

TERSE TALES OF TOWN

LOCAL NEWS OF DALLAS AND THIS NEIGHBORHOOD.

Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to People and Their Movements, Gleaned by Observer.

W. A. Craft of the Red Prairie country was in Dallas on Wednesday, and reports his section of Polk county as being prosperous. There is considerable land development work under way there, but these are held back to some extent by reason of poor highways. According to this authority a majority of the people resident of that locality are loyal to Polk county and desire to come to the county seat with their patronage, but under obtaining conditions find it impossible to do so, giving the greater part of their trade to Sheridan. During the winter months the Butler hill is practically impossible, while the roads in the Red Prairie district are better towards the Yamhill town than to Dallas, he says.

Webb Campbell, president of the Campbell-Frank Cigar company of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Campbell, is making a business visit in the city. Mr. Campbell has included Dallas in his sales territory for a number of years and is well known to the trade here, but Mrs. Campbell is making her first visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Muir, with their son, Walter, made a week-end trip to Portland in their machine for the purpose of viewing the beauties of the Columbia river highway. The party made the trip up the highway Sunday and returned to Dallas the same day.

"The Gospel According to Isaiah," will be the subject of the address by the Rev. W. T. Tapscott at the Baptist church on Sunday morning. "God's Estimate of Character," will be the subject at the evening service. On Friday, August 13, the children of the Baptist Sunday school will be entertained with a picnic at the city park, where they will enjoy games of all kinds and will eat basket lunches.

The transfer of the local agency for the Norwich Union Insurance company was effected here on Wednesday by A. W. Giesy, general agent for the company in Oregon, Idaho, Washington and Alaska, with headquarters at Portland. The late C. L. Pritchard formerly held this agency and it has been transferred to W. A. Himes of the Himes Engineering company. Mr. Giesy returned to Portland after a meeting with the newly appointed agent.

SOCIETY

Heinrichs-Diehm Wedding—A very pleasant occasion was the wedding that took place one mile north of Polk Station, at the German Zions church, Sunday forenoon last, when Peter J. Heinrichs was united in holy matrimony to Miss Helena Diehm of Smithfield. The groom came from Enid, Oklahoma, two years ago and has worked in that neighborhood during the intervening time. Miss Diehm is also of that neighborhood, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Diehm, prosperous farmers. Rev. Abr. Heinrichs of Oysterville, Wash., preached in English and Rev. S. S. Baumgartner of Pratum, performed the ceremony. Miss Elizabeth Diehm of Portland played the wedding march. At noon every one that was invited, drove to the bride's home for the wedding dinner, which consisted of coffee, potato salads, rice-puddings, sandwiches, cakes, pies and cookies. Two hundred seventy-five persons were guests. Many beautiful and useful presents were given by the people, which the young couple surely appreciate. The guests came from McMinnville, Portland, Oysterville, Wash., Salem, Dallas, Independence, Salt Creek, Pratum, Perrydale, Orchard View and Crowley. The acquaintances of the young couple wish them a long and pleasant voyage in their life's journey.

Hubbies Acclaim Their Charms. An acclamation ballot taken at luncheon at the Gail on Tuesday revealed the conceit of some of the city's worthy citizens. D. P. Patterson, Frank J. Coad, Glen O. Holman, A. V. R. Snyder and T. J. Cherrington, all of whom, except the latter, are hotel guests during the absence of their respective wives, voted a resolution that ladies who would forsake such an intellectual and handsome group of men were at least negligent, and that, if the ladies could realize the charms of the voters, they would hurry back from their several outing places. The vote was unanimous not only with the voters, but with many other guests to whom the question was submitted for approval.

Judge Belt Affirms Action. Affirming the temporary restraining order filed against the issuing in payment by the county treasurer of warrants for services of the Himes Engineering company, Judge H. H. Belt has set the hearing of the case for Monday. Judge Galloway of Marion county issued the temporary order in the absence of Judge Belt.
