MONMOUTH.

George Murdock, in the government employ, visited with his parents the last of the week. Mrs. Frank Murdock of North Yamhill was the guest of her husband's parents Saturday and Sunday.

C. L. Hawley and family of McCoy attended the May day exercises Saturday. The May day exercises were second to none, and the crowd was immense. There were people here from Corvallis, Albany, Salem, Dallas, Independence and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Custer of Philomath, and two married daughters, Mrs. Maggie Gardner of Alvadore, Lane county and Mrs. Nora Walker of Portland, and Mr. H. N. McKeen of Alvadore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Halleck on Sunday.

Monday was a fine day and about forty of the Normal students went out to the Luckiamute for a picnic, and got caught in the thunder storm. When they got home they looked like drowned rats, as far as being wet was concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. McClellan went to Albany Monday on a visit and got the benefit of the storm, which was the hardest we have seen for years. J. D. Rexford was the guest of his uncle, A. N. Halleck, Monday night. He is moving from Clackamas county to Benton county.

Rubin Simpson is improving nicely and it is thought he will be out again soon. Mrs. Jay Winegar is still on the mend and Mrs. Treete is about the same.

There were seven baptised at the Evangelical church Sunday. Rev. F. M. Fisher left Wednesday morning for Portland to attend the conference of the Evangelical church. Graham & Son received another carload of Fords last week and are ready to supply the needy—and the sports.

Carl F. Wolf, a native of Germany and formerly an officer in the German army, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn on Monday. He was 57 years old and had lived in Monmouth about four years. He was well liked by all who knew him. He did not leave any reason for his rash act. The funeral was held at the house, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery south of town. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

Last week we made a mistake in A. N. Poole and wife and Mrs. Dawson going to Portland. They were delegates to the State Sunday School convention instead of the Y. P. A. convention.

The freeze we had last Saturday night did great damage here. The grapes were cut down and the cherries badly damaged, also the small fruit. It beat the records for cold at this time of the year.

ORCHARDS.

Or baseball team played Salt Creek high last Friday afternoon. They are not a match for our boys, the score being 18 to 9 in favor of Orchard.

We have just one more week of school. There will be five eighth-grade pupils to take the examinations next week. Our school is now standard. The board of directors have placed a fine lawn swing in front of the school house and we have everything that makes a standard school.

Henry Voth's fine dog was shot Sunday night. Hops are looking fine in this part of the county. The heavy frost damaged the prunes considerably. A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Euell at their home Saturday evening last, about forty of their friends being present. An enjoyable evening was spent after which light refreshments were served.

Miss Freda Neal is visiting her parents. Mr. Neal is quite an expert at gardening. He has raised a fine lot of cabbage and tomato plants and is setting them out on his farm near Dallas, where they will move for the summer as soon as school is out. Mrs. Neal has been engaged to teach our school again next year, and they will move back here in the fall.

School closes next week. Ralph Macomber, Grace Macomber, Webster Ross and Vernon Murphy expect to complete the eighth grade. Ivan Tillotson has the mumps. Mrs. Roy McDonald and sons have been to Eugene on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brewer. While there they attended the wedding of Mrs. McDonald's sister, Miss Rachel Brewer, to Mr. Chas. Mrs. Fawk spent a few days last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Farmer.

SPRING VALLEY. With the rock crusher established on the hill and $2500 voted by the county court for the improvement of the hill road the people feel encouraged that good roads are an assured fact for the near future. Last week members of the county court viewed the road in question with the result that $2500 was appropriated to be spent on it in addition to the road tax of the district and the volunteer work contributed. The road is to be graded, widened at places where it is now too narrow and dressed with crushed rock. The court has authorized the completion of two miles of rock road this year. This will put in good condition the worst part of the road, making travel much better during the winter months. It is thought that the route will be one much used by motor parties as it has great scenic attractions. A basket social was held in the Lincoln school house Saturday evening. Quite a goodly number were in attendance. The lunch baskets sold well, $23 being the sum netted from their sale. The funds raised are to be used toward the building of a play house which it is hoped may be built in time for use by another term. Mr. Brewster, a divinity student of Willamette university, supplied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday. He gives promise of a successful ministry. R. D. Goodin of Salem was a guest in the family of A. M. Patrick Sunday. Mrs. Blakely has returned home after being in a Salem hospital several days for a surgical operation. The Ladies' Missionary society holds its monthly meeting this week with Mrs. Kate Coyle and Mrs. Jennie Crawford. The Christian Endeavor young people enjoyed an evening of music last Friday at the home of Miss Leota Catton. The school board has accepted the bid of Mr. Schreiner, an Estacada contractor, to build the new school house at a cost of $1,350. The board has also decided not to have a basement. Mr. Schreiner has been doing considerable carpenter work this spring for finishing an extensive remodeling of the house, making it a modern, convenient farm home. Frank Wells and family of Salem, visited Sunday at the home of his wife, Mrs. W. H. Crawford. W. N. Crawford and family were Sunday guests of Lincoln relatives.
