Vera Kayler of Portland, who recently purchased a place near Dallas spent the week end in her future home, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Kayler.

Sheriff Grant took into custody Sunday on a warrant two young men who were in a scuffling match at Black Rock. $10 please, said the judge to each.

Clothing at greatly reduced prices at Price Bros. Remodeling Sale. 100-11.

Bob Van Orsdel says that horse-back riding may be fun after you get used to it, but the getting used to it is where the "rub" comes in. He tried it last Sunday.

Mrs. Chloe A. Seymour of Falls City and her son, Floyd Seymour, were visitors in Dallas Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Seymour is a prominent W. C. T. U. worker and is an educator in Falls City.

W. E. Kurtz, conductor on the S. F. W. Ry. motor car, who with his family has been enjoying a vacation trip in California, arrived in Dallas Sunday and intends to make this city their permanent home.

"We never knew what good bread was until we began using "Prune City", volunteers a good Polk County Cook. 100-11.

O. B. Parker of McMinnville, Game Warden and his deputy, C. A. Russell of Gaston, were here Sunday evening, after walking most of the distance from McMinnville to Dallas looking for violators of the game laws.

Miss Stella Plankington of Bridgeport, who was obliged to give up her clerkship on account of sickness has returned to Dallas and is again at Mrs. Gregory's furnishing store.

Miss Annie May Longnecker, who for the past month has been in Dallas attending to her mother has gone to Portland to resume her duties as trained nurse at the St. Vincent hospital.

The annual meeting of the Liberty Telephone Company will be held at the Liberty school house, March 2nd, 1914, at 7:30 p. m., G. W. McBe, Pres.

Mrs. B. Toner, who has been looking over the millinery department in Portland wholesale houses, for the past two weeks returned to Dallas Friday.

Geo. A. Russell, sales manager for the Portland Elevator Company was in Dallas to put in a bid for the construction of elevators in the new hospital under construction.

Rev. H. W. Gross, pastor of the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church of Salem was here yesterday looking over the possibilities of founding a church in Dallas.

F. Silverstone, an old time traveling shoe salesman from San Francisco, was in Dallas Sunday. He was surprised to note the improvements in Dallas and vicinity and remarked that the Hotels here were of a better class than the ones in California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Starr and family have returned again to make Dallas their home. Mr. Starr purchased an interest in the Starr Transfer Co., a business which he founded and afterwards sold, when he and his family left Dallas.

Mrs. Chas. W. Buell of Airline passed through Dallas this morning enroute home from Monmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Buell are looking for a ranch to purchase, having recently arrived in Polk County.

Art Gale, of Dallas, who has been in the city for the past two days attending business, has accepted the salesmanship for the Portsmouth Land Company in Eastern Oregon. He will leave in a few days for Baker.—Albany Democrat.

Mr. Sheri Braley of Buell was in Dallas this morning. Mr. Braley states that the roads from Buell to the mill need to be improved and also the cross road from the mill to Dallas. Road improvements from the farm to trading points is what is needed far more than pleasure highways.

If your eyes are getting weak and it is hard for you to read, call on Dr. C. H. Morris and have him examine them. He will fit you with glasses that see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke Sunday evening on the problem of everlasting punishment, he emphasized the fact that persistent wrong doers and breakers of the laws of God, would be meted everlasting punishment, possibly not by physical fire but would see a hell which consists of pain of a spiritual nature, such as shame, remorse, anxiety, disappointment, and fear, and although this is a dark and forbidden picture, there is a brighter one, and the holy life and heavenly rewards are for all who will accept them.

or, Mr. H. H. Rottman in charge of both services.

Mr. Rottman brought a live and helpful message to a house crowded with interested listeners.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A very impressive service was held in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday night, when Rev. H. H. Rottman, Christian Endeavor Field Secretary for the Northwest gave a stereopticon lecture under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Evangelical, Christian and Presbyterian Churches. Mr. Rottman took up all aspects of the Christian Endeavor work Missions, Evangelistic, Junior, Temperance and Service. The service was one that will be remembered by all who were present.

The Oregon State Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in the First Presbyterian Church of Albany on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, February 20th, 21st, and 22nd, at which there will be speakers of note from all parts of the country, especially the former world's secretary, Dr. John Willis Baer, but now President of The Occidental College, California. Miss Claudia Brown and Miss Fern Douthitt will go as delegates from the Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church of this city.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the college dormitory last Friday evening. Games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. C. P. Gates made the announcement that all the pie-faces present would come into their own. The pies were brought in and sold. Rev. Gates acting as auctioneer, the sale of fourteen pies brought $10.60, which is to be used for the purchasing of new song books for the society. Three lemon pies sold for $1.05 each. After the pies were eaten the merry makers wended their way homeward.

stuck in the mud in Mr. Brown's lane and the horse, in trying his best to pull the buggy out, broke the harness and scampered home.

You better attend the good roads meetings, boys!

The best lamp in the world is the Sunshine

Safety lamp that I absolutely guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded. 200 candle power with only 11 cts.

cost for 21 hours of bright light. Henry Gohrke, sole agent, Dallas, Oregon.

COMPARE THESE PRICES