Hops Are Higher.

Growers who held their 1916 hops, for there has been active activity in that com- modity the past week or so. The hops' association, at Salem, is fairly active sale at the time, the price ranging from 10 cents per pound. A car- load last Friday at Salem has been numerous small- loads. The Southern Pacific has been a bad feature of situation as it is tying up the growers who have al- ready sales. The money is not buyers at the hops are a car- load.

Fine Tomatoes.

Land Tapscott, owner of the greenhouse, was showing yes- terday a new variety of tomatoe, also, smoothness and ex- clusive, is in a class of its tomatoe, which is one of a variety which Mr. Tapscott is used from for plants next year. A foot in circumfer- ence raised from seed pur- chased the originator of the New Jersey, at $1 per plant, and is known as Bon- ne. Mr. Tapscott exhibited a tomatoe at the recent fair and received first prize.

PIONEER DIES.

Pyburn. Was Old Resident of Oregon. Pyburn of Saver died Sun- day week and was buried last week at the Saver cemetery. Rev. J. Corvallis officiated at the funeral. Mr. Pyburn is survived by wife, Grace Saver of Su-automobile accident in Salem last Friday evening, the accident happen- ing just as they were approaching Mill creek bridge near the fair grounds. They were making a good rate of speed, when the car struck the curb, causing it to turn com- pletely over and injuring both of them. Percival was taken to the hos- pital where it was found that he had several ribs fractured. Eldridge was not seriously hurt, although he is suf- fering from several minor bruises.

Independence Mayor Hurt.

Mayor W. H. Walker of Indepen- dence is walking on crutches as a re- sult of an accident which happened early Wednesday morning. Mr. Walk- er was riding down town, the pave- ments were slick with frost, causing his horse to lose footing. The animal fell on its rider and Mr. Walk- er's feet are badly bruised and the ligaments of his right leg consid- erably torn. The mayor is a prince of good fellows and his accident is re- gretted by a host of friends who hope he may soon put aside his crutches.— Monitor.

AN INVITATION

A new firm today bids Polk County an invita- tion to inspect its place of business.

We have purchased the Garage business of Thos. Catherwood and have leased from H. L. Crider his Garage on Main street, near Academy.

We are now in our place of business and would be glad to meet our friends. We like our new home and thought maybe you'd like it, too. At any rate, we'd be glad to show you around.

Elmo Bennett and Albert Bennett are our as- sistants and they, as ourselves, are at your service.

We shall try to maintain the same standard of excellence as Garagemen to which the many cus- tomers of Mr. Catherwood have been accustomed. We hope to merit their patronage.

Our Garage is a Hupmobile and Studebaker ser- vice station. We handle the best of oils and gas- oline.

PAUL HUNTER.
RALPH BENNETT.
