Society Lucas-Hicok Nuptials. One of the largest and most elaborate weddings of the season was solemnized yesterday afternoon at five o'clock when Miss Elva Lucas was united in marriage to Irving DeWitt Hicok of Colusa, California. The wedding took place at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. D. A. MacKenzie officiating, with the Episcopal ring ceremony. The bridal party was preceded by dainty little Margaret Staats and Paul Bollman as flower children who carried bouquets of roses and bows of tulle. Mrs. Ethel Lucas Stowe, sister of the bride, was matron of honor; Misses Cleo White of McMinville, Genevieve Frazier of Salem, Jessamy Roberts of Portland and Ruth Storrs of Pomona, California were charming bridesmaids. The bridal party was met at the altar by the groom, Irving DeWitt Hicok, and Wilber L. Rogers of Great Falls, Montana, the best man. Miss Dorothy Bennett played the wedding march from Mendelssohn and Miss Ruby Ann Lorence of Monmouth sang Cadman's "At Dawning." The altar was decorated with a background of evergreens, ferns and palms and dainty pink primroses were twined in festoons from the altar. Bows of pink tulle and ivy shaded the lights and garlands of green formed a pergola from the ceiling. The bride, who is a charming girl, wore a gown of ivory satin, combined with silver lace, cut entrain. A cloud-like tulle veil, edged with real lace and wreathed with baby white hyacinths, enveloped her. She carried a colonial bouquet of beautiful pink roses and baby hyacinths. Mrs. Ethel Lucas Stowe, matron of honor, was attired in gold colored charmeuse, trimmed with lace and cut entrain. A gold tulle hat was worn. The bridesmaids were striking brunettes and were gowned in billowy pink tulle and wore picture hats of tulle. They carried shower bouquets of pink carnations and lilies, tied with tulle. The ushers were Wally Caldwell of Pomona, California, Dick Johnson of Corvallis, John Wilson of Corvallis and James Marr of Salem. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the bridal party and immediate friends of the bride. The guests at the supper were Misses Maude Barnes, Hallie Smith, Muriel Grant, Helen Loughary, Gladys Loughary, Marjorie Bennett, Pauline Coad and Helen Casey. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lucas of this city. She is a member of the Delta Mu sorority at Corvallis and was very popular among the students at O. A. C. Irving DeWitt Hicok is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicok of Colusa, California. He is engaged in the grain brokerage business at that place with his father. After a honeymoon trip to various southern California points the young couple will make their home in Colusa. They were recipients of a splendid array of wedding gifts from their many friends. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Misses Marie Francis Knight and Alice Crewson of Portland, Bertha McHenry and Mary Rogers of Corvallis, Ethel Frazier, Freda Spitzbart, Vivian Hargrove and Irene Curtis of Salem, Edna Connor of Sheridan, Isabelle Storrs of Pomona, California, Ira Mix of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicok of Colusa, Calif. Yaaka Hula Stepping Party. Foremost among the winters' social events was the New Year's dance given by the Yaaka Hula club Saturday evening at the Woodman hall. The club dances are proving to be the most notable functions of the winter gaieties to members of the younger set who are devotees of dancing. It was in a typical Christmas setting that the merry throng revelled Saturday. The ball room was transferred into veritable bowers of green, quantities of evergreen making an appropriate and effective setting for the gaily attired dancers. The walls were banked with a profusion of evergreens, and ferns, and studded against their background were myriads of vari-colored Christmas lights. The club members participating were: Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Tooze, Jr., Misses Margaret Husser, Thelma Smith, Ruth Campbell, Maude Barnes, Hallie Smith, Helen Loughary, Muriel Grant, Leone Williams, Gladys Loughary, Lucile Hamilton, Marie Griffin, Helen Poling, Emma Bebec, Marjorie Bennett, Bob McCallon, Nina Farley, Messrs. Newman Dennis, Forrest Martin, Edward Preston, Laird Woods, Fred Goeb, Edward Cutler, Floyd Ellis, Carl B. Fenton, Earl Cutler, Clifford Helzerson, J. N. Helgerson, Ray Scott, Walter Muir, Chauncey Hayes, Irving Baldersee, Willis McDaniel. The out-of-town guests were: Misses Mary Rogers, Corvallis, Ora Fenton, Independence, Delilah McDaniel, of U. of O. Tina Roberts, Monmouth, Edith Johnson of Falls City, Messrs. Wilber Rogers, Great Falls, Montana, Frank Wilson, Eugene and Max Flannery, Perrydale. Amusement Club Meets. Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Staats entertained the members of the Amusement club with a watch-party at their home on Main street last night. The rooms were adorned in mistletoe and holly. The evening was spent in games and music, after which a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The members of the club and their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Loughary, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woods, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Yoakum, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Uglow, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Simonton, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mr. and Mrs. Otho Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crowther, Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Staats and Mrs. Ella J. Metzger. Stepping Party Enjoyed. The members of the Young People's Dancing club gave an informal dancing party at the Woodman hall on Thursday evening. Enjoyable music was furnished by Miss Helen Poling and Harold Poling. Among those present were: Misses Mildred Shaw, Velve Beebe, Winona Rice, Lucile Loughary, Pearl Jost, Claudia Plank, Rachel Holloway, Maude Barnes, Hallie Smith, Muriel Grant, Helen Loughary, Gladys Loughary, Pauline Coad, Pearl Smith, and Eulala Butler of Portland; Messrs. Lawrence Smith, John Farley, Victor Williams, Ernest McCallon, Jack Richardson, Ray Smith, Grant Burford, Donald Hayes, George Smith, Edward Cutler, Edward Preston, Irving Baldersee, Chauncey Hayes, Walter Craven, Elwin Craven, and Wilbert Hamilton. The chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jost, Mrs. Edith Plank and Oscar Chenoweth. Mrs. L. J. Clements Hostess. Mrs. L. J. Clements proved herself a delightful hostess Friday evening when she entertained the members of the Textile club at her home on Levens street. The rooms were decorated in Christmas decorations of holly and mistletoe. The evening was spent in fancy work, after which a delicious luncheon was served. The members of the club present were: Mesdames E. V. Dayton, Ida Manston, Herman Lahyer, Ross Ellis, H. H. Dunkelberger, N. L. Guy, Dodge Bicknell, G. L. Hawkins, W. G. Kearth and D. E. Clements of Portland, Misses Flora McCallon, Nora Robertson, Bob McCallon, Maude Robertson, Elsie Brown and Fannie Dempsey. Miss Baldersee Entertains. Miss Echo Baldersee delightfully entertained with a Taffey-pull last Thursday evening at her home on Main street. The rooms were tastefully decorated in mistletoe and holly. Games and music were the main diversion of the evening. The invited guests were: Misses Myrtle Hayes, Thelma Smith, Marjorie Bennett, Beth Wilson, Gertrude Wilson and Echo Baldersee; Messrs. Irving Baldersee, Grant Baldersee, Russell Inman, Stuart Bennett, Elmo Bennett, and Harris Ellsworth. Cards and Dancing Enjoyed. Miss Helen Poling delightfully entertained Thursday evening with a card party, at her home on Oak street. "500" was the main diversion of the evening. The fore part of the evening was spent in dancing at the Woodman hall. At a late hour a delightful luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Pauline Coad, Helen Loughary, Gladys Loughary and Helen Poling, Messrs. Edward Cutler, Irving Baldersee, Edward Preston and Harold Poling. New Books Now At Library. Miss Ednelle Collins has given two books on shorthand, "Beginners Letter Drill" and "Gregg's Shorthand" to the Dallas library and D. E. Hewitt, Robert Herrick's "Together," Bartlett's "Familiar Quotations" and Werner's "Readings and Recitations number 28—A Christmas Book," have been added to the library collection. Sends Greetings to Playmate. Seventy-four years ago in Scott county, Illinois, J. M. Campbell, then 10 years old, said goodbye to his playmate, W. L. Black, but through all the years they have not forgotten one another despite the fact that they have not met since they parted. Each Christmas they write. This year, in a quavering hand, Black, now 88, wrote, "I greet you, wishing you all the joys of the season." Mr. Campbell has responded. "I have never seen him since we left and I guess I'll never get back now," said Mr. Campbell Saturday. But the plastic childhood mind in both old men does not permit them to forget though more than the three score and ten years separate.

HOCKETT BROTHERS

TRY THIS ON YOUR HENS

Hang an electric lamp where it can be readily switched on and off.

Let it burn for a time after dusk and also in morning.

This will lengthen the poultry day, give the hen more exercise and speed up egg production.

It has increased egg production 40 per cent.

By the way, do you know that the best incubators are electrically heated?

With these there is no dirt, no smoke, no odor, the heat is automatically regulated to one-half one degree.

Electric incubation is the ideal method.

Yes, electric brooders are very successful.
