

Terse Tales of the Town

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Loughary and daughter, Lucile, shopped in Portland Wednesday.

Lee Fenton was in Buena Vista Wednesday looking after hop interests.

E. Evans of Bowersville was in Dallas on business Wednesday.

Miss Irene Barrett of Eugene is visiting at the home of Mrs. H. E. Smith.

Miss Lucile Hamilton left Thursday for Elkins, where she will teach school.

Mrs. Ed. Coad and daughter, Ava, are visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Dodge Bicknell and Miss Ava Coad were in Salem Tuesday.

R. L. Boyce of Portland was a Dallas visitor Wednesday.

Jim Sullivan of Portland spent Wednesday in the city.

Mrs. W. C. Cook and children of McMinnville are visiting Dallas relatives and friends.

Miss Gladys Cartwright of Salem is visiting at the home of the Misses Marjorie and Dorothy Bennett.

Mrs. J. C. Talbot of Falls City was in Dallas Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Lewis arrived Tuesday from Falls City to visit at the home of her brother, W. P., and assist in taking care of Mrs. Lewis. Mrs. M. E. Miller, the latter's mother, who has been here for some time, returned to Falls City on Wednesday. Mrs. Lewis has shown steady improvement during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Beeler and baby boy of Rieckreall, plan to move to Portland the last of this week or the first of next, to make their permanent home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Tooze, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lew A. Cates, and Miss Ruth Barrett and Frank Barrett of Eugene, left yesterday morning for a five days trip to the Nestucca country. Lou Muscott and Harvey Greenwood were in from the Sour Grass road work this week.

Mrs. Charles Gregory returned from a Portland business visit Monday evening.

Barham Brothers have completed their cement sidewalk contract with the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren have moved from their Illihea home to their winter house.

Elmer Baldersee is in Corvallis attending Oregon Agricultural college. The young man had decided to enter the University of Oregon but made an eleventh hour change last Sunday and decided to enter the Corvallis school.

Mrs. Henry Gertz of Perrydale was a Dallas visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer spent Tuesday and part of Wednesday in Hebo.

George Nesling of Salem was in Dallas Tuesday on business.

Taylor Dunn of Polk Station was in Dallas on business Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, Sr., of Rieckreall was in Dallas on business Wednesday.

J. C. Talbot of Falls City was in Portland on business this week.

Mrs. J. D. Barrett and Miss Blanche Barrett are in Portland.

W. H. Anderson of Denver, representative of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ellsworth. Mrs. W. H. Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth, has been here for some time. Mr. Anderson will return Sunday evening.

Miss Edith Catherwood will visit in Corvallis the coming week.

Miss Elva Lucas plans to leave the first of the week for Corvallis, where she will continue her collegiate work.

Lamar and Leslie Tooze and Miss Ethel Tooze were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Tooze, Jr. Monday night on an automobile trip to Falls City. The Tooze twins have left Salem for Cambridge, where they will enter Harvard University law school. Miss Ethel Tooze will leave Salem within a few days for Roseburg, where she will again teach school.

George T. Gerlinger was in Portland the first of the week.

F. N. Strong, agency superintendent for the Oregon Life Insurance company in Oregon, and D. V. Poling, registered at The Gail Tuesday.

George S. Sardam of McMinnville was at The Gail Monday.

Clark Van Orsdal has left for Corvallis to attend the Oregon Agricultural college.

B. H. Klingerman, northwest manager of the H. M. Bylesby properties, visited the Oregon Power company's plant yesterday.

A. N. Holman of Bushong and company, Portland, spent yesterday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Holman.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Van Winkle and children of Tillamook, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Heck Black this week. Rev. Van Winkle and Paul left Wednesday evening for Rev. Van Winkle's new charge, the First Christian church of Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Van Winkle and two daughters are still at the Black home but will leave within a short time for the California city.

Mr. Henry Blagg of Hood River, Oregon, was visiting friends in Dallas while on his way to Corvallis, where he will resume his studies at O. A. C. Mr. Blagg is a member of the Phi Delta Sigma.

Jesse Barham has been inconvenienced this week by a specially malignant boil on his knee.

Mrs. F. H. Morrison and daughter, Edna, visited schools in Portland this week. Mr. Morrison spent a part of the week in Salem.

W. H. Brown has ordered 20 thousand shingles from the Dallas Warehouse & Manufacturing company for work on the buildings on his place in North Dallas.

Postmaster V. P. Fiske was in Portland on business Thursday.

Floyd Ellis will leave Sunday for Corvallis where he will enter O. A. C. He expects to take a course in pharmacy.

At the last meeting of Marmion Lodge, K. of P., a committee of three was appointed to procure more uniforms. It is thought that 13, of an approximate cost of $150, will be enough.

J. L. White of Albany, superintendent of the Willamette division of the Oregon Power company, was a Dallas visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Bonny Smith is recovering from a recent operation at the Dallas hospital.

Mrs. Mat Payne is convalescing from a recent illness.

Miss Maude Robertson has been able to sit up the past few days.

Walter McCarthy of Portland was in Dallas on business Thursday.

Miss May Shelton visited in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Smith, J. D. Smith and Mrs. E. B. Hamilton of Monmouth motored to Portland and return Monday.

F. E. Meyers of Crowley was in Dallas on business the latter part of the week.

Miss Pearl Dennett of Crowley is at the Dallas hospital taking care of a patient.

C. H. Farmer of Crowley was in Dallas on business the first of the week.

Mrs. J. E. Loe of Ballston was in Dallas on business Tuesday.

Ernest Farmer was in Dallas Friday.

Carl Linden is working in the Odell hop yard at Ballston.

Mr. O. E. Holmes was in Portland on business Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Cherrington spent Sunday with friends in Portland.

Miss Edna Holmes and Mrs. Lydia Evans visited friends in Portland Sunday.

Connett Newbill of Ballston was in Dallas on business Sunday and Monday of this week.

A. M. Fanning of Ballston was in Dallas the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ostrander and Mr. Long's family motored to Dallas from Pecos Saturday.

Mrs. J. S. Newbill, after spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rea Craven, returned to her home in Ballston Monday.

Miss Viola Selig of Falls City was in Dallas Thursday.

Luther Condon of Fir Grove was in Dallas on business Saturday.

Seth Bailey of Clackamas was in Dallas Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Virgil G. Bevens was in Salem on business Wednesday.

Mr. Lee Clemens was in Portland the first of the week.

Miss Beatrice Springstein was in Salem Wednesday.

Estley Farley left Thursday for Eugene, where he will enter the University of Oregon.

Mr. D. V. Poling of Portland was in Dallas on business Thursday.

Hugh Williams of Pecos was in town the first of the week.

McMinnville public schools open Monday.

M. F. Corrigan has been appointed administrator of the W. A. Key estate. Alex McKinnon, Henry McKee and Fred Hebbing have been appointed appraisers.

S. B. Taylor and crew of three are at Black Rock surveying for a new timber roadway for the Willamette Valley Lumber company.

C. A. Bennett and family are at the coast for a short outing.

In a letter to his father, Albert J. Bennett says he will be home Tuesday.

CONCERT TOMORROW

The regular Saturday evening band concert will be held tomorrow evening. Weather favorable, there will be a street dance after the concert.

day or Wednesday morning, along with the rest of the boys, mustered out.

Mrs. Cornelius Fast of Polk Station is recovering from a recent illness.

C. J. Coad was in Salem on business Thursday.

"Mice evidently appreciate our electrically made toast! Do you?" is a clever ad. in one of the city's windows. The ad. is illustrated with two mice, caught in traps, and the appearance of the nibbled toast.

Misses Muriel Simpson and Mattie Morris were early week guests of Miss Jennie Brown in Salt Creek.

Miss Elma Harris is expected to visit in the city over the week-end.

Mrs. Violet Coulson is in Eugene, where she will undergo an operation at the Catholic Sisters' hospital.

Rev. W. T. Tapscott will preach at Broadmead Sunday evening.

Mrs. Howard McConnell, who has been visiting with her parents in Moscow, Idaho, and with friends in The Dalles for the past month, returned home last evening.

Miss Naida Scott is substituting at the Dallas Meat Company's store.

A drafting machine has been installed in the county surveyor's office at the court house. The machine is one of the most approved models and will greatly facilitate the work of Surveyor Canfield.

Kansas Visitors Leave.

Major Harold Fiske and daughter, Virginia, who have been visiting at the home of his brother, V. P. Fiske, and his sister, Mrs. Fiske-Bassett, started on the return to their home in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Fiske and daughters, Misses Buena and Roxana, went as far as Portland with the party. A trip up the Columbia highway was planned for Thursday.

Major Fiske will be remembered as a former Dallas resident.

Broadmead House Burns.

The residence of Henry Behm, the Broadmead blacksmith, was totally destroyed by fire about 9 o'clock Saturday morning, together with practically all of the household goods.

BABIES WANTED BADLY

Miss Dilla B. Viers and Mrs. J. R. Craven, in charge of the Better Babies' feature of the county fair want Polk county parents to enter their children under two years of age.

Not good looks, but health and size and proportion, will count. The Better Babies' feature is not a beauty show. Polk county physicians will judge the babies from a professional standpoint, and will give free advice as to the proper care of children.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

See the new fall coats and suits at Mrs. Gregory's. 56-57

Dr. R. C. Virgil, osteopath, Uglow building; 9 to 12; 1 to 5; 7 to 8. 46-47

Now is the time to have that new corset fitted at Mrs. Gregory's. 56-57

Merton G. Ellis, Law and Abstract Offices, Dallas, Oregon. 57-4f.

For paper hanging, and all kinds of sign painting get Ernest Hanson's prices. Office, 217 Main, 'phone 361. 29-4f.

Schevers, W. D., at 415 Oak street, knows how to shoe horses. Try him. 34-4f.

Ladies: Don't forget the best bargains in ladies' ready to wear are at Mrs. Gregory's. 56-57

For fire and automobile insurance see Chas. Gregory, city hall. 32-4f

Our large pages save you money. Ellis Abstract Co., Dallas, Oregon. 57-4f.

Dr. C. L. Foster, dentist, City Bank building, Dallas. 57-4f.

Dr. Rempel, Chiropractor, 513 Church. Dr. Stone's Heave Drops cures heaves. Price $1, for sale by all druggists—Adv. 79-4f.

Our line of ladies' fall shoes is now complete—Mrs. Gregory. 56-57

The Dallas Wood company is ready to furnish you with mill wood. Good loads and good service. All wood cash on delivery. Phone 492. 103-4f.

Big line of new ladies' waists selling at 88 cents—Mrs. Gregory's. 56-57

Dr. Freeze, the Eye Specialist, to be in Dallas during Fair Week.

On Wednesday and Thursday, September 20-21, Dr. Freeze will make his regular visit to Dallas and may be consulted at the Gail hotel padock. Hardest cases of headaches and eye troubles invited to call. Free consultation and all work guaranteed. I fit the new double vision lenses and supply you with the latest and best in lenses and mountings at reasonable charges. Over 1000 patients treated in Polk county; over 8000 in the state of Oregon during the past fourteen years. 57-58

FOR SALE—Oats and vetch mixed, two cents per pound. A. G. Rempel, phone Dixie 515. 57-65

WANTED—Housekeeper on a farm. Address Jay Powell, Monmouth, Oregon. 57-60

WANTED—Middle-aged lady for companion and to do light housework through the winter. Inquire at Observer office. 57-4f.

BUY A READY BUILT HOUSE—We furnish ready-cut buildings, and all materials, including hardware, inside and outside paints, lath, plaster and shingles—in fact everything complete for erection except foundation and brickwork. Before you build see us in regard to our cuts and plans. If you find nothing satisfactory we will give you prices on your own plans. For further information address Jack Syron Sheridan, Oregon. 53-9-3

FOR SALE—Louvain setter dog, 1 1/2 years, $15. Joe Glad. 54-60

WANTED—10,000 pounds of green prunes at Kimball's dryer. Will pay highest market price. 57-4f

FOR SALE—Medicine wagon, team and harness at a bargain. P. F. Friesen, Dallas. Phone 963. 57-50

Society

Mrs. Walter Griffin and Mrs. Nellie Hubbard enjoyably entertained the members of the Evangelical Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Griffin on Levens street, with a silver tea. A very dainty luncheon was served late in the afternoon by Mesdames Hubbard and Griffin, on the veranda of the Griffin home. About 25 guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Rebecca Howe delightfully entertained the members of the Friends club Wednesday afternoon at the Howes Peach camp at Ellendale. The afternoon was enjoyably spent in family work. Late in the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served by Mesdames Palmer, Hunter and Benson. Mrs. Howes' guests were: Mesdames D. O. Bronson, Alice Dempsey, Martha Savage, Hardy Holman, Beatrice Grant, William Kersey, Olive Hobson, S. L. Palmer, Paul Hunter and Miss Benson.

A pretty early fall wedding was that of Chester T. Moffitt and Miss Nola Trent in Salem last week. Miss Trent is an Eola girl, daughter of J. W. Trent.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine with a bride's veil of silk chiffon and carried white carnations. Miss Dovie E. Odum of Dallas, a niece of the bride, acted as the bridesmaid and N. C. Summerville, a brother-in-law of the groom, was the best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Sarah Alderman, cousin of the groom. Pink and white asters with ferns decorated the rooms. The dining room was prettily arranged with pink and white dahlia decorations. A dainty repast was served by the Misses Lora Long, Mattie Antrican and Gernie Antrican, nieces of the bride.

Besides the father, J. W. Trent of Eola, and the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Moffitt of Salem, those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alderman, Miss Sarah Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Summerville and baby Juanita of Portland; Mrs. W. N. Antrican of Eola, Mrs. J. T. Coffey of McMinnville, Lora Long of McMinnville, Mattie Antrican of Eola, Jennie Antrican of Eola, Cleo Coffey of McMinnville, Miss D. Odum of Dallas, Miss Maggie Odum of Dallas, A. T. Moffitt of Salem, Master Ellison Room of Clear Lake, Guss Shratter of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burghart, Sr., of Salem, and Rev. F. T. Porter of Salem, who officiated at the marriage service.

This Is The Story That you will SEE, and Talked about at the Polk County Fair.

Lorraine Steel Range

It's on Legs

"The Autocrat of Stoves" STERLING FURNITURE COMPANY

SHIP YOUR CREAM TO MONMOUTH CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

IT BELONGS TO The Farmers of Polk County THEY GET THE MANUFACTURER'S PROFITS Monmouth Butter Guaranteed ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT

A REAL GROCERY STORE

WHERE A GENUINE EFFORT IS MADE TO REPEAT PATRONAGE WITH MAXIMUM SERVICE, PLUS QUALITY GROCERIES. WHEN DALLAS HOUSEWIVES KNOW THIS STORE FILLS EVERY GROCERY WANT THEY TURN WITH US.

VASSALL & COMPANY

418 MILL STREET WE SOLICIT YOUR ACCOUNT AND YOUR PATRONAGE

Low Round Trip Fare

TO DALLAS ACCOUNT

Polk County Fair

Sept. 19-21 Inc. ON SALE SEPTEMBER 18th TO 21st Fares from all stations are low. RETURN LIMIT SEPT. 23

Ask local agent for further information JOHN M. SCOTT General Passenger Agent Portland, Oregon SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Try An Observer Want Ad