Better Fix This Hill.

Mr. C. Nelson who resides south of the city was in Dallas Saturday. Mr. Nelson ordered his paper changed to Monmouth instead of Dallas, the reason being that the Samuel hill is in a bad condition and the road from his place to Monmouth is good. He says that a number of his neighbors who used to trade in Dallas are now going to Monmouth on account of the condition of the roads.

Council Meeting.

The city council held a short session last evening and adjourned until this evening. A member of the firm of Koon Bros. was present and gave an interesting talk on the different ways of constructing septic tanks and the probable costs of the same. As Dallas must soon construct these tanks, his remarks were given the closest attention by the members of the city council.

Easter Millinery.

Mrs. Toner the milliner went to Portland Sunday so as to be on hand early Monday morning at the wholesale houses. She found that the demand for the late styles in Easter hats were so great that her stock had to be replanted. Call and see the new hats that she has just added. They are beauties.

TELL THE TRUTH

An exchange says that a certain candidate for office had better pay up the last campaign bills he owes that office or get a little free publicity. In the Observer case we will omit the candidates to be paid for advertisements after they receive their bills the first of the month, if the paid advertisement is not actually paid. A citizen of Portland writes a letter to the press saying he would not support a certain candidate unless he paid his old house rent bill. How about the old subscription account, let the newspaper man get busy and give the candidates free publicity who are in arrears. They surely are not worthy of office if they do not pay their bills. Make this an honest campaign and tell the truth about the fellows that want office and thus protect the tax-payer and give the honest man a show.

DON'T DO IT

We understand that a movement is on for a round-trip rate to Salem, the latter part of each week and that several of Dallas citizens are encouraging that move. Don't do it, it is a bad spirit to even think of going away from home to shop. Do not try to make Salem merchants believe that you are dissatisfied with your local merchants. You can not find anywhere in Oregon where dry goods, clothing or general merchandise is sold any cheaper than it is in Dallas. A few sore heads whose credit is not of the best are always kicking. Take the Dallas papers and compare the prices that merchants are quoting on their different lines of goods and you will see that they are as low if not lower than those quoted by Salem merchants.

At the present writing only one candidate for governor on the republican ticket has mixed with the Dallas voters and that is Johns. Four Democratic candidates have visited Dallas thus far and more to follow.

Our custom is to pay our doctors when we are sick, and sometimes not even then. The Celestial method, as shown by the example of the Emperor of China, is to pay the doctor only when one is well.

As soon as the Emperor is sick it is a notification to his physicians that their salary is cut off till he is perfectly well again. The passionate zeal with which the regulars go to work to get his majesty back where their salaries will begin again is said to be something astounding. The result is that the Emperor is about the healthiest man standing on this planet, and his physicians seldom lose a day's salary.

DR. VAN BRAKLE CLEARED OF CHARGE

(From Sunday Oregonian, April 5th) The proceedings in Circuit Court against County Health officer, Van Brakle, charging that he is not a graduate of a reputable medical college was dismissed upon the request of County Attorney Hedger.

Physicians of Oregon City, a rival school city to that of Dr. Van Brakle who is an osteopath, were behind the proceedings.

Action Called Vindication.

"The dismissal of the proceedings attacking my legal qualifications is a vindication of my rights to hold the office of County Health Officer," said Dr. Van Brakle.

"The fact that this dismissal was asked for by those opposing me is proof positive that they were unable even to make out a case against me. Typical medical association tactics were used again—filed a few minutes before the case was to come for trial—thus throwing upon the taxpayers the expense of bringing witnesses from several parts of the state."

The one charge now remaining against the local health officer is that which has been brought before the State Board of Health upon the complaint of Dr. Gay Mount and Dr. M. C. Strickland, both of this city.

WAS IT 'FRAME UP?'

(Editorial Oregon City Courier.) Evidence in the Van Brakle case showed that almost every doctor in the city was in waiting for the patient to return from Dr. Van Brakle's office where they had sent him.

How strange, how very unusual that all of these doctors should "just happen" not to be busy on these two days, and every one ready to respond to the "call" to come to Dr. Strickland's office at the same hour both days.

Significantly singular! Very unusual! Business must have been on the lull on these two "particular" occasions, when two men had been sent to Van Brakle's office.

Singular again, more than "passing strange" is the fact that while the charges against Dr. Van Brakle grew out of happenings of many months before, going back to October last, yet they were only brought to a hearing on the last day of the following March—just three days before a suit before Judge Campbell to have Dr. Van Brakle ousted.

Do you suppose the doctors were so very busy that they had not time to bring these charges before?

Or did they hold them all these months waiting for Tuesday night?

Were these occasions "happenstances" or were they American Medical Association politics?

Were these actions on the part of the physicians of Oregon City for the good of the people or the goat of Dr. Van Brakle—an osteopath?

Are these physicians fighting for the health of the people or fighting against a competition they fear—the drugless doctors?

These suspicious circumstances would not be tolerated in political parties for thirty days. The people would rise up and break up the machine.

And it is not far off when people of Oregon will rise up and abolish the laws which give the A. M. A. the power they have to oppose—the power to try a competitor by a jury of those in competition.

HYOMEI RELIEVES IN FIVE MINUTES

You Breathe It.

If your head is all stuffed up from a cold or catarrh, you suffer with dull headaches and seem lacking in vitality, or are constantly sniffling and coughing, you need a remedy that will give the quickest, most effective and lasting relief possible—something that will go right to the spot, clear the head and throat and end your misery.

Surely use Hyomei—all druggists sell it. Is it just such a remedy, and is entirely harmless and pleasant to use—you breathe it—no stomach dosing.

The antiseptic oils of Hyomei mix with the air you breathe—its health-giving medication immediately reaches the sore and inflamed mucous membrane—you feel better in five minutes. It is practically impossible to use Hyomei and not only be relieved but permanently benefitted. Conrad Staffin will refund your money if you are not satisfied. Ask for the complete outfit—$1.00 size.

WORTH KNOWING

"How do you do?" That's English and American. "How do you carry yourself?" That's French.

"How do you stand?" That's Italian. "How do you find yourself?" That's German. "How do you fare?" That's Dutch. "How can you?" That's Swedish. "How do you persevere?" That's Egyptian. "How is your stomach, have you eaten your rice?" That's Chinese. "How do you have yourself?" That's Polish.

"How do you live on?" That's Russian. "May thy shadow never be less." That's Persian—and all mean much the same thing.
