WAXED SILKS.

Waxed silks, voiles and wool and mohair mixtures are the craze now in Paris, which is quite mad over these new "tissus crees." Callot and Cheruit especially have taken up these waxed fabrics, and, in addition to the stiffness of the material, there are facings of stiffening under hems and pleatings. Paris fashions enormously these days. Drecoll being the only house that does not emphasize crinolines effects. Premet is exploiting rare effects extravagantly. Not only are the Premet frocks stiffened at the hem and at the hip, but broad sashes are lined with resilient fabric and boned at the ends, so that they stand out from the skirts. All bodies are snug fitting, and bones are introduced at the waist line to give the trim waist effect that accords best with a widely flaring skirt.

Size of the Planets

An ingenious way of comparing the sizes of planets with the sun is suggested by a French scientific writer. Let the earth, he says, be represented by a twenty franc piece; then Venus is 15 francs, Mars 2, Mercury 7, Uranus 280, Neptune 520, Saturn 1,840, Jupiter 6,800 and the sun 6,780,000.

MONMOUTH NORMAL

(Delayed Correspondence)

The week preceding Hallowe'en was a busy one for normal students. On October 21 the moving picture, "Civilization," was presented to a large and appreciative audience. On the Thursday following we were entertained by Mr. Whipp, a Portland soloist, who gave a good program of musical numbers. On October 28 two Hallowe'en parties given by the juniors and seniors, respectively, were held in the training school and the normal gymnasium. The evening of November 3 was the occasion of the joint meeting of the Vespertine, Delphian and Normal societies. The masque, "Pandora," was staged by the Delphian society and the debate and musical numbers of the normals were all very much appreciated by the audience. On account of an accident to the lighting system the Vespertines were compelled to postpone their program, but it will be an event to be looked forward to in the future.

On Friday, November 3, Mr. Starr, a regent of the Oregon Normal paid us a welcome visit and incidentally enlightened the student body on some of the laws which were on the ballot.

Miss Dinins, our third and fourth grade critic, gave an unusual chapel talk in the form of a Riley program by the pupils of her room. Each budding orator, reader and musician was heartily applauded by the students, for it was a treat all enjoyed.

On November 4 the junior girls were entertained at tea in the dormitory parlors. This tea added another to the list of successful affairs that have been held in the dormitory under the management of that able hostess, Miss Todd, dean of women.

President Ackerman, who has been giving lectures at institutes in eastern Oregon counties, has returned to Monmouth.

One has only to note the added spirit and enthusiasm awakened in the student body when the chair in chapel which has been vacant for a time is again filled to realize how great is the influence of the man who leads in the normal. Under his guidance our school is forging ahead in all activities.

Misses West, Kennon and Butler of the Normal faculty were entertained in Eugene on "Homecoming" day by Miss Fox, dean of women at the university.

Honor Residents' Birthday.

Tuesday, November 7 is a red letter on the calendar of the Oregon Normal school. The person who said bouquets are thrown only at those who have left us would have to change his viewpoint immediately had he visited our school on that day. For, during the regular chapel period 420 students, in song and speech, showed their appreciation and love of the man at the head of our school. The alert, happy faces turned toward the president's chair and the enthusiasm and good feeling which suffused the atmosphere evidenced the heartfelt spirit which was the inspiration of this expression of honor for President Ackerman. A huge lighted cake was carried in at the close of this enjoyable hour by Mr. Ingram, president of the student body, who was attired in a chef's cap and apron.

This concluded the students' share in the festivities of the day and the annual faculty banquet was held in the evening in the domestic science department of the training school. There the excellent dinner and the witty speeches brought about a fitting close to one of the brightest days the Normal has had this year.
