

MONMOUTH

the boys that tried to haul all the gravel off of the bar in one day. H. L. Fitchard and wife, Miss Ella Robinson and H. Hirschberg of Independence passed over the bridge Sunday evening. Several of the West Salem women are working in the fruit packing plants in Salem. Watchman McAdams says that the dog business is picking up. He has sold seven Airdale puppies. There will be lots of venison down our way as Dave Pugh and James Emlah are off for the big mountains. Those boys are some hunters. Uncle Wash Gibson attended the Democratic speaking last week and says it was good. Mr. Morris of Dallas was over to Salem Sunday with a carload of friends. Deputy Sheriff Fuller from Hillsboro was in Salem on business last Saturday. Miss Thelma Williams of Independence spent Saturday with Mrs. Billings in West Salem and returned home in the evening. A. D. Davidson and wife of Independence spent Sunday with relatives in Salem. W. S. Kurre and wife of Independence were over to Salem Saturday evening.

OAK GROVE

Floyd Meyer of Smithfield threshed grain for Mr. Huffman Friday. Mr. Neufeld finished picking and drying his 1300 bushels of prunes last week. Mr. Trueblood baled straw Friday for C. H. Farmer. Art Newton of Salem is working for Seth White. Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Hillman Hodges in Dallas Friday. Miss Jamie Farmer came home from Dallas Friday evening to stay over Sunday. Miss Stella Smith was a Dallas caller Saturday. Most every one from this neighborhood attended the round-up at McMinnville last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gay of Corvallis were Sunday callers at F. M. Edgar's. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mallioat and children of Molalla were visitors at the Farmer home Saturday and Sunday. R. J. Williamson and family and John Braden Forded to Falls City and Black Rock Sunday and spent the day. Miss Ada Farmer attended teachers' institute in Dallas this week.

CROWLEY

Wilson Allen hauled grain to Crowley last week. Several from this vicinity went to the McMinnville round-up last week. The Ladies' Aid met at the Lewis home on Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Linn Gay of Corvallis were Sunday visitors at J. W. Edgar's home. Sunday school was well attended here Sunday. Seth White was a Salem visitor Friday. Mrs. Gardner was a caller at Mrs. R. J. Williamson's Monday. Mrs. Warren visited her sister, Mrs. M. F. White, Monday. Frank Farmer was digging potatoes on the Baskett place this week. Miss Winova Roland went to Dallas the first of the week to attend teachers' institute.

MT. VIEW POPCORN

Mr. O. E. Fry's prune dryer burned down Monday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock. He lost about seven tons of prunes. Mrs. Lou of eastern Oregon has been visiting Mrs. G. R. Adams. Prune drying is just about completed, but the farmers are now busy picking their apples. Mountain View school started October 2 with Mrs. Seymour as principal and Miss Deal as primary teacher. Popcorn school also started with Miss Rose Bodayla as teacher.

INDEPENDENCE

The many friends of Carl Percival are pleased to learn that he is getting along nicely now, after being hurt in an auto accident recently in Salem. Mrs. Sarah Irvine is visiting in San Francisco. Miss Bertha Collins has accepted a position as an operator in the telephone office. Ira Ellison has returned to his home in Dallas, after spending the summer here.

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. E. J. Anderson has returned from a week's visit in McMinnville, Portland and Salem. Ernest Chown has returned from McMinnville where he has been visiting friends for a week. Rev. Orin Wall and family left Monday for Sheridan, where he will be pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Wall has been pastor here for the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson of McMinnville and Mrs. Anderson of Portland visited the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kruetz and children of Suver, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. Mr. Kruetz expects to move his family to Independence this week. Quite a number from here attended the show, "The little girl next door," in Independence Sunday. G. A. Wells was a Dallas business caller Tuesday. Ed. Prather was a Portland business caller this week. Quite a number from here attended the cattle sale in Independence Tuesday. R. Peterson left Monday for McMinnville and Portland to visit for a few days. Rev. Atkins, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor, arrived this week and will preach his first sermon Sunday. N. C. Anderson and J. N. Loy took their cattle to Independence to be sold at the Jersey cattle sale Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Rastus Peterson, Nels Anderson of McMinnville and Geneva Cryderman were Albany and Corvallis visitors Sunday. Glen Harman of Elkins has been visiting with relatives here recently. Prof. Buell attended institute in Dallas this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Prather and daughter of Corvallis visited relatives here Sunday.

RICKREALL

L. Diekmann has been appointed road supervisor to fill the vacancy caused by Claude Ashby moving away. Mr. Doris is very ill at the Salem hospital with blood poison in his hand. Mr. Wheeler has rented the J. B. Ashby farm. Mrs. Jim Budlong of Portland was a recent visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Diekmann. Claude Ashby and family have moved to their farm near Lake Lahish. Chester Horner has a fine crop of Hubbard squashes. Mrs. J. Fanstoeck of Omaha left Wednesday for her home. She has been a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowery, the past three months.

SPRING VALLEY

Spring Valley Mrs. Beydler and children of Beaverton have been guests for the past week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Taylor. They were friends in Kansas. Among those from here who attended the round-up at McMinnville were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford, Mrs. L. M. Pervine, Mrs. Frank Matthews, Miss Genie Smith and her father, James Smith, Fred and Jesse Simkins. Oscar Catton of Salem is spending the week with his father, W. S. Catton. Mr. and Mrs. Worth Henry of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. Henry's parents here. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Mann of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Hampton of Pendleton spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Clarke. Mr. Hampton crossed the plains with Mr. Clarke's party in the early days. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crawford and son, Aubrey, of Salem, were over Sunday visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Crawford. Miss Elsie Taylor was attending the teachers' institute at Dallas on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Wm. Davis is home from Dallas, where she has been caring for her daughter, Bliss, at the home of Mrs. Fred Suver. Miss Bliss Davis is now about recovered from the effects of her recent operation for appendicitis. The Misses Phoebe and Mary Wyatt, Mr. Booth and Mr. Osborne of Amity were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Worth Henry of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. Henry's parents here. A fire starting in the Bailey hills

PUTNAM HILL

R. W. New drove over to Fort Rock to look after business there. Mrs. Fred Kubin has been quite sick the past two weeks, but is some better now. Lee Edwards of Fort Rock spent a few weeks with his brother, A. Edwards, returning home last week. He says it seems nice to get back where vegetables and fruits grow. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hedden had as their guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hoover of Salem, T. G. Hoover of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. William Sneed from east of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sneed of Drain. Fred Kubin and W. E. St. Pierre have finished drying their prunes. Both report a large yield. The Hook and Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Martha Riser Thursday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Minnie Schwartz; vice-president, Mrs. Marie Kubin; secretary, Mrs. Grotte; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Beaver; librarian, Mrs. Martha Riser. Mrs. Riser served a delicious lunch. Frank Pennington, wife and little daughter, started for their home at Fort Rock Thursday. They will drive over the mountains.

PUTNAM HILL

Alvin Kimball of Gold Hill is here visiting with his mother, Mrs. Malinda Kimball and his sisters, Mrs. Ben Thompson and Mrs. John Robinson. Besides he has a host of friends who are glad to welcome him home. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rodgers attended preaching at the Methodist church at Falls City Sunday evening. Mr. Rodgers gave a good lecture at the Oak Dale school house Sunday afternoon. Vivian Webster and Jamie Ross and Joe Dennis are home this week while the teachers' institute is being held in Dallas. Mrs. Dennis and little Ruth visited Mrs. W. D. Cary in Dallas Sunday afternoon. Mrs. F. Y. Patton of McPherson, Kansas, has been visiting her old-time friends, Mrs. Elvira Shirk and the family of L. G. Miller.

OAK DALE

on Monday afternoon caused some excitement here, as it soon spread through the stubble and St. John's weed and was rushing on toward the hills back of the Phillips and Purvine places. However, vigilant fighting with wet sacks was rewarded, so that by 10 o'clock the flames were subdued. It is not known how the fire started but it may have been from sparks from a steam engine which passed along the road that morning.

PERRYDALE

J. E. Yoakum, Mr. E. Jennings, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. J. T. Friar attended the funeral and burial of D. T. Hodges in Dallas Friday. Professor Barnes, Carl Morrison, Miss Winters and Miss Bryant attended the teachers' institute in Dallas this week. Joe Jennings was a Dallas caller Tuesday. Miss Bessie Morrison is taking music lessons of William Caldwell in Dallas. Mrs. J. P. Caldwell and children, who have been visiting in Salem, returned home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Yoakum and Mr. and Mrs. John Foster visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Friar Sunday. J. E. Yoakum left here Friday for a few weeks' visit in the east. Ross Jennings of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents. Max Flannery, C. L. Bratcher, J. T. Friar, John Jolly and W. C. Dennis attended the political speaking in Dallas Monday. H. J. Elliott and Frank Morrison attended the Republican rally in Dallas Monday evening.

PUTNAM HILL

and one-twenty-fifth of a mill for a normal school only 21 miles from where the state owns a good plant at Weston which requires but one-fortieth of of a mill annual maintenance to put it in successful operation? Read page 28 of the voters' pamphlet; and if you want to avoid needless taxation, vote

309 X NO

Paid advertisement—F. D. Watts, Weston, Ore.

FAMILY WASHING

FAMILY STYLE 5c per POUND

DALLAS STEAM LAUNDRY

A REAL GROCERY STORE

WHERE A GENUINE EFFORT IS MADE TO REPAY YOUR PATRONAGE WITH MAXIMUM SERVICE, PLUS QUALITY GROCERIES. WHEN DALLAS HOUSEWIVES KNOW THAT THIS STORE FILLS EVERY GROCERY WANT THEY TRADE WITH US.

VASSALL & COMPANY

418 MILL STREET PHONE 981 WE SOLICIT YOUR ACCOUNT AND YOUR PATRONAGE

SHIP YOUR CREAM TO MONMOUTH CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

IT BELONGS TO The Farmers of Polk County THEY GET THE MANUFACTURER'S PROFITS Monmouth Butter Guaranteed ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT

Why Should Oregon Vote Pendleton $125,000

and one-twenty-fifth of a mill for a normal school only 21 miles from where the state owns a good plant at Weston which requires but one-fortieth of of a mill annual maintenance to put it in successful operation? Read page 28 of the voters' pamphlet; and if you want to avoid needless taxation, vote

Star Transfer Co.

WE MOVE ANYTHING THAT IS MOVEABLE PROMPT SERVICE G. A. & L. C. MUSCOTT & A. P. STARR, Props. Phone Stands:—Webster's Confectionery 511 Ellis' Confectionery 1062 Barn 1074

Ask for Polk County Products

Pugh's Lyanberry Juice has a flavor you will not forget. It is sold at all leading confectionery and grocery stores. Manufactured by C. J. PUGH, Falls City, Oregon

There is too much "rust" on some of the straw votes to make them good indicators of the November election returns. Golden West Coffee is "Just Right"

FAMILY WASHING

FAMILY STYLE 5c per POUND

DALLAS STEAM LAUNDRY

A REAL GROCERY STORE

WHERE A GENUINE EFFORT IS MADE TO REPAY YOUR PATRONAGE WITH MAXIMUM SERVICE, PLUS QUALITY GROCERIES. WHEN DALLAS HOUSEWIVES KNOW THAT THIS STORE FILLS EVERY GROCERY WANT THEY TRADE WITH US.

VASSALL & COMPANY

418 MILL STREET PHONE 981 WE SOLICIT YOUR ACCOUNT AND YOUR PATRONAGE

SHIP YOUR CREAM TO

MONMOUTH CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

IT BELONGS TO

The Farmers of Polk County

THEY GET THE MANUFACTURER'S PROFITS

Monmouth Butter Guaranteed

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT

Why Should Oregon Vote Pendleton $125,000 and one-twenty-fifth of a mill for a normal school only 21 miles from where the state owns a good plant at Weston which requires but one-fortieth of of a mill annual maintenance to put it in successful operation? Read page 28 of the voters' pamphlet; and if you want to avoid needless taxation, vote

309 X NO

Paid advertisement—F. D. Watts, Weston, Ore.

Star Transfer Co.

WE MOVE ANYTHING THAT IS MOVEABLE

PROMPT SERVICE

G. A. & L. C. MUSCOTT & A. P. STARR, Props.

Phone Stands:—Webster's Confectionery 511 Ellis' Confectionery 1062 Barn 1074

Ask for

Polk County Products

Pugh's Lyanberry Juice has a flavor you will not forget. It is sold at all leading confectionery and grocery stores.

Manufactured by

C. J. PUGH, Falls City, Oregon

There is too much "rust" on some of the straw votes to make them good indicators of the November election returns.

Golden West Coffee is "Just Right"

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. E. J. Anderson has returned from a week's visit in McMinnville, Portland and Salem. Ernest Chown has returned from McMinnville where he has been visiting friends for a week. Rev. Orin Wall and family left Monday for Sheridan, where he will be pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Wall has been pastor here for the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson of McMinnville and Mrs. Anderson of Portland visited the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kruetz and children of Suver, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. Mr. Kruetz expects to move his family to Independence this week. Quite a number from here attended the show, "The little girl next door," in Independence Sunday. G. A. Wells was a Dallas business caller Tuesday. Ed. Prather was a Portland business caller this week. Quite a number from here attended the cattle sale in Independence Tuesday. R. Peterson left Monday for McMinnville and Portland to visit for a few days. Rev. Atkins, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor, arrived this week and will preach his first sermon Sunday. N. C. Anderson and J. N. Loy took their cattle to Independence to be sold at the Jersey cattle sale Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Rastus Peterson, Nels Anderson of McMinnville and Geneva Cryderman were Albany and Corvallis visitors Sunday. Glen Harman of Elkins has been visiting with relatives here recently. Prof. Buell attended institute in Dallas this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Prather and daughter of Corvallis visited relatives here Sunday.

RICKREALL

L. Diekmann has been appointed road supervisor to fill the vacancy caused by Claude Ashby moving away. Mr. Doris is very ill at the Salem hospital with blood poison in his hand. Mr. Wheeler has rented the J. B. Ashby farm. Mrs. Jim Budlong of Portland was a recent visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Diekmann. Claude Ashby and family have moved to their farm near Lake Lahish. Chester Horner has a fine crop of Hubbard squashes. Mrs. J. Fanstoeck of Omaha left Wednesday for her home. She has been a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowery, the past three months.

SPRING VALLEY

Spring Valley Mrs. Beydler and children of Beaverton have been guests for the past week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Taylor. They were friends in Kansas. Among those from here who attended the round-up at McMinnville were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford, Mrs. L. M. Pervine, Mrs. Frank Matthews, Miss Genie Smith and her father, James Smith, Fred and Jesse Simkins. Oscar Catton of Salem is spending the week with his father, W. S. Catton. Mr. and Mrs. Worth Henry of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. Henry's parents here. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Mann of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Hampton of Pendleton spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Clarke. Mr. Hampton crossed the plains with Mr. Clarke's party in the early days. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crawford and son, Aubrey, of Salem, were over Sunday visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Crawford. Miss Elsie Taylor was attending the teachers' institute at Dallas on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Wm. Davis is home from Dallas, where she has been caring for her daughter, Bliss, at the home of Mrs. Fred Suver. Miss Bliss Davis is now about recovered from the effects of her recent operation for appendicitis. The Misses Phoebe and Mary Wyatt, Mr. Booth and Mr. Osborne of Amity were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Worth Henry of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. Henry's parents here. A fire starting in the Bailey hills

PUTNAM HILL

R. W. New drove over to Fort Rock to look after business there. Mrs. Fred Kubin has been quite sick the past two weeks, but is some better now. Lee Edwards of Fort Rock spent a few weeks with his brother, A. Edwards, returning home last week. He says it seems nice to get back where vegetables and fruits grow. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hedden had as their guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hoover of Salem, T. G. Hoover of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. William Sneed from east of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sneed of Drain. Fred Kubin and W. E. St. Pierre have finished drying their prunes. Both report a large yield. The Hook and Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Martha Riser Thursday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Minnie Schwartz; vice-president, Mrs. Marie Kubin; secretary, Mrs. Grotte; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Beaver; librarian, Mrs. Martha Riser. Mrs. Riser served a delicious lunch. Frank Pennington, wife and little daughter, started for their home at Fort Rock Thursday. They will drive over the mountains.

PUTNAM HILL

Alvin Kimball of Gold Hill is here visiting with his mother, Mrs. Malinda Kimball and his sisters, Mrs. Ben Thompson and Mrs. John Robinson. Besides he has a host of friends who are glad to welcome him home. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rodgers attended preaching at the Methodist church at Falls City Sunday evening. Mr. Rodgers gave a good lecture at the Oak Dale school house Sunday afternoon. Vivian Webster and Jamie Ross and Joe Dennis are home this week while the teachers' institute is being held in Dallas. Mrs. Dennis and little Ruth visited Mrs. W. D. Cary in Dallas Sunday afternoon. Mrs. F. Y. Patton of McPherson, Kansas, has been visiting her old-time friends, Mrs. Elvira Shirk and the family of L. G. Miller.

OAK DALE

on Monday afternoon caused some excitement here, as it soon spread through the stubble and St. John's weed and was rushing on toward the hills back of the Phillips and Purvine places. However, vigilant fighting with wet sacks was rewarded, so that by 10 o'clock the flames were subdued. It is not known how the fire started but it may have been from sparks from a steam engine which passed along the road that morning.

PERRYDALE

J. E. Yoakum, Mr. E. Jennings, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. J. T. Friar attended the funeral and burial of D. T. Hodges in Dallas Friday. Professor Barnes, Carl Morrison, Miss Winters and Miss Bryant attended the teachers' institute in Dallas this week. Joe Jennings was a Dallas caller Tuesday. Miss Bessie Morrison is taking music lessons of William Caldwell in Dallas. Mrs. J. P. Caldwell and children, who have been visiting in Salem, returned home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Yoakum and Mr. and Mrs. John Foster visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Friar Sunday. J. E. Yoakum left here Friday for a few weeks' visit in the east. Ross Jennings of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents. Max Flannery, C. L. Bratcher, J. T. Friar, John Jolly and W. C. Dennis attended the political speaking in Dallas Monday. H. J. Elliott and Frank Morrison attended the Republican rally in Dallas Monday evening.

PUTNAM HILL

and one-twenty-fifth of a mill for a normal school only 21 miles from where the state owns a good plant at Weston which requires but one-fortieth of of a mill annual maintenance to put it in successful operation? Read page 28 of the voters' pamphlet; and if you want to avoid needless taxation, vote

309 X NO

Paid advertisement—F. D. Watts, Weston, Ore.