

EARLY SETTLER PASSES

CORNELIUS HUGHES NATIVE OF IRELAND, GOES TO REWARD.

Resident of Dallas for Many Years Dies of Complications Incident to Old Age.

Cornelius Hughes died at his home at 608 Church street at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning, aged 81 years, 1 month and 2 days. His death was caused by a complication of ailments incident to old age.

Mr. Hughes had been a resident of Dallas for more than fifty years, and was one of the best known of the older residents of Polk county. He was born in County Monaghan, Ireland, April 15, 1834, and came to the United States when a lad of 12 years. After reaching manhood, he spent several years in the southwestern states. He came to Polk county in 1864 and resided in or near Dallas continuously until his death. On October 30, 1868, he married Miss Electa Osborne, a sister of the Reverend John Osborne, the pioneer Baptist preacher of Independence. The young couple lived for a time on a homestead near Polk Station, afterwards moving into town. They also owned a farm in the Liberty neighborhood. During the greater part of his residence in Dallas Mr. Hughes followed the occupation of shoemaker.

He united with the Baptist church early in life and remained a faithful member until the end. He was one of the early members of Jennings Lodge, No. 9, A. F. & A. M., having received the degrees in 1870. He was also a member of Friendship Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F.

The only surviving member of his family is Mrs. Kate Morrison of New Pine Creek, Oregon, who arrived in Dallas this morning to attend the funeral. His wife passed away May 26, 1913, and his only son, John Hughes, died several years ago. An older brother, Patrick Hughes, died in Dallas in 1892. For the last many years of his life, Mr. Hughes had lived with Mr. and Mrs. George Muscott, by whom he was given every kindly care and attention.

Mr. Hughes was one of the last of the pioneer residents of Dallas and will be greatly missed by all. His friendly ways and sparkling Irish wit made him a jovial companion, and he had always a kindly word for his neighbors, and especially for children, by whom he was greatly beloved.

The funeral will be held at Chapman's chapel tomorrow afternoon. The service will be in charge of the Reverend Tapscott, pastor of the Dallas Baptist church. The burial service at Odd Fellows' cemetery will be conducted by the officers and members of Jennings Lodge, No. 9, A. F. & A. M.

Mrs. Elizabeth Heppner.

Mrs. Elizabeth Heppner was born in Pennsylvania in 1832. She was united in marriage with John Heppner in 1851. She came to Oregon in 1914 and made Dallas her home to the time of her death, which occurred May 16. Her husband preceded her some years ago. Surviving her are four sons and two daughters. Mrs. Heppner was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church upwards of sixty years. Her last words were: "Be kind to each other." The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Thos. Stormer, on Stump street, Rev. George H. Bennett officiating. The interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Hewitt Stricken Suddenly.

Daniel M. Hewitt of Monmouth died suddenly last Saturday, following a paralytic stroke. Mr. Hewitt was born in Washington county, Oregon, April 2, 1844. He moved to Yamhill county, and in 1872 moved to Polk county. September 18, 1867, Mr. Hewitt was married to Henrietta Miller. In the fall of 1896, he retired from farming and moved to Monmouth.

Mr. Hewitt is survived by a widow, two sons, E. E. Hewitt, G. G. Hewitt, Monmouth, and eight brothers, Judge H. H. Hewitt, Albany; Andrew Hewitt, McMinnville; Isiah Hewitt, Salem; M. C. Hewitt, Roseville, Cal.; Dr. J. L. Hewitt, Portland; H. W. Hewitt, La Grande; Dr. L. L. Hewitt, Independence, and Andrew Hewitt, Amity.

DUST OF THE DIAMOND

FALLS CITY GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE SALEM.

Dallas High School Team Will Cross Willows With Corvallis Next Saturday.

The Falls City baseball team was defeated at Salem last Sunday by a score of 9 to 3. The game was a good one, nevertheless. The Polk county team was composed of Sampson, Syron, Fenton, Chapin, Hayes, Dewitt, Snyder, Graham, Cobb, Meyers. Of the game the Salem Journal has the following:

By bunching hits when Falls City bunched errors, Salem brought their percentage up to 500 yesterday by defeating the visitors by a 9 to 3 score. Craig allowed but two hits and the Salem batters pounded out 6. The scoring started in the first for Salem when, with two down, Humphries walked, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Jones' bunt. Mackson registered in the second inning when Bell doubled to center field.

In the fifth Falls City annexed one run when Dewitt, the husky left fielder, dumped one in front of the plate and Holman bounced it off of the runner's head in throwing to first base. Dewitt is to be congratulated on the solidness of his head because the ball bounced over the outfielder's head and Dewitt made second. Schneider hit to third and Graham hit to Mackson, who was a second late in returning to Holman, and Dewitt registered.

Craig scored in the fifth on Jones' hit to the outfield, and in the lucky seventh Bell singled and Humphries made first when the catcher missed a third strike. Both scored when Cobb threw the ball away. Not until the eighth did the Senators find out that Falls City could not field hits, and in this inning two more runs were added, when everybody dropped them in front of the plate.

The score came near being 9 to 1, but in the first half of the ninth Salem let down a little and Chapin hit to center field for the second hit of the day. He scored on Hayes' bunt, and Hayes stole home while Meyers was missing three strikes.

To Meet Corvallis.

The Dallas Highs will journey to Corvallis next Saturday and there play a return game with the highs of the college town. The local team has been strengthened somewhat since the last contest with Corvallis, and a most interesting game is in prospect.

"The Story Beautiful," Prominent People

a Chautauqua Mas-terpiece

This Classic Makes Appeal to the Senses of Sight and Hearing.

"The Story Beautiful" is a classic from the standpoint of art, oratory and musical attainments, and yet, because of its strong appeal to all classes who will hear and see it, this number on the coming assembly deserves to be called a popular entertainment.

Because of its uniqueness it is difficult to give in a few words an adequate conception of it.

One of the most brilliant, powerful and dramatic speakers, Father Patrick J. MacCorry of St. Mary's cathedral, Wichita, Kan., has woven a thrilling lecture about a series of unusual views and reproductions of famous paintings. Many of the paintings shown are by the master painters of the world and are hidden far from the eyes of the curious. How Father MacCorry secured them is not a part of this story, but it may be said that there are few who could secure permission to copy them, and the coloring of the slides is wonderfully well done. They are as beautiful as the originals and far above any slides commonly shown.

While the pictures are being shown Father MacCorry gives his lecture. No orator has a more musical tone or more dramatic intonation, and while he speaks a single ray of light reveals his features against a black velvet curtain, the speaker as well as the picture being shown, which is an exclusive feature with this lecturer. At times nothing can be heard but the gentle music of the piano, and this may be followed with the rich tones of that great baritone, H. Ruthven MacDonald of Toronto, who presents selections from oratorios and other classic music while the audience remains under the spell of this remarkable setting.

Four people are required to present this admirably combined lecture, recital and showing of famous pictures, and those who attend will leave with the sensation that they have visited some great cathedral, having been thoroughly satisfied in a long cherished desire.

List of Chautauqua Talent Shows Guarantee of Fine Program. Cost Is Nominal.

Look over the following list of those who will appear here under auspices of the summer Chautauqua and see if there is a single one whom you would not be much interested in hearing if your time will permit you to attend each session.

In the way of music there are Ciricillo and his great Italian band. This organization is playing a return engagement, as it covered the western Chautauquas last season, and the demand for its return was so universal that the bureau engaged it to come back in 1915 with a larger band, a larger number of soloists, and incidentally Ciricillo gets considerably more money, it is said.

There are the Saxony Opera Singers, who present in costume grand and light opera sung in English. The Schumann Quintet, playing strings, is the highest priced organization of its class in the United States, and the "Il Trovatore" Grand Opera Singers are another stellar attraction. H. Ruthven MacDonald and his wife are other additions to the musical program, and the Alpine Yodlers, consisting of seven people, will draw a big crowd.

The following are the lecturers: Colonel George W. Bain of Kentucky, Roland A. Nichols, Father P. J. MacCorry, Mrs. A. C. Zehner, Nelson S. Darling.

The above does not take into consideration the big entertainment of the Three Floyds on the opening night. They are pronounced class in a program of magic, mind reading and music. Evelyn Bergelt, the cartoonist and reader, will be heard with pleasure on the last day, and the Gullota Trio, consisting of violinist, pianist and soprano, is a company much sought after by Chautauquas.

By securing a season ticket all this can be enjoyed at a cost of less than 10 cents per entertainment. That's some bargain!

Mr. George W. Scott of Oklahoma is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. L. Martin. He will leave this evening for Salem, and home by way of San Francisco.

United States fishery bureau has purchased for Alaskan service the Roosevelt, which Admiral Robert E. Peary (at top) used in discovery of north pole.
