OAK DALE

There was a musical social at the Dennis home Sunday afternoon. Miss Maude Miller played a good many fine piano selections. Miss Vera Miller and Miss Georgie Curtiss sang a number of vocal selections in a very pleasing manner. Mrs. Klopfenstein, John and Will Dennis and Mr. and Mrs.

George Robinson also helped with the music. It was arranged to have another social gathering like the one last Sunday at the home of Mr.

own cooking for any length of time.

Monday morning they decided they would have paneakes for breakfast. They mixed up the dough putting in two teaspoonfuls of baking powder

(?). When the pancakes were frying they began to smell sulphur good and strong. They hunted all over the house and finally noticed that the paneakes were a sickly yellow and
