

EFFICIENT SERVICE SURE MARKED ABILITY OF E. M. SMITH IS RECOGNIZED.

Nominated for the Clerkship of Polk County by Republicans on His Merits.

"Never was there a man who served Polk county so ably in the clerkship as did Ed. M. Smith. Everybody got service and accuracy." This is a statement by one who knows whereof he speaks.

E. M. SMITH.

port. The Smiths are pioneers of Polk county, being among its very earliest settlers. "Ed," as he is familiarly known throughout this section of the Willamette Valley, was born in Independence forty years ago, but was reared and educated at Monmouth, where he graduated from the State Normal.

Mr. Smith has served Polk county in the capacity of clerk, and his administration of the office was one of efficiency and economy. No less an authority than Secretary of State Ben Oleott pays him the high compliment of having been "the best county clerk in Oregon," which reflects credit upon the judgment of those people of Polk who elected him.

ESPEE REFUSES TO PAY TAXES.

Determines to Wait Until Cases in Court Are Settled.

Polk county will lose $13,528.44 in taxes this year through the decision of the Southern Pacific company's decision not to pay on lands whose title is now the subject of litigation in the land grant cases now pending in the Federal courts.

SCHOOL WORK INSPECTED.

Portland Teachers Visit Two Institutions in Monmouth.

One hundred and twenty-five Portland teachers passed through Dallas Saturday morning and visited the Oregon Normal and the Monmouth Training School. They made the trip by special train.

Carnival Company Coming.

The Follow Carnival company, now playing in leading Southern California towns, will visit Dallas within a few weeks, according to C. H. Smith, the man ahead, who was here on Saturday perfecting the necessary preliminary arrangements.

Miss Serr in Recital.

Miss Bertha Serr, of Dallas, is one of the accomplished singer students who is prominent in the musical events of the season, says the Independence Monitor. She was associated in musical recital work with Mrs. Walter Tooze, Jr., at Dallas, and their appearances together in duets were quite successful. Miss Serr will be presented soon in recital by Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer.

NEWS FROM FALLS CITY.

Several Local Items of Interest Are Told by The News.

J. A. Brown was quite severely injured by a fall. He was going ahead of the train load of phone pole locating the places to drop them off. In the darkness fell into a cattleguard at a road crossing and was bruised and scratched and torn to an extent that is quite painful.

The Pythian Sisters dance at Wagner hall last night was well attended and a most successful affair in every way.

A lodge of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen will be organized in Falls City in a short time.

Falls City is growing, and will continue to grow, and along with that growth will come the permanent improvement of the streets.

Mrs. Stevenson, of Portland, will have charge of the singing during the revival meetings at the Christian church.

HOLD SECOND MEETING.

McLaughlin Leads the Anti-Prohibition Fight in Polk County.

The Hopgrowers' association held another meeting at Salem last Saturday afternoon, at which time representative men connected with the industry perfected arrangements for strenuously opposing statewide prohibition.

The hopmen declare that the hop industry is the biggest cash industry in the Willamette Valley, bringing in annually from eastern and foreign markets approximately $6,000,000, of which approximately $3,000,000 was paid last year to hop pickers and laborers.

MAKE PERSONAL INSPECTION.

Corvallis Students Spend Week Judging Stock in the Valley.

Fourteen students of the husbandry class of the Corvallis college, accompanied by Prof. E. J. Potter, passed through Dallas a few days ago on their way home from a week's trip through the lower Willamette Valley.

Public Library Notes.

The following books at the public library have been taken from the rental list and placed in free circulation: "A Cry in the Wilderness," Walker; "The Judgment House," Parker; "V V's Eyes," Harrison; "The Lucky Seventh," Van Loan; "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby," Norris; "The Heart of Life," De Coulevain; "Claylanger," Bennett; "Christmas," Gale.

New books: "Cap'n Dan's Daughter," Lincoln; "Penrod," Tarkington; "An Island Story," Marshall; "The Child's English Literature," Marshall. The last two books are unusually interesting for children, being histories of England, and English literature, beautifully bound and illustrated.

Improving Oakdale Road.

The county has a force of men and five teams grading what is known as the Oakdale road at a point two miles west of town. The improvement will extend a mile. Residents on that highway have raised about $400 by popular subscription for graveling, and the work will be commenced within a few days. It is probable that the gravel will come from Independence by rail and hauled to the road from Dallas. The county court, besides doing the grading and putting in the necessary drains, will contribute a small sum to the betterments.

Troops May Be Withdrawn.

An ultimatum hinting that United States troops might be withdrawn from the Colorado coal strike zone unless the Colorado legislature ended its "inaction" was served on the state of Colorado by President Wilson in a message late Saturday afternoon.

Grain Looking Fine.

W. N. Yeater, who is the owner of 318 acres of land six miles west of Monmouth, where he raises grain, fruit and general produce, was in Dallas on Saturday. He says grain crops are looking better now than for many years past.

JACKS FOUND NECESSARY.

Starbuck Lies Beneath Train While Workmen Raise Car.

Further particulars concerning the accident to F. E. Starbuck, who was injured at Beaverton last week, an account of which appeared in the Observer of Friday, reveals the fact that the unfortunate man lay under the train for one hour and a half while the crew raised the car with jackscrews. Starbuck's leg was caught between the wheels and the trucks.

The victim, who was a passenger on the train, carried a package to the baggage car at Beaverton, attempted to swing on the train as it started, missed his hold and fell beneath the wheels. His position was such that the train could not be moved without crushing him. Starbuck was a former resident of this county, but now resides at 170 East Sixty-first street, Portland. According to last accounts he was recovering at the Good Samaritan hospital.

How Our Girls Kiss.

(Contributed.)

The Independence maiden, so gentle and sweet, Lets her lips meet the coming kiss— With rapturous warmth, and the youthful souls Float away in the sea of bliss.

The Monmouth girl gets a move on herself, As she carefully takes off her hat; And grabs up the prize in a frightened way Like a terrier shaking a rat.

The Perrydale girl bows her stately head, And fixes her pouting lips— In a firm hard way—then lets 'em go In spasmodic little snips.

But oh!—the Rieckreall girl says never a word, As she freezes her face with a smile; She sticks out her lips like an open book And chews her wax meanwhile.

The Dallas girl will at first refuse— Just to have you insist and plead; But when finally she does consent, Her kiss you'll confess takes the lead.

Mrs. Gooch visited her daughter Bessie in Salem this week.
