STORIES OF THE ROLLING DOLLAR

Where Mail Order Goods Come From

Copyright, 1914

"That's the advantage of traveling," laughed The Rolling Dollar to the shiny quarter. "Just as soon as I was dropped on that lounge I knew where it came from. Only a few of them in Centerville, thank goodness, for folks here aren't running to the money order window all the time."

"That lounge came from one of the larger towns of New York state. It is a manufacturing town, and men were getting from $15 to $22.50 per week in the factories and girls $7 to $10."

"Then one of the big Chicago mail order houses opened a sofa factory there. The boss advertised widely for help, and girls came by the score. But they found wages were to be only $6 to $8, with less men in proportion. The boss got his help by his advertising, and he worked according to the slick system the catalogue houses always use with their employees."

"Soon the other factories, seeing that the sofa factory could pay lower wages, cut their wage scale. Then the town went upside down, with four strikes in three months and labor conditions disrupted generally. The factories hit back by bringing in the cheapest possible labor, and finally most of the decent American men and women, who before the mail order sofa factory started had made living wages, lost their jobs for good. The strikes and tie-ups caused a couple of merchants to fail, and the town has been set back a dozen years."

"But it is true you can buy that lounge such as it is for a little less than the furniture man could sell you a reliable article for. And the catalog illustration certainly makes it look like a first-class article."

"Ever been down in the cotton mill country?" asked the shiny quarter. "There they work little boys and girls 11 and 12 hours a day in an atmosphere that stifles a strong man. It is the cheapest labor those bosses can buy, and they care nothing about what becomes of the children after they are through with them."

"The goods those mills turn out go to the cheap trade like the mail order houses, but the word-artists who write the catalogues cover up that fact very nicely. To sell at cheap prices a catalogue house must buy the cheapest possible stuff regardless of how it is made."

"That is why the sweat shops are still running down on the East Side in New York. When you buy a catalogue suit you never know who made it or how. If most people who buy those cheap clothes could see where they were made—well, they would not relish their dinner right away. "Goods sold through a reliable store can be traced back, but if you've ever forced what they call an 'adjustment' out of a mail order house you know how far you would get on tracing back a suit that carried disease germs."

"I suppose not even a catalogue house can be an unmixing blessing," said The Rolling Dollar.

The democrats of Oregon had an opportunity of selecting without question the next governor of the state. A. S. Bennett of The Dalles, the defeated candidate, was in every sense head and shoulders above all of the candidates in all of the parties and his election would have been a certainty if he had been nominated.—Woodburn Independent.

PICNIC PROVES BIG SUCCESS.

Inclement Weather Dampens Not Ardor of Zena School.

Notwithstanding the threatening skies, and the showers of rain which later fell, the closing exercises of the Zena school last Friday, Miss Marie Groves, teacher, and the picnic and entertainment under the auspices of the Zena parent-teacher association, with a goodly gathering of the parents and friends of the pupils of the school. A splendid program, as follows, was rendered: Piano solo, Helen Baker; vocal quartette, Misses Edna and Elsie Taylor, Meta Martin and Faye Brant, with Helen Baker as accompanist; reading, Mrs. Wayne Henry; song, Helen Baker, with Miss Mable, Mrs. Koch; song, Mrs. Harvey Crawford, and Miss Zinner, the latter accompanying; recitation, Velda Davis; "The Magic Charm," Miss Helen Baker, queen of the elves, Ruth and Ruby Simpson, Marie Looney, Dorothy Shepard, and Curtis Davis. E. F. Carlton, assistant state superintendent of schools and H. C. Seymour, county superintendent of schools of Polk county, were both present and made short and appreciated addresses.

An interesting display of articles in sewing, cooking and basket weaving was shown, the work of some of the pupils, which will later be exhibited at the state fair this fall. A basket dinner was enjoyed in the church. Miss Evangeline Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings, was the winner of the first prize for her collection of botanical specimens.

Receipts for Last Week.

Receipts at Portland for the week were cattle, 1053; calves, 95; hogs, 4188; sheep, 5099.
CATTLE—Livestock liquidation

last week was somewhat lighter than for the same period a week ago, in all lines except hogs, which showed a considerable increase. Cattle prices were steadier and further declines were not registered. Buyers gave $7.50 to $7.75 for best light hay fed steers, $6.50 to $6.75 for good cows and all other cattle prices were equally steady. The failure of the session was one load of firm grain fed steers Monday at 8c.

HOGS—Notwithstanding a liberal run of swine, prices held steady throughout. The best grades of light hogs selling at $8.25 for tops. Outlet broader.

SHEEP—Mutton receipts were smaller and mostly from Willamette Valley points. Top on best grade valley yearlings $5.00. Spring lambs sold Thursday at $6.00 but showed further weakness at close of week's business. Ewes were the firmest class in the layout, selling steady $4.00 to $4.25.

SO DECEPTIVE.

Many Dallas People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause—then cure it. Possibly it's weak kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective. They're especially for weak or disordered kidneys.

Here's a Dallas case. Mrs. A. Siefert, 509 Washington St., Dallas, Oregon, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven to be a fine remedy in our home and I have recommended them many times. They have given me good relief from backache and kidney trouble on several occasions. They have also helped others of my family."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Siefert had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MINT PAYS BIG PROFITS.

Experiments Indicate Yield of $120 Per Acre May Be Had.

One of the newest and most interesting crops raised in Oregon is the mint from which peppermint oil is extracted. In other sections of the country where this oil is an established product, the oil sells at $3 to $4 per pound. Experiments conducted in the vicinity of West Stayton, indicates that this crop, when grown under irrigation, will yield at the rate of $120 per acre. It is expected that a plant for distilling the oil will be erected at West Stayton and a profitable business in the shipping of plants to other sections built up.

Entertains Class.

Miss Ada Longnecker recently entertained her Sunday school class in the park. The day was spent in playing various games, after which a lunch was served. Those present: Misses Butler, Cowles, Baldere, Jost, Martin, Forette, Mitchell, Gurney, Houch, Craven, Syron, Johnson, Fletcher, Morrison, Stewart, Bennett and Charlie Jost.

Coin Is Recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powell went to Dallas for medical aid for their daughter Pauline, who had swallowed a two bit piece of silver. The money was recovered, and Pauline is as well as ever.—Falls City News.
