MONMOUTH

The street pavers are getting along fine. They expect to begin laying the concrete in a day or two.

Mr. Sacre has built a poultry house. He expects to go into the poultry business on a large scale.

C. E. Herren has his hop yards ready to cultivate.

G. H. Perkins of southern Oregon was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Kelsey, this week.

J. F. Wade and wife of Condon, Oregon, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nott.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sullivan and wife attended the round-up at Albany.

Mrs. Y. Olson and Mrs. L. Marks of Sulphur Springs on the headwaters of Soap Creek, were the guests of Mrs. Olson's daughter and Miss Allen, who are attending normal school, last Friday and Saturday.

H. S. Portwood made a business trip to Harrisburg Saturday.

Guy Hewitt, the Jersey cattle and hog raiser of the Luckiamute valley, was in town on business Saturday.

F. M. Fisher, the Evangelical pastor, is putting a new coat of paint on the Baptist church building.

Alton McClellon went to Portland this week to enter a business college.

Samuel G. Hinkle was called to Tillamook to be with his mother, who is very seriously ill.

Henby Harmon and wife of south Monmouth, R. F. D. 1, was in town on business Monday.

Mrs. Brooster and Mrs. Egleston have fitted up a restaurant in the building formerly occupied by the Monmouth Herald.

Columbia Tell and wife went to Scio Monday to visit their old friends. They expected to return today.

John Palmer and wife, a prosperous farmer of the Luckiamute was in town on business Monday.

M. K. Boatman of Corvallis was in Monmouth Tuesday looking after his interests.

Senator Doughty of Portland is the guest of his brother John and two sisters, Miss Millie, one of the teachers in the normal and Miss Grace Doughty.

H. Lewis of Falls City was in town Tuesday greeting his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Powell of Airlie were in town Tuesday.

D. C. McNeal and family made an automobile trip to Corvallis and back Tuesday.

C. E. Graves, Republican candidate for assessor, was in town Tuesday renewing acquaintanceship with the people of Monmouth.

Mrs. A. L. Tallman entered the normal Monday.

A. E. Poole is building a wood house for J. W. Murdock.

Frank Laughary of Luckiamute was in town Wednesday.

Monmouth grange met in regular session Saturday, with most of the "live wires" present. After a short business session a splendid lunch was served, after which a good program was given, consisting of several readings by Miss Katherine Arbuthnot, fifth and sixth grade teacher; vocal solos by Miss Boardman, accompanied by Miss Tompkins, both students of the O. N. S. Some of the questions discussed were "Will getting more of the people back to the land reduce the high cost of living?" "Which is the greater affliction, the high cost of living or the cost of high living?" "What is the duty of each individual member of the grange?" The question box is a regular feature of the program which is given during the open session to which every one is invited. Rev. W. A. Elkins, pastor of the Christian church was initiated and other business attended to.

The first meeting of the season of the parent teachers' association was held Friday night in the high school auditorium; Prof. M. S. Putman delivered a splendid address on the subject of industrial training which was well received and which proves that Mr. Putman is awake to the needs and demands of modern parents in regard to practical training for their children. The secretary reported that there was a fund of $70 on hand, the result of Prof. Gentle's lecture on Germany, and a committee was appointed to purchase a work of art to place in the training school; the lecture having been given for that purpose.

W. J. Murphy, Jr., who has been attending the university, was home recently for a visit with friends and relatives.

Agate Rebekah lodge gave a Hallowe'en party at their hall last night.

G. P. Hembree, William Riddell, Jr., J. A. Vanloan and E. T. Evans are among those who finished filling their silos this week.

R. P. Evans has ordered material for another silo; he built one last year and thinks it is the best solution of the dairy feed problem.

Mrs. T. P. Gilmore went to Salem Saturday.

Monmouth Co-operative creamery is paying thirty-seven cents per pound for butter fat and stock holders and patrons are well pleased and very hopeful of a prosperous future.

Parties were in this vicinity the first of the week making arrangements for circulating a petition for the purpose of recalling members of the county court.

GUTHRIE

The public sale held at the Mrs. Ida Minnich place Tuesday was well attended and nearly everything sold well. M. L. White was auctioneer and W. D. Gilliam was clerk with H. L. Fenton as assistant.

The Western Union Telegraph company which has workmen putting up telegraph lines through here, moved their cars to Dallas Saturday. After spending several days in the Dallas vicinity they will be transferred to Corvallis.

Henry Fern has bought timber in the Oakdale vicinity and intends to move his sawmill from here to that place soon.

G. G. Irish and family have moved from Buell to their home here.

Miss Eugenia Phillips commenced teaching school here the 12th, with an enrollment of 16 pupils.

Mrs. W. D. Gilliam and daughters were Monmouth visitors Monday evening.

Edgar and Otis Foster of Dallas are farming part of the Lee place.

AIRLIE

Frank Smith of Lewisville has rented the J. O. Staats place.

Tom Williams of Independence was here this week to see his son.

John Staats and wife of Eugene are spending their vacation here on the old home place.

At a road district meeting held here Saturday evening J. M. Simpson, Frank Tubant and Reese Womar were elected delegates to a county meeting to be held in Dallas October 28th. The delegates to the Dallas convention will outline road work for next year, and provide the county court with a budget of expenses.

S. Tifany, the Siletz railroad superintendent, and Howard Bush of Hoskins were callers here Monday morning.

When Hugh Williams' team ran away Monday morning he was thrown from the wagon and suffered a broken leg. Dr. Starbuck was called to attend him.

A number from here who attended the Albany round-up, report a good time.

J. F. Ulrich and wife were business callers at Albany last week.

J. W. McBee has moved into the new house he built this fall on the former D. O. Staats farm.

OAK GROVE

Paul Muno of Rickreall was here last week digging his potatoes.

Thad Stevens was a Dallas visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Williamson were callers at J. W. Edgars Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Fawk spent several days on the coast, returning home on Wednesday of last week.

Grange was well attended here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Lewis were visitors at Crowley one day last week.

Sunday school was well attended here Sunday.

Mr. Vincent and son, Clyde, were callers in the Luckiamute vicinity Sunday.

Several from here attended church at Crowley Sunday.

Claud Hickerson, who is working for Hugh Farmer, has been quite ill with inflammatory rheumatism. Dr. McCallon was called to see him Tuesday.

SMITHFIELD

Many of the farmers are discing their fields. It is hoped the fall rains will soon start.

Henry Fast has returned from Idaho, where he was working in the harvest.

There are eleven automobiles in Smithfield, eight of which are Fords.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Heinrichs had a pleasant trip to Bakersfield, Mrs. Heinrichs has written to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Diehms.

John Diehm and family, accompanied by Miss Barnhart, motored to Silverton last week. On the return home they drove through Monmouth and Independence, the speedometer registering 89 miles for the trip.

Many of the farmers are hauling grain to Perrydale.

We are having fine fall weather.

CROWLEY

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Farmer were Dallas visitors the middle of last week.

D. A. Smith of Dallas spent the past week helping pick apples at Mrs. G. C. Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Williamson and L. A. Williamson and family Forded to Amity on Thursday night of last week to attend the show.

Charley Knower spent several days last week in Salem.

Seth White was a Smithfield caller Friday.

Mrs. F. E. Valliere was a Dallas caller last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McCrow and baby of Smithfield visited one day last week with her grandmother, Mrs. G. C. Smith.

Cecil Riggs sawed wood Friday for Mr. Dennett.

F. M. Edgar was a Dallas visitor Friday.

Seth White has purchased a new driving horse.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williamson of McCoy visited Sunday with his brother, R. J. Williamson.

Church was quite well attended here Sunday.

Several from this neighborhood attended the dance at McCoy Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gay of Corvallis passed through here Saturday evening on their way home from Tillamook, where they spent a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edgar of Oak Grove visited their son, F. M. Edgar and family Sunday.

George Smith attended the round-up in Albany Saturday.

Mrs. Farmer and daughters and Alice and Cecil Riggs attended Sunday school at Oak Grove Sunday.

Verda Williamson and John Braden attended the show in Salem one night last week.

John Farmer of Yamhill county visited his brother, C. H. Farmer, the first of the week.

There will be preaching services at the church here Saturday night at 7 o'clock, also Sunday at 11 a. m. with basket dinner. Sunday will be 50 years to the day since J. W. Osborne preached his first sermon here. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mrs. Dennett shipped several coops of nice turkeys this week.

WEST SALEM

Rev. T. D. Yarnes and family have moved to Independence. Mr. Yarnes was appointed to the Independence charge by the recent conference at Lebanon.

West Salem school was closed the first three days of last week so the teachers could attend the institute at Dallas.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Becher has been given the name of Verla Arlene.

The teachers for our school this year are: Mrs. Frank Gibson, principal; Miss Florence Corey, intermediate, and Miss Arlene Bennett, primary. Marion Moore is janitor.

Rev. J. W. Warren and family have moved into the Methodist parsonage. Mr. Warren formerly was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Falls City.

Sunday Rev. Warren conducted his first service in West Salem to a fair-sized congregation. At the close of the meeting officers for the Sabbath school were elected as follows: Superintendent, Mrs. Warren; assistant superintendent, Mrs. J. L. Hurst; secretary, Miss Dorothy Miller; treasurer; Mrs. J. R. Bedford; chorister, Mr. Warren, Jr.; organists, Misses Ruth Bedford, Joanna James and Mrs. Albert Linegar.

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Geneva and M. J. Cryderman were Albany callers Tuesday.

M. V. Prather and son, Merlin, and Mrs. Georgia Prather and daughter, Ruth, were Salem visitors Monday.

Ed. Harman took a load of apples to Widmer's cider mill, near Albany.

Ed. Lichty has purchased a colt from M. J. Kruetz of Suver.

Mrs. W. I. Reynolds of Dallas has been visiting friends here recently.

Janey Kane of Carlton is visiting with relatives this week.

Orin Hayes and family moved Saturday to a farm near Monmouth.

A pound party was given Rev. Atkins and family, the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday of last week.

Quite a few from here attended the round-up at Albany.

Mrs. M. I. Conger and daughter of Suver visited with Mrs. E. J. Anderson Wednesday.

Claude Lewis, a cattle buyer of Lewisville, was here last week looking for fat cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston are passing the week with relatives in Sheridan.

Jess Strawn and family were Corvallis callers Sunday.

J. M. Prather was down from Corvallis Tuesday picking apples.

FALLS CITY

The Falls City Lumber and Logging company has begun to fill up its pond here with logs preparatory to starting the large mill soon.

C. F. Anderson of Salem has purchased the Wells farm east of town and will move to the place and begin his fall farm work soon. Mr. Wells will move to Salem to live.

H. Griffin has gone to Monroe, Ore., to stay several weeks. He has a contract for cutting and hauling oak logs for a Portland company.

Harvey Bedient has moved to town for the winter. He is janitor at the school.

Clay Oxford and wife were round-up visitors at Albany Friday.

Falls City people are very busy getting in their fall fruits and vegetables for the winter. There is a great abundance of this produce in this section of the country this fall.

School work was resumed last Thursday with the return of teachers from the county institute at Dallas.

MT. VIEW-POPCORN

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson went to the coast Tuesday after fish. They will return Wednesday evening.

Ed. Stewart and Douglas Holgate left Tuesday for Alberta, Canada.

Mrs. O. E. Fry is visiting friends in Portland this week.

Roscoe Clark started for Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday, where he will attend school.

Mrs. Chapman, who has been quite ill at her daughter's, Mrs. A. R. Southwick, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Best is having her house reshingled.

PERRYDALE

Mrs. J. P. Caldwell was a McMinnville caller Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKee returned home Wednesday from a month's visit in the east.

D. L. Keyt of Monmouth was a visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. J. P. Caldwell on Wednesday entertained the W. C. T. U. at her home.

Mr. E. Eries and mother left here Thursday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Washington.

The Good Roads club held a meeting here Thursday and elected the following officers: President, F. E. Lynn; vice-president, H. C. Gilliam; treasurer, J. T. Friar; F. E. Lynn and H. G. Keyt were elected delegates to the county convention next week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin visited relatives here Sunday.

LIBRARY ADDS NEW BOOKS.

Boys Are Demanding Volumes on Electricity.

Coincident with Edison week Miss Jennie Muscott, librarian, reports that insistent demands by Dallas boys for books on electricity has caused the city library to borrow volumes on this subject from the state library. An unusually interesting group of books about the European war and the warring countries have also been received from the state library as a short loan. Following are the names of the books just received:

The Lands of the Tamed Turk (Jaekel), England and the English (Colieri), Germany and England (Cramb), Germany and the Germans (Berry), The Germans (Wylie), Egypt, the Land of Temple Builders (Perry), Austro-Hungarian Life in Town and Country (Palmer), Russian Rambles (Hapgood), Rome (Tuker), Between St. Dennis and St. George (Hueffer), Belgium the Land of Art (Griffis), Belgium, Neutral and Loyal (Waxweiler), Bruges and West Flanders (Forestier), Four Weeks in the Trenches (Kreisler), World War (Baldwin), War in Europe (Hart), What is Back of the War (Beveridge), Boy Electrician (Morgan), Harper's How to Understand Electrical Work (Ouken), Electricity for Everybody (Atkinson), Elements of Electricity (Timbie), Electricity Made Easy (Houston & Kennelly), Religion and Life (Worcester), The New Menticulture (Fletcher), The Cure of Souls (McLaren), A Century Change in Religion (Harris).

HORNIBROOK RESIGNS PLACE.

Albany Newspaper Man Gives Up Siamese Ministership.

William H. Hornibrook, United States minister to Siam, has resigned his post and will return to his newspaper work in Albany in February. This announcement was made Monday night by Fred Nutting, manager of Mr. Hornibrook's paper, The Albany Democrat. The Siamese climate did not agree with the Hornibrook children and Mr. Hornibrook tendered his resignation last May. The Albany man was appointed minister to the far eastern country in March 1914 and assumed his duties in June of the same year. He began newspaper work in Albany in 1910.

M. G. ELLIS ATTACKS MEASURE.

Lawyer Alleges Jokers Exist in Beer Amendment.

Under the auspices of the Union Dry league M. G. Ellis is stumping the county fighting the so-called brewers' amendment permitting the manufacture and sale of beer in Oregon. Each evening an automobile squadron leaves the city for some county community and in schoolhouse or church the amendment is discussed and an informal program given. Ellis points to lurking meanings in the amendment placed there by commas and grammatical construction. He finds 13 or 14 such "jokers" in the measure. At Bridgeport Wednesday night Sam Gibson and Miss Leta Woolsey sang and Miss Mabel Brown gave a monologue. Mrs. Gibson, president of the Union Dry league spoke. F. V. Brown presided.

Asks For Correction.

Because he has been thought by some people to be the Charles Lane who testified in a liquor case Monday, Charles H. Lane, formerly a clerk at the Hotel Gail, asks that this statement be made. The man who testified Monday was Charles E. Lane.

Claims 100 Cars Short.

William Houck of the Houck Milling company of McMinnville claims that he is short 100 cars necessary to move his grain.

TOWN TOPICS

Now is the time to see J. C. Uglow about The New Edison. 65-67

Dr. R. C. Virgil, osteopath, Uglow building: 9 to 12; 1 to 5; 7 to 8. 46-tf

For paper hanging, and all kinds of sign painting get Ernest Hanson's prices. Office, 217 Main, 'phone 361. 29-tf.

Schevers, W. D., at 415 Oak street, knows how to shoe horses. Try him. 34-tf.

Merton G. Ellis, Law and Abstract Offices, Dallas, Oregon. 57-tf.

Hear the New Edison. 609 Mill St. 65-67

For Fire and automobile insurance see Chas. Gregory, city hall. 32-tf

Our large pages save you money. Ellis Abstract Co., Dallas, Oregon. 57-tf.

Dr. C. L. Foster, dentist, City Bank building, Dallas.

Dr. Rempel, Chiropractor, 513 Church

Dr. Stone's Heave Drops cures heaves. Price $1, for sale by all druggists.—Adv. 79-tf.

The Dallas Wood company is ready to furnish you with mill wood. Good loads and good service. All wood cash on delivery. Phone 492. 103-tf.

Last Chance Prices

Owing to an increase in the cost of everything used in the manufacture of magazines, many of them will be increased in price this fall.

From now until November 10th is a real "last chance" period, as the increase in prices will take effect on that day.

We suggest you look over this list, make up your mind what periodicals you want for yourself and your friends this coming year and subscribe for them now.

American Magazine and Woman's Home Companion, to one address $2
Christian Herald and Etude....$2.00
(After Nov. 10, $2.75)
Everybody's and Delineator....$2.00
Housewife and Ladies' World with People's Home Journal of McCall's or To-day's.....$1.00
Metropolitan Magazine and Pictorial Review $2.00
(After Nov. 10, $3.00)
Modern Priscilla and Home Needlework $1.25
Pictorial Review and Ladies' World (After Nov. 10, $2.25).....$1.90
Popular Magazine and Ainslee's, to one address.....$3.95
(After Nov. 10, $5.70)
Youth's Companion (new subs.) with American Magazine or Woman's Home Companion.....$3.00
Dozens of other bargain combinations, good only until November 10, at

Hayter's Book Store
DALLAS, OREGON

DR. FOSTER
CHIROPRACTIC
HAS OPENED A SANITARIUM ONE BLOCK SOUTH OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, WHERE ALL WHO DESIRE TREATMENT WILL FIND HIM. ELECTRICITY IN ALL FORMS IS USED IN HIS PRACTICE. ELECTRIC BLANKETS AND GENERAL TREATMENTS. FOR DEAFNESS HE SELDOM FAILS. LADY ATTENDANT.

2 World-Famous Brands
Each the best of its class. 2 splendid grades at 2 different prices.
Old Master and San Marto Coffee
"The Kind With the Flavor"
SOLD BY

DALLAS MEAT COMPANY.

FAMILY WASHING
FAMILY STYLE 5c per POUND
DALLAS STEAM LAUNDRY

A REAL GROCERY STORE
WHERE A GENUINE EFFORT IS MADE TO REPAY YOUR PATRONAGE WITH MAXIMUM SERVICE, PLUS QUALITY GROCERIES. WHEN DALLAS HOUSEWIVES KNOW THAT THIS STORE FILLS EVERY GROCERY WANT THEY TRADE WITH US.
VASSALL & COMPANY
418 MILL STREET PHONE 981
WE SOLICIT YOUR ACCOUNT AND YOUR PATRONAGE