

IS PROHIBITION A JOKE?

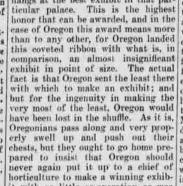

California Liquor House Flooding State With Circulars.

Thousands of circulars advertising the opening of the bonded liquor warehouse at Hornbrook, Cal., have been mailed to citizens in this state. The first consignment was received in Dallas this week. Every man in Polk Dallas this week. Every man in Polk county, no matter with what frequen-ey he bends his elbow, will receive one of these announcements. It is frankly stated that the object of the business is do arrange it "so you don't have to worry about prohibi-tion." It is further stated that "with your name on our mailing list the idea that you are in a dry state the idea that you are in a dry state will never enter your mind." The injunction is also given "be prepared for the worst—and send in your order now." now.

The advertising activity of the bonded warehouse promoters is due to the fact, that with prohibition effec-tive in three months, local dealers are selling futures in bogge by barrel lots. The names of 380,400 users of liquors and beers in Oregon and Washington are on the mailing lists. The bonded warehouse promises to make a jest of prohibition as far as it restrains from the use of intoxicat-ing liquor in this state. It is agreed furnish refreshments from quart to furnish refreshments from quart lots to the limit, and at the present prices, with express charges paid on all amounts over one bottle. The li-cense money goes to the state of Cali-fornia. The bonded warehouse is call-ed Mayers, and was formerly Fleek-tain Mayers, and was formerly Fleekstein Mayer company of Portland, in business in this state for over forty years.

In that time, although he was hob-nobbing with such illus-trious engineers as Colonel Goethals, he says that he enjoyed the papers that were read and the speches that were delivered. He brought these back with him in printed form and there are enough to make three good sized volumes. They deal with irri-gation in darkest Africa and railroad track in regard to a number of the points he made in his attack, and the local attorney concludes his interest-ing letter with this paragraph, arent "ambulance chasing" of which the judge accused Attorneys Holman and Tooxe: coze: "I guess Judge Bushy worked as lawn has been allowed to die down I guess dudge Bushy worked as hard getting votes as I did getting cases. He wanted the job of being judge, and I have the job of making him obey the law while he is judge. I am done. Let the people await re-sults." rection of the work is in the depart-ments of Commissioners Wells and Polk county's exhibit at the coming Manufacturers' & Land Products show in Portland will be centrally lofruit to be found on the coast. The manufacturers & Land Products Umpqua valley, especially favored for fruit, sent nothing, and the of-ferings from other sections than the two named have been insignificant in quantity and usual in general worth -yet they grow much fine fruit.
