DOINGS IN POLK COUNTY

STORIES BY THE OBSERVER'S CORRESPONDENTS.

Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to Movements of People Whom You All Know.

MONMOUTH NORMAL.

Monmouth, June 8.—George H. Himes, secretary of the Oregon Historical society, spent Friday at the normal school. He read an interesting paper to the students at the chapel period on "The Beginning of Government in Oregon."

The literary society program which the three societies give jointly every quarter was given Friday evening. Several short plays and dramatizations were given. Music was furnished by the Normal Glee club.

Special chapel exercises were held for Mrs. Macy Monday when she returned from her wedding trip. The chapel exercises were opened with a favorite chorus of Mrs. Macy's and her favorite Victor record. She was presented with a large bamboo basket filled with roses as the gift of the student body.

The normal school instructors were in much demand to deliver graduating addresses during the past week. President Ackerman delivered addresses at Moro, Bend, Newberg and Buena Vista. M. Gentle was called to Alsea. Mr. Pittman gave words of advice at Falls City, Milwaukie and Liberty Hill. Mr. Butler visited Arlington and Mr. Evenden went to Halsey.

Friday evening the senior class enjoyed a picnic at Luckiamute, about six miles from Monmouth. They went on hay wagons, returning about 10 o'clock. Saturday the Y. W. C. A. girls enjoyed a picnic much in the same manner, when about thirty girls spent the afternoon and evening at the Luckiamute picnic grounds.

The high school class gave an operetta entitled "Polished Pebbles," last Friday and Saturday nights. The purpose of the entertainment was to raise money for the piano fund.

AIRLIE.

Assistant State Superintendent of Public Instruction Carlton, delivered an address on "The Standard School" at the high school Monday afternoon. A large number were present. Mr. Carlton was accompanied by County Superintendent Seymour.

Mr. C. V. Johnson was wearing a 14-karat smile Sunday. As Mr. Keeley, a farmer residing near the Valley View school house, was attending Sunday school at that place he found secreted about the building all of Mr. Johnson's private papers that were taken from the safe in the postoffice, which was blown open last September. The papers consisted of notes and checks valued at about $450.

J. Bagley has purchased a new Ford and will now make us "go some" to avoid him when our telephone rent is due.

Quite a number from here attended the dance at Johnsonville Saturday night.

We hear that the Railroad commission is going to visit us soon, as various complaints have been made about our train service.

Last Sunday A. R. Lewis and family and A. B. Packard decided they would hide themselves to the shady spots along the Luckiamute and indulge in the favorite sport of Isaac Walton. They fished all day without results when A. R. found a good deep hole that had the ear marks of a very good fish resort. He made a very pretty cast and became enthused over the prospects, when a farmer fired him from his land for fishing in his well.

SOCIETY

Observes Birthday.—Six of his comrades assembled at the home of David Darling last Saturday evening and enjoyed a few hours in social intercourse and in relating reminiscences of the unpleasantness between the north and the south of half a century ago. The occasion was the seventy-first anniversary of Mr. Darling's birth. As Comrades Carpenter, Arnold, Smutz, Lovelace, Greenwood, Fuqua and Braden approached the Darling residence they heard the strains of "Marching Through Georgia," and upon approaching nearer they discovered that it was a phonographic greeting from the host. Bountiful refreshments were served, after which the veterans departed, wishing for their host many more happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Patterson to Entertain.—Mrs. Isaac Patterson, state regent of The Daughters of the American Revolution, on Flag day, June 14th, at her country home, Eola-on-the-Hills, will entertain with a tea the ladies of Salem who are forming a chapter in that organization. Invitations have also been extended to eligible members of the organization in Dallas, McMinnville, Jefferson and Silverton.

Green-Lehman.—William J. Green and Emma M. Lehman were united in marriage on Tuesday evening last. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Tapscott of Dallas and occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lehman of Suver, R. F. D.

In Holy Wedlock.—Mr. Wm. L. Ortrander and Miss Elsie Bush, well known and popular young people of Albie, were united in holy wedlock at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. George H. Bennett.

Miss Frances Bartlett of the Normal spent the week-end with Miss Arlene Bennett in this city.

THROW OUT THE LINE.

Give Them Help and Many Dallas People Will Be Happier.

"Throw Out the Life Line"—Weak kidneys need help.

They're often overlooked—they don't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers.

Dallas testimony proves their worth.

Mrs. J. N. Dull, 815 Levens street, Dallas, says: "For a long time one of my family complained of a lame and sore back and pains darted through the kidneys. Nothing removed the trouble until Doan's Kidney Pills were used. They brought help from the first and soon the patient's back was strong and free from pain and lameness."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dill recommends. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
