Guests' Day—Following is the program for a meeting of Dallas Woman's club next Tuesday. This will be the annual "Guest Day" meeting. Visitors from clubs in neighboring towns will attend and address the meeting on what they have done in their clubs. Many of the Dallas members will exercise their privilege of bringing guests. Mrs. G. P. MacGregor and Miss Helen Casey will play a duet on the piano. Miss Naomi Scott will play some selections on the piano. Miss Alice Grant will sing a solo. Refreshments will be served.

This will be the last meeting of the general club until October.

Social Session—One of the most pleasurable social sessions ever held under the auspices of the local lodge of Knights of Pythias was that of last Monday evening, when a large concourse, including a number of invited guests, assembled at Castle hall. The program was literary in its character, among those participating being Rev. Lewtas, the lecturer and war correspondent, Rev. Geo. H. Bennett and G. O. Holman, the former painting a vivid pen picture of the horrors of the European war. Strawberries and cake were served.

Macy-Dunsmore—Ralph Macy and Miss Katie Dunsmore were joined in marriage at Independence last Sunday. The couple were married by the bride's father, who came from San Francisco to perform the ceremony. Rev. Dunsmore returned to San Francisco, where he represents Polk county at the Panama exposition.

Entertains Informally—Mrs. E. V. Dalton entertained a few lady friends informally yesterday afternoon, when the afternoon was spent in social intercourse over fancy work. The Dalton home was handsomely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants for the occasion. A two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Parks Honoree—Mrs. Charles A. Parks of West Salem was honored at a charming tea given at the home of Mrs. Robert Eakin of Salem Tuesday afternoon by the members of her Bible class, which has been conducted during the winter. In appreciation of Mrs. Parks' work, she was presented an attractive gift. Mrs. George H. Alden making the presentation speech. During the afternoon Miss Margaret Hodge delighted with vocal solos, Miss Alice Judd with readings and Miss Irma Kofer gave instrumental selections.—Journal.

Mrs. Eakin Entertains—Mrs. H. C. Eakin, at her country home near Rickreall, on Wednesday afternoon, very pleasantly entertained the Music section of the Dallas Woman's club, eleven members being present, going thither by rail. Mrs. Eakin has been leader of this section during the past year. This was the final meeting. The section will study German opera next year, and will be under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Starbuck. These meetings are among the most entertaining, as well as instructive, held by the club. At each session a pianola is used for instrumental instruction and a Victrola for vocal numbers. Those present at the meeting last Wednesday were:

Mrs. G. T. McGregor, Mrs. B. Casey, Mrs. A. B. Robinson, Mrs. Dan Crites, Mrs. S. B. Taylor, Mrs. Oscar Hayler, Miss Ednelle Collins, Miss Caroline Burge, Mrs. Longnecker, Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, and Mrs. F. M. Taylor of Ann Arbor, Michigan, who is a guest in the family of her son, S. B. Taylor.

Club Will Entertain—The Dallas Woman's club will hold its final meeting for the year next Tuesday afternoon at the public library. Representatives from the Women's clubs of the surrounding towns are expected to be present as guests. The home club has prepared an appropriate program and will serve refreshments.

Reception—The Oddfellows and Rebekahs will hold a joint meeting next Tuesday evening, the occasion being a reception to Mrs. Ora Cosper and Mr. A. V. R. Snyder, who were elected grand secretary and grand chaplain, respectively, of the Oddfellows' and Rebekah grand lodge.

Silver Tea—Mrs. C. L. Crider entertained a group of the ladies of the Presbyterian church at a silver tea last Tuesday.

THE CANOEIST ASSURES THE GOOD JUDGE

MEN, you chew tobacco for the satisfaction and comfort you get from it.

"Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew does satisfy. Gives you the taste, the substance of rich, sappy, mellow tobacco. Seasoned and sweetened just enough.

That's why "Right-Cut" users tell others about it. You'll like it better than the old kind.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary casidid tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.
