GYM IS READY FOR ACTION.

Association Needs Pep and More Members Says President.

The Dallas Gymnasium association will hold its second class tonight in the armory. President Kreason urges a strong turnout.

"What we need is some pep and some more members," said he. "We have spent about $100; lockers have been moved; a medicine ball bought and the handball court is ready. So far we have only 29 members. People who do inside work need exercise and especially the systematic and helpful sort that this gymnasium association offers."

Classes will be held each Monday and Friday night at seven o'clock in the armory. Now that everything is ready, the advantages will probably be utilized by more people. The association furnishes shower baths and towels to members.

MRS. L. M. OLIVER PASSES AWAY

Oregon Pioneer Was Mother of A. V. Oliver of Rieckreall.

Mrs. Mary Lea Oliver, widow of Joseph Oliver, a veteran of the civil war who died in 1902 at Walla Walla, Wash., passed away Wednesday at the home of her nephew, L. A. Woodruff, at Ridgefield, Washington, and with whom she was visiting.

Mrs. Oliver was a pioneer of the eastern Oregon country. She was born March 31, 1842, in Virginia and when a small child came west with her parents. She was married to Mr. Oliver in 1859. Her home since his death in 1902 has been in Portland, where she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Winston.

The survivors are two daughters, Mrs. E. May Barton of Minaw, Ore., and Mrs. Ethel Winston, Portland, Ore.; five sons, H. W. Oliver of California, C. R. Oliver of Roseburg, Ore., B. B. Oliver, Wallowa, Ore., F. M. Oliver, Tillamook, Ore., and A. V. Oliver, Rieckreall, Ore.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 p. m. in the East Portland Seventh Day Adventist church, with interment in the Lone Fir cemetery. The cause of death was paralysis.

SALEM GROCER WINS SUIT.

Jury Awards Richardson Amount of Bill Sold Milledge Bros.

Judge Belt ruled that Attorney Shields of Salem, who represented the plaintiff in the Richardson versus Milledge "action for money" case Thursday, had established an agency between Mr. Milledge, Sr., and his two boys, the defendants. He overruled Counsel Tooze, who had made a motion for "non-suit."

The seat of the action leading to the suit was Salem. Mr. Milledge was boarding his two boys and buying groceries from Richardson. The bill began to run up and reached $106.17. The boys claimed they were not liable since they had paid board to their father. The jury decided otherwise and Richardson recovered.

Junior Class Program.

One of the most enjoyable programs of the year was given by the junior class of Dallas high school, Thursday morning. The program opened with a selection, "America I Love You," by the high school orchestra, which is under the leadership of Ralph Howe. The Hi orchestra is composed of Miss Viola Ash, violinist; Ralph Howe, cornet; Elwin Craven, clarinet; Charles Hayter, drums; Ray Boydston, trombone and Miss Marjorie Holman, pianist. Following the orchestra a skit was given by the members of the junior class, entitled "An Old Sweetheart of Mine." Elmo Bennett cleverly acted the part of the "dreamer," who, after several years of flirtations is confronted with a letter signed "An Old Sweetheart." A lapse of memory takes him back to the days when he first met "Betty" (Miss Hazel Bursell), "Katie" (Echo Balderree), "Elizabeth" (Letha Blodgette), "Mildred" (Vernett Smith), "Clara" (Thelma Smith), "Helen" (Beatrice Springstien), "Theda" (Retta Wilson) and "Mary," the living sweetheart, (Miss Leta Woollesy). A class paper full of snappy jokes was read by Frank McCann. The junior trio, composed of Misses Helen Poling, Vernetta Smith and Leta Woollesy, sang a number of selections, which included Arrah Go On, and Down Honolulu Way. The program was concluded by a selection by the Hi orchestra.

Five Reasons!!

Why We Undersell Everybody

- No. 1 Buying Merchandise for 125 stores and paying Cash.
- No. 2 Buying direct from Manufacturers in place of small Wholesalers.
- No. 3 We do not deliver, this means a saving.
- No. 4 We have no credit accounts, therefore no loss on bad accounts.
- No. 5 We mark our merchandise as low as it can be sold on its arrival.

Quick sales and small profits make our everyday prices lower than others' sale prices. We have no accumulated Odds and Ends to get rid of. These are generally pretty dear bargains at the best. Glance over this list and compare prices, come in and compare quality.
