IMPERIAL OPENING PLEASURES.

Dancing Enjoyed by Many; Management Gets Vote of Appreciation

Everybody had a good time at the official opening of the Imperial hotel last night.

Following the table d'hote dinner which was served from six o'clock to eight, the tables were removed to the rear of the dining room and Pearl Smith and Ray Boydston furnished music for dancing. About 25 couples tripped the light fantastic until a late hour, being loathe to stop even for the delicious buffet luncheon prepared by Mrs. J. M. Murray, the hostess.

The comedy feature of the evening was the tag one-step started by Walter L. Tooze, Jr. His zealotness for the tag feature certainly started something; he had about four fellows dogging his footsteps the entire dance, never getting more than four or five steps with the same partner. Still believing that variety is the spice of life, he advocated a Germania, which met with more favor and incidentally more success for the aforementioned Mr. Tooze.

The guests entered into the spirit of the housewarming and did justice to the affair, encoring each dance repeatedly. As the guests were finishing their sandwiches and coffee, Walter Tooze assumed the chairmanship of the party and entertained a motion by Joseph Helgerson, one of the prominent young attorneys of the city. Mr. Helgerson moved that the guests show their sincere appreciation for the hospitality accorded them by Mr. and Mrs. Murray by a rising vote. Everyone arose.

EXPECT TO BEAT MULTNOMAH.

Dallas Basketball Team Leaves For Portland Tomorrow.

The Dallas basketball team and a few enthusiastic fans leave for Portland tomorrow, where the team will play the strong Multnomah Amateur Athletic club tonight tomorrow night.

Multnomah beat the local boys last year, but Dallas was not represented by its best combination and hopes to avenge the trimming this year.

Captain Carl Fenton expects victory. He has played against all the Multnomah men, especially the two stars, Dewey and Sharpe, during his basketball career at the University of Oregon, and doesn't think the clubmen can stop Dallas with their present lineup. The team is going at full speed, now. Woods, Boydston and Fenton form a scoring combination that is hard to beat and opposing forwards have found a deal of trouble in slipping away from the tail and alert guards, Shaw and Matheny. Chauncey Hayes and Manager Gooch complete the basketball troupe.

Both teams have agreed upon Homer Jamieson, former University of Oregon star, to referee the contest. Jamieson was an all-northwest forward in his playing days and is the best referee in the northwest. The two teams will play a return game in Dallas, February 17.

FREE MATINEE AT ORPHEUM.

Three-reel Feature Film Is Under Auspices of Schools.

Thomas Jefferson Morgan, P-J-G, a Paramount three-reel feature film, will be shown at the Orpheum theatre tomorrow afternoon under the auspices of the local schools. Superintendent Fred S. Crowley has arranged with Manager Smith of the local play house to show the educational film free of charge.

The film was produced by E. H. Griffith and tells the story of a boy's climb up the ladder of Success. The modern ways in which the Curtiss Publishing company help their young employees to self-realization and the good things of life are vividly portrayed in the story of Thomas Jefferson, P-J-G. The picture has been received enthusiastically at conventions of the Mothers' congress and Parent-Teacher associations, the American Bankers' association and the associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

All local people and especially the young are cordially invited to be the guests of the Orpheum and the schools.

Wednesday Coldest Day.

Local thermometers registered nine above zero Wednesday morning, the coldest day of the winter.

Society

Junior Class Entertains.

The Junior class of the Dallas high school gave a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Staats on Thursday evening. The party was one of the most enjoyable ones of the season. The dining room was decorated in the junior class colors, crimson and cream. Games and music were the main diversions of the evening. Misses Leta Woolsey and Bess C. Owens sang a number of pleasing solos. Misses Helen Poling and Hazel Bursell played a number of instrumental selections. Miss Gladys Cartwright played the ukulele accompaniment. Late in the evening a delicious luncheon was served, the class colors being carried out throughout the course. The members of the junior class present were: Misses Helen Poling, Nell Southworth, Gladys Cutler, Retta Wilson, Leta Woolsey, Avadna Smith, Ella Kroeger, Thelma Smith, Echo Baldersee, Elsie Forrette, Martha Voth, Mattie Crook, Pauline Rieckli, Hazel Bursell, Helen Fletcher, Messrs. #### Basket Social To Be Held.

A basket social will be given by the Artisan lodge on Wednesday evening, February 7. The gentlemen will furnish and make the baskets and the ladies will bid and buy them. Much amusement and enjoyment is anticipated. Dancing will be enjoyed.

George Smith Honored.

On Tuesday evening George Smith, who is leaving with his parents for Salem, was honored with a coasting party, which was given by a number of his younger friends, on the hill south of town. About thirty young people reveled in the coasting. Among those present were: Misses Jamis Farmer, Mildred Shaw, Claudia Plank, Rachael Holloway, Mattie Morris, Belva Beebe, Winona Rice, Lucile Loughary, and Pearl Jost, and the Messrs. Jack Halsey, Grant Burford, Merritt Hart, Victor Williams, George Smith, and Ray Smith.

Dennett-Sherwood Nuptials.

Miss Ruth L. Dennett of Crowley and George W. Sherwood of Rickreall were united in marriage by Circuit Judge Belt, Tuesday noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew A. Cates, in the Gail Hotel. Miss Dennett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dennett, prominent farmers residing in Crowley. Mr. Sherwood is the son of L. C. Sherwood, deputy warden at the state penitentiary, in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood will reside on their farm at Rickreall. The wedding dinner was served at the Gail immediately following the ceremony.

Will Talk to Woman's Club.

Mrs. Taylor, physical director of Monmouth normal, will speak to the ladies of the Women's club, Tuesday afternoon, at the Dallas library. Mrs. Taylor's subject will be "Parks and Play Grounds."

SHOULD THERE BE DIVORCE.

"The Piper's Price" Is Bluebird Attraction at Orpheum Tomorrow.

For the evil we do we must pay, right here on earth, is another way of saying that we cannot escape our just deserts. This is proven through convincing dramatic construction in the Bluebird photoplay, "The Piper's Price," to be the attraction at the Orpheum theatre on Saturday night with beautiful and talented Dorothy Phillips playing the leading role. The divorce question is exploited in this Bluebird, demonstrating that if divorce there must be it were far better to let well enough alone. In "The Piper's Price" the man and woman who were divorced did not do this, and the result was untold misery for the faithful wife who was effected by the folly of one man who was not brave enough to abide by his own decision. Four principals and two housemaid characters are shown upon the screen in "The Piper's Price," but this small cast proves by the force and character of their artistry that numbers are not necessary to the portrayal of an interesting story when the characters are skillfully played and combined in effective delineations.
