plans for the mill's erection. Inde-pendence people have waited patiently for several months and hoped for the best and it appears for a certainty now that one of its fondest anticipations will soon be a reality. The erection of this mill will be of much gain to the city and give employment to quite a number of men. Work on the Valley and Siletz railroad is progressing very rapidly. One small cut and a fill in is yet to be completed before connections can be made with the S. P. at Airlie from whence the run can be made into Independence.

Mable Grounds Johnson, pianist and Ben Claire Crow, baritone, as-sisted by Miss McDaniel, violinist, will give a recital Tuesday evening in the Christian church. It will be an invitation affair.
