

spending a few weeks' outing there. Wm. Dawes and family returned home this week from an extended automobile trip to various points in British Columbia. During hop picking the business men of Independence will give free dances on the street to entertain the strangers coming into town. Mrs. Dole Pomery and little son of Washington are visiting at the home of Mrs. Pomery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Owen. The friends of Johnnie Nelson are glad to hear that he is improving, having been sick for a couple of weeks with pneumonia. Mrs. Pearl Ovitte of Springfield is visiting with friends here for a few weeks. Cecile Ensminger left Sunday for Portland, where he will spend the winter with relatives.

OAK DALE

Hoppicking commenced in the Hubbard hop yards Monday. Ralph yard picking commenced Wednesday. Still McCarter will not pick hops on the Hallock place as he does not consider the price of hops justifies the expense of picking. The Dennis yard will be picked by the Jim Hubbard crew. Mrs. James Wilson and family of Dallas are picking at the Ralph yard. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Miller, Misses Vera and Maude Miller, George Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Stell McCarter, Ab Burnett, O. E. John, Joe Dennis and Don Miller are among the pickers in Jim Hubbard's yard. The families of James Ross, J. S. Macomber, the Ruce family of Falls City, and Clarence Sellers' family, are picking in the Stanton yard. The Clifford family, John Macomber and Mr. and Mrs. Paym are among the Jim Hubbard pickers. Mrs. Paym is quite sick. Letters from Oklahoma say that Mrs. Arthur Hepner, formerly of this place and Dallas, is in very poor health. George Tate of Willamina, who was born and raised in this neighborhood, is very low with consumption. The machinery at the cement quarry is being repaired and remodeled. Lert Miller is among the workmen there. Jim Crowder is drying Jim Hubbard's crop of hops and Henry Wessling is the fireman. Gus Bowman is drying for Mr. Stanton and Fred Oaf is firing. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNeil of Walla Walla are here during hoppicking. Joe Murphy and family have gone to the Moulson hopyard near Rickreall. Mr. Murphy will dry. Vernon will fire and Mrs. Murphy and Emerson will pick. Mr. Stelling has gone with his family to the Farley hopyard.

MONMOUTH

E. L. Kezeel, formerly principal of the Monmouth high school, was a city visitor last week. Mr. Kezeel has accepted a position for this year in the department of education and reader in the extension department of the University of Oregon. Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Elkins are enjoying a vacation trip up the Columbia highway. While their parents are away the Elkins children are with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woods. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith urge automobilists who enjoy wonderful trips to consider the one they have just completed; through Oregon, including stops at Crater Lake, Harriman's Lodge and the Oregon caves. Miss Lila Dobell has gone to Corvallis to take up her duties as assistant in the librarian's office. Mrs. Anes, who has been critically ill, is reported as much better. Ivan Wood has left the city for Union, Oregon, where he will take up his duties as principal of the grammar grades. Rev. H. Schuknecht of Portland, presiding elder of the Evangelical district, will preach in the Evangelical church Saturday evening at eight and Sunday morning at eleven. Monmouth high school will open Monday, September 18. The Oregon State Normal school will open Monday morning for registration of students. Actual work commences Tuesday morning. The training school will open Monday morning, September 18. S. Aynes of Denver, Col., and Herbert Aynes of Nemoka, Neb., and Mrs. H. C. Stokes of Nebraska are with their mother here. Miss Angelina Boller of Pendleton is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hampton this week. She is on her way to Eugene to attend the University of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Staats were in from their farm Monday. After spending their vacation at Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Philip McKinley and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Foree, Mrs. Mulkey's parents, left for Arlington. Miss Margaret Rice and Ranie Burkhead left for Shaniko, where they will teach the coming year. Glen Work left for The Dalles, Monday, to teach school. Monmouth is about deserted. A number of the people have gone to the hop yards. The yards here have been considerably damaged by the late rains. Ralph Dodson and wife of the Luckiamute were in town on business Tuesday. Grain is coming into the warehouse at a lively rate. Tuesday there was about 25 teams waiting to unload. Carl Polan and wife returned home from the Yaquina country Monday. Mr. Polan has been working on the new roads in Lincoln county. Joe Tetherow has a large force of men and teams at work on the new grade at the Helmick bridge. Wash Gibson, formerly of Monmouth, but now of West Salem, was in Monmouth this week selling peaches. Louis Williamson of Wells has rented the Goodman house for the school year. Mrs. Rubin Fuller of Montana is the guest of her sisters and brother, G. H. Moran, the candidate for constable on the republican ticket.

BALLSTON

Mrs. Nancy Newhill injured her shoulder and arm quite badly Thursday by a fall. She was taken to McMinnville to Dr. Goucher. She has gone to Dallas to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Rea Craven, for a few days. John Lamm of Carlisle, Wash., visited his mother the latter part of the week. Peter Cook returned home Saturday from Chehalis, Wash., where he has been attending the races. Rice Cook has purchased some property near the school house. W. H. Sears and family, who have been living there, have moved to their property in the west end of town. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brooks Saturday. The late W. A. Keyt was well known here. He formerly owned the Newbill hopyard. Most of the threshers have been stopped this week because the grain was not ready. Several of the Campfire girls spent a few days this week camping in the hills back of Willamina. Those going were Misses Doris and Helen Ball, Sadie and Lola Wineland, Iva Kenworthy and Jane Rand. Monday, September 25, has been set as the date for the opening of school here. Mrs. J. R. Bowman and Mrs. G. W. Haynes were Sheridan visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Etherton visited their daughter, Mrs. Effie Fisher, at Independence Saturday and Sunday. E. L. Sechrist shipped a carload of grain to Portland Saturday. Miss Hattie Teats was here from Dallas on business Friday night. Maurice Campbell returned here Thursday evening after a several weeks' absence in Washington. George Conner hauled haled hay to town and stored it in the Tatom barn. J. M. Agee returned Saturday from a several weeks' visit with his children in eastern Oregon.

AIRLIE

Mrs. Lorin Cooper was in Dallas recently having a wrist cut dressed by her physician. Jack Gilson's little child had his finger nearly chopped off by an older child of the family this week. Both were playing with an axe. Caughey and Byrrie have their contract of oak logs filled for the present. M. K. Crowley is building an addition to the house he bought from Weaver. Miss Letitia Shewey of Dallas visited relatives here last week. She will go to Lexington in Morrow county the middle of the month to teach school. Carl McBee and wife were callers here Saturday. Rains have stopped threshers for awhile. Riley Matheny commenced picking hops the first of the month. Bob Tarter's yard picking began Wednesday. Jim Sebring of Cottage Grove is visiting relatives for a few days. Alen Caughey is visiting friends at Albany this week. Miss Mary Whitman of Independence is visiting friends here for a few days. Lew Caughey has a lame hand from being cut by a wire. F. M. Shuek is the peach peddler here now. Misses Blanche Harman and Geneva Crydeman visited at the home

"My dealer was right — they do satisfy!"

There's more to a cigarette than merely "pleasing your taste." Other cigarettes, besides Chesterfields, can do that.

But Chesterfields do more—they begin where the others stop!

Because Chesterfields satisfy!—they give you the true meaning of smoking!

Yet they're MILD!

This new combination ("satisfy," yet mild) can be had only in Chesterfields—because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

Try Chesterfields today!

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

The Chesterfield Blend contains the most famous Turkish tobaccos—SAMSOON for richness; CAVALLA for aroma; SMYRNA for sweetness; XANTHI for fragrance, combined with the best domestic leaf.

20 for 10c

They SATISFY! —and yet they're MILD

BUENA VISTA

G. A. Wells was a Wells station caller Thursday. Miss Alma Howard of Lebanon is visiting at the home of Mrs. M. V. Prather this week. A wool carding was held at Mrs. J. R. Loy's Thursday. There were about 25 present. Ice cream and cake were served late in the afternoon. John Wells and Bill Mall were Salem callers this week. Miss Alma Wells celebrated her fourteenth birthday Friday afternoon. A number of girls enjoyed an afternoon tennis game and music. Those present were: Misses Inez McCarty, Violet Snyder, Marjorie Reynolds, Vivian Emmons, Helen Leonard, Elsie Schunk, Geneva Crydeman, Louise Leonard, Ruth Prather and Blanche Harmon. Ice cream and cake were served. Misses Blanche Harman and Geneva Crydeman visited at the home

SMITHFIELD

The early threshing is now completed and the late grain is being threshed. Hop picking has begun. Miss Elizabeth Diehm has been clerking for Kliever and Klassen in Dallas for some time. The prune crop will be quite heavy. Good prices are in view. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliever, Will Kodak of this place, Mr. and Mrs. D. Reddeopp and son, and John Kliever of Dallas went by automobile to Pamolds was here on business the first of the week. W. Woods and wife are cooking for the shipknee camp. Mr. Sharas, who lives on Berry creek, has been very sick but is reported some better. Mr. Ridgeway of Buell was a caller here Tuesday. Dr. E. F. Adams, a dentist of Portland, is here for a short time. A. W. Packard, our blacksmith, is kept very busy of late. Prof. S. W. Noblet left Wednesday for Coquille, where he will teach this year. Miss Hiltbrand of Monmouth was a caller here Monday. Sam Burk was transacting business here Wednesday.

BUENA VISTA

BUENA VISTA

G. A. Wells was a Wells station caller Thursday. Miss Alma Howard of Lebanon is visiting at the home of Mrs. M. V. Prather this week. A wool carding was held at Mrs. J. R. Loy's Thursday. There were about 25 present. Ice cream and cake were served late in the afternoon. John Wells and Bill Mall were Salem callers this week. Miss Alma Wells celebrated her fourteenth birthday Friday afternoon. A number of girls enjoyed an afternoon tennis game and music. Those present were: Misses Inez McCarty, Violet Snyder, Marjorie Reynolds, Vivian Emmons, Helen Leonard, Elsie Schunk, Geneva Crydeman, Louise Leonard, Ruth Prather and Blanche Harmon. Ice cream and cake were served. Misses Blanche Harman and Geneva Crydeman visited at the home

SMITHFIELD

The early threshing is now completed and the late grain is being threshed. Hop picking has begun. Miss Elizabeth Diehm has been clerking for Kliever and Klassen in Dallas for some time. The prune crop will be quite heavy. Good prices are in view. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliever, Will Kodak of this place, Mr. and Mrs. D. Reddeopp and son, and John Kliever of Dallas went by automobile to Pa-

PERRYDALE

Wheat threshing is about completed in and around Perrydale and threshing and clover hulling is in full swing since the recent rains have ceased. The Perrydale Milling company is having a busy time taking in grain this season. The wheat crop is much larger than was anticipated at Perrydale. Work is progressing fine on the new road over the Goetz and Damewood hills. F. E. Lynn and wife and Alfred Enes returned yesterday from a ten days' fishing and hunting trip on the McKenzie. Frank reports a good time but did not bring home any deer horns. J. E. Yoakum and sister, Mrs. Bratcher, visited D. T. Hodges at Rickreall recently at the home of his son, Ed. Hodges. A. H. Scholes and daughter, Ethel, left Saturday for their home in Missouri, after a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends here. B. H. Friar has gone to Eals to work for Thos. Holman through hop picking. W. H. Russell was visiting last week up in Washington. He came home Sunday accompanied by two sisters, who are staying with him for awhile.

PERRYDALE

J. P. Bones has had his clover threshed and is well pleased with the work. He says that he received a good supply of seed, which he will sell. Mrs. J. P. Neufeldt and twins are very well. David Rempel, a brother of all the Rempels around here, has been visiting his relatives. He left for Kansas Tuesday evening to finish his studies in Bethel college.

SMITHFIELD

The early threshing is now completed and the late grain is being threshed. Hop picking has begun. Miss Elizabeth Diehm has been clerking for Kliever and Klassen in Dallas for some time. The prune crop will be quite heavy. Good prices are in view. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliever, Will Kodak of this place, Mr. and Mrs. D. Reddeopp and son, and John Kliever of Dallas went by automobile to Pa-

SMITHFIELD

The early threshing is now completed and the late grain is being threshed. Hop picking has begun. Miss Elizabeth Diehm has been clerking for Kliever and Klassen in Dallas for some time. The prune crop will be quite heavy. Good prices are in view. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliever, Will Kodak of this place, Mr. and Mrs. D. Reddeopp and son, and John Kliever of Dallas went by automobile to Pa-