a turnout of something like one hundred stockholders at the first annual meeting of the Monmouth Co-operative creamery held in the Norm theatre last Saturday afternoon. In addition to the stockholders, State Dairy and Food Commissioner John D. Mickle was present as was also Professor Simpson of O. A.

C. Another visitor was Walter El-of Portland, representing the Northwestern Butter and Produce company of that city. One of the matters on which the stockholders acted Saturday was that of joining the Dairy Exchange in Portland, an organization of the rural creameries of the state for protective purposes in disposing of their product. This exchange is but newly organized and the action of the Monmouth creamery in accepting their selling services will go a long way to help make the exchange a going concern.

YOU notice a fine regard for appearance among the officers from Roundsmen to Captain—that's one reason they are so keen for W-B CUT Chewing.
The pass-word among these gentlemanly fellows is "If you won't take a little chew don't take any." No need to disfigure the face, when a nibble of rich tobacco gives more satisfaction than a wad of ordinary stuff—also less grinding and spitting. Take a tip from the officer on W-B.
