PLAN NOVEMBER RECITAL.

John Claire Monteith and F. Eichenlaub Will Appear Here.

Arrangements are being completed for the appearance of John Claire Monteith, baritone, and F. Eichenlaub, violinist, of Portland, in a recital in Dallas November 18 or 25. Mr. Eichenlaub is one of the best violinists in the northwest and has been secured by Madame Schumann-Heink to play some obligato accompaniments when the great contralto sings in Portland November 11.

Will Write In Names.

Doings of the Drys.

During the past two weeks the Flying Squadron of the Polk County Union Dry committee have held successful meetings at seven points in the county, speaking to large and appreciative audiences. After hearing Mr. Ellis show up the "jokers" in the Brewers' Amendment, the people express astonishment and indignation at the trickery and chicanery displayed in the wording of that document and promise to hit it hard when they go to the polls. Instead of being hoodwinked by the wet "jokers" it contains, they are resolved that the joke shall be on the "wets" themselves for wasting money and energy in the effort to again draw the people of Oregon into the toils of the booze interests.

Meetings for this week so far as arranged are: Wednesday evening,

Airlie; Thursday evening, Independence; Friday evening, Mistletoe. The Perrydale orchestra will furnish music at the Independence meeting, and a large party from Dallas are planning to motor over to greet the "drys" of the neighboring town. —G. E. E.

A divorce has been granted William P. Harned in his suit against Gertrude S. Harned.
