

TERSE TALES OF TOWN

LOCAL NEWS OF DALLAS AND THIS NEIGHBORHOOD.

Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to People and Their Movements, Cleaned by Observer.

Mrs. W. H. Robb spent Saturday and Sunday with her niece, Mrs. R. C. Staats, at Independence.

Dillard Elkins, deputy sheriff of Lane county, and a former Dallas boy, visited here Friday. Mr. Elkins brought a prisoner to Salem for the penitentiary and took the opportunity to renew old friendships in Dallas.

Edward J. Himes, city engineer of Monmouth, left today for the neighboring city, where he will attend the council meeting tonight.

Miss Gladys Loughary left Sunday for Portland, where she will enter business college. While in Portland she will stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baird of Pennsylvania are visiting at the H. E. Muscott home.

Mrs. Gladys Williams of Carlton is visiting the Misses Esther and Edith Anderson at the Hotel Gail.

Fred Gooch and C. P. Helgerson registered at the Hotel Gail Friday night.

L. L. Horsfall of Salem was in Dallas Friday.

Miss Edith Anderson has been visiting friends in Arlington for several days.

H. C. Kurtz of Perrydale registered at the Hotel Gail Friday.

Mrs. R. L. Baker of Amity spent Friday in the city.

Supreme Judge George H. Burnett visited over the week-end with Judge and Mrs. Harry H. Belt.

Mrs. E. W. Staats, H. S. Portwood and Oscar A. Haines of Monmouth spent Friday in Dallas. Mr. Haines, who has been a resident of Curry county for some time, intends to make his home in Alaska in the near future.

A. H. Dennett of Crowley was in Dallas Saturday and favored the Observer office with some of his original philosophy.

Willis McDaniel of Rieckrell spent the week-end in Dallas attending sundry social functions.

J. R. Thompson of Albany transacted business in Dallas Saturday.

Willie Staats of Airie was in the city Saturday visiting with friends and relatives.

Oscar Smith of Bridgeport was in the city Saturday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Yoakum.

Mrs. O. M. Gardner visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shaw and at the home of Rev. G. M. Brown last week. Mrs. Gardner returned to her home in Lake View, Oregon, the latter part of the week.

Oscar Hayter went to McMinnville Sunday morning. Mr. Hayter will appear for the defense in the Branson murder case.

Mrs. Roy Pitzer was removed from the hospital Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Manly Bevens was released Saturday from the Dallas hospital and was removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. A. N. Newbill.

Ross Nelson and Mike Walker, two prominent business men of Independence, were in Dallas on business Friday.

Forrest Martin attended a dance in Salem Thursday night of last week.

Charles and William Malone of Portland are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Watt, here. The young men are brothers of Mrs. Watt.

Carl Morrison, a teacher at Perrydale, was in Dallas Saturday.

Laird Woods visited in Salem Thursday night after the Willamette basketball game, returning Friday morning.

Miss Frankie Crider, who is attending the Sacred Heart Academy in Salem, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Crider.

Mrs. Charles Gregory visited with her parents in Willamina over Sunday.

Fred Stinnett spent the week-end with friends in Portland.

Miss Jennie Morris and Miss Velma Ray were in Salem Saturday.

Lenord Frink of Falls City was in town over Saturday.

W. I. Reynolds, who is teaching school in Rieckrell, spent Sunday with his family here.

Mrs. R. G. Dykstra, who recently underwent an operation at the Salem sanitarium for appendicitis, returned to her home in Independence last Friday.

Robert S. Fisher, who has been in Burke, Idaho, for the past six months, will return to Dallas this week.

Fred West and son Dan were in Salem Sunday.

J. W. Tallman of Salem transacted business here during the latter part of last week.

Miss Flora Noyes of Monmouth spent Friday in Dallas.

George Roberts, Charles H. C. Wakeling and L. Wulferdingen, representatives of the Oregon Art company are registered at the Imperial hotel. They expect to be in Dallas for several weeks, introducing their new art productions. Mr. Roberts, who has had many years' experience as a dancing instructor in Denver and the east, intends to conduct a dancing school here during his stay.

Floyd D. Miller of Salt Creek registered at the Imperial hotel Saturday.

Ben Werner was in Salem Sunday visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Grant spent Sunday in Salem visiting with friends.

Dave Riley was a Salem visitor Sunday.

Mrs. R. Owens of Portland spent the week-end with her daughter, Miss Bess Owens, in this city.

Dr. B. H. McCallon, chairman of the school board, gave an interesting talk to the students of Dallas high school Monday morning at assembly. The subject of his talk was "Student Efficiency."

F. E. Kersey went to Portland on business yesterday.

Earl Cutler and Ted Berg were in Falls City Saturday evening visiting with friends.

Roy Martin of Independence registered at the Imperial hotel during the week-end.

Ted Berg, who has for the past seven months been working in the Sheridan sawmill, has returned to his home in this city.

Miss Cora Rossiter has resumed her teaching at the Dallas public school, after an illness of several weeks.

Fred Boydston, who has been working at Timber, is in the city visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Boydston.

Herman Petre of Airie was in the city Thursday transacting business.

Judge Harry H. Belt and Miss Blanche Barrett left yesterday morning for McMinnville, where the retrial of the Branson murder case is being held.

Robert Kreson spent Saturday and Sunday in Salem, visiting.

Dr. R. C. Virgil attended the meeting of the osteopaths of the Willamette valley in Albany Saturday night.

Mrs. Hubert Goode of Portland is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rich this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Craven spent Sunday in Sheridan with W. Tyler Smith, Mrs. Craven's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gibson and family will leave the latter part of the week for Portland, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Smith were in the city Sunday visiting at the home of Mrs. Ruben Morris. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were enroute to McMinnville from their home in Marshfield.

Elmer Lewis was transacting business in the city yesterday.

A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stiles who reside two miles west of the city.

Mrs. W. F. Kurtz of Perrydale underwent an operation for appendicitis Saturday at the Dallas hospital.

Dr. L. A. Bollman, assisted by Dr. Staats, performed the operation.

Miss Nola Coad and Miss Alice Grant were in Salem Saturday afternoon on business.

Mrs. W. R. Hampden of St. Paul, Mo., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Griffin. Mrs. Hampden is a sister of Mrs. Griffin.

Miss Helen Baird returned to Portland Sunday after spending the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nellie Baird. Miss Baird is taking a business course in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goode and son of Salem visited over Sunday at the home of Mrs. Goode's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison.

Mrs. Hugh Black, who has been quite seriously ill for the past month, was removed to the Dallas hospital where she underwent an operation yesterday. Dr. Staats, assisted by Dr. Smith, specialist of Portland, performed the operation. Mrs. Black was resting easily this morning and her rapid recovery is hoped for by many Dallas friends.

R. S. Snyder of Albany arrived yesterday to assume his duties as bookkeeper at the local office of the Oregon Power company. Mr. Snyder has been connected with the company for a number of years and before going to Albany was employed in the Dallas office.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Muscott returned Sunday evening from Greene, Iowa, where they have been visiting with relatives for the past three months. They report the Iowa winter as a very cold one and while they enjoyed their visit very much, were glad to get back to the mild weather here.

Alfred Seufert, four-year-old son of Carl Seufert of Airie, was operated upon Sunday at the Dallas hospital for appendicitis. Dr. Bollman, assisted by Dr. Staats, performed the operation.

Lenord Starr of Portland was in the city yesterday on business.

Miss Beatrice Springstein is visiting with friends and relatives in Portland this week.

Miss Helen Poling visited in Salem Sunday and attended the Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening.

Society

Pretty Colonial Party At Church.

Foremost among the church socials last week was the Colonial party given at the Christian church on Thursday evening by the ladies of the church. The reception hall was prettily decorated with flags and bunting and small red hatchets were displayed about the rooms. A picture of George Washington was in evidence and honor was paid to him upon his birthday. During the evening a splendid program was given consisting of solos, instrumental music and clever readings. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served by "made-up" negro waiters, as was characteristic of the Colonial period. The following were in costumes: Mrs. Henry Campbell, "Martha Washington"; Mrs. Charles Lane, Mrs. Howard McConnell and Mrs. Frank Brown were "Colonial Belles"; Mrs. Eugene Hayter, Mrs. McCann and Mrs. Samuel Gibson, "Old Fashioned Ladies"; Mrs. I. L. Smith, "old fashioned girl"; Miss Pearl Smith, "Pocahontas"; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ellis, "Country Belles and Beaux"; Sam Gibson, "George Washington"; Howard McConnell, "La Fayette"; and Frank Brown, "Ethan Allen."

Hop Club Has Party.

The Hop club delightfully entertained with a dancing party at the Woodman hall on Friday evening. The members of the Yaaka Hula club were invited guests. Dancing was enjoyed from 8:30 to 11:30. Music was furnished by Miss Pearl Smith and Ray Boydston. Among those who enjoyed the dance were: Misses Pearl Jost, Rachel Holloway, Claudia Plank, Georgia Spere, Lucile Loughary, Winona Rice, Marjorie Holman, Muriel Grant, Maud Barnes, Helen Loughary, Gladys Loughary, Nina Farley, Georgia Shaw and Gertrude Robinson and Messrs. Lawrence Smith, Victor Williams, John Farley, John Richardson, Ray Smith, Charles Hayter, Edwin Craven, Walter Craven, Ray Ghorke, Carvel Campbell, Irving Baldersee, Herman Hawkins, Fred Gooch, Earl Cutler, Clifford Helgerson, Joe Helgerson, Ted Berg and Willis McDaniel.

Yaaka Hula Dancing Club Meets.

A number of young people made merry at an informal dancing party given at the Woodman hall, Saturday evening given by the Yaaka Hula club. The dancers revelled until a late hour. Music was furnished by Rice and Williams. Among the members present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Toole, Jr., Misses Nina Farley, Marjorie Holman, Marie Griffin, Gladys Loughary, Emma Skelton, Dora Elkins, Elma Harris, Georgia Shaw, Gertrude Robinson, Maud Barnes, Hallie Smith, Muriel Grant, Helen Loughary, Pauline Coad and Isabelle Alvord, Messrs. Clifford Helgerson, Fred Gooch, Harry Kuck, Laird Woods, Willis McDaniel, Frank McCann, Newman Dennis, Forrest Martin, Ernest McCallon, Irving Baldersee, Jack Halsey, Herman Hawkins.

Joe Malone, J. N. Helgerson, Walter Ballantyne and George Roberts.

Cards and Sewing Enjoyed.

Mrs. Herman Layher and Mrs. Ida Manston were charming hostesses Thursday evening when they entertained the members and guests of the Textile club at the home of Mrs. Manston on South Main street. The spacious rooms were artistically decorated in flags and ferns. Miss Pearl Uglow delightfully entertained at the piano. Cards and sewing were the main diversions of the evening after which a delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses. Those bidden were: Mrs. Pauline Aulen, Mrs. Ross Ellis, Mrs. H. H. Dunkelberger, Mrs. N. L. Guy, Misses Pearl Uglow, Flora McCallon, Nora Robertson, Roberta McCallon, Maud Robertson, Effie Brown, Blanche Barrett and Miss Wilkes of Corvallis.

Mrs. C. L. Crider Entertains.

The Klose Tillieum club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. C. L. Crider at her home on Academy street, Thursday. The rooms were decorated in baskets of pussy willows. The dining room was converted into a Hawaiian scene, with clever Kewpies dressed in Hawaiian costumes, wearing the provincial love wreaths. Each member received a handsome piece of crochet, which was brought from the islands by Mrs. Crider. A delicious two-course luncheon was served. The members of the club present were: Mrs. Harry Belt, Mrs. E. K. Piasecki, Mrs. L. D. Brown, Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, Mrs. H. H. Volheim, Mrs. S. B. Taylor, Mrs. A. B. Robinson and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg.

Mrs. L. W. Horn Entertains.

Mrs. L. W. Horn proved herself a delightful hostess Thursday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the Sew and So club at her home on Hayter street. The rooms were decorated in hatchets and dainty place cards were displayed at the luncheon table, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion. Mrs. C. L. Foster assisted the hostess in serving. The members of the club present were: Mesdames Maurice Dalton, Harry Viers, Harold Rich, Carl Williams, Lief Finseth, C. L. Foster, Simon Grindheim, O. I. Chenoweth and the hostess.

Friends' Club Entertained.

Mrs. Martha Cosper entertained the members of the Friends' club at her home on Jefferson street Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was delightfully spent in sewing, after which dainty refreshments were served. The members of the club present were: Mrs. Alice Dempsey, Mrs. P. Riggs, Mrs. Hardy Holman, Mrs. B. Lovelace, Mrs. B. A. Grant, Mrs. D. O. Bronson, Mrs. Hulda Savery, Mrs. George Cutler and Mrs. Martha Cosper.

Little Maids' Sewing Club Meets.

The Little Maids' Sewing club met with Dorothy Broughton at the home of W. B. Austin on Church street. After a short business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and crispetts were served. The members present were: Helen Soehers, Virginia Ellis, Mildred Berg, Caroline Ellis, Senn

Morrison, Almeda Broughton and Dorothy Broughton.

Mrs. Fred Wagner Hostess.

Mrs. Fred Wagner entertained a number of relatives on Friday afternoon and evening in honor of her brother, Mr. I. W. Elliott, who left for his Canadian home Saturday morning, after spending several weeks in Dallas. Mr. Elliott resides in Unity, Saskatchewan.

Gave Lecture at Rieckrell.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck gave a lecture on "Individual Preparedness" at the Dixie school in Rieckrell last Friday night. The lecture was the principal feature of the second of a series of monthly entertainments being given under Principal W. I. Reynolds for a school benefit fund. John W. Orr and Miss Edna Morrison of two solos and pleased with a duet.

Mrs. A. B. Starbuck meeting of the Music Woman's club, to be held of Mrs. Gilbert G. Morrison Wednesday.

YOURSELF AND
Are Cordially Invited
Attend the Regular

MONTHLY DANCE AND DANCE at the
IMPERIAL HOTEL
TONIGHT

Dinner from 6:00 to 8:00
Dancing from 8:00 to 11:00

Please Phone Table
Fifty Cents a Place

A GOOD TIME
TO BUY LUMBER
2x12's, 1x12's
AND OTHER SIZES
$5 PER M
AT WILLAMETTE VALLEY
LUMBER CO.'S YARDS

ORPHEUM PROGRAM

showing
Paramount Pictures
The Standard of Quality in Photoplay

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Myrtle Stedman in "The Happiness of Three Women"

Black Diamond Comedy, "Their Week End"

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Dorothy Gish in "Gretchen the Greenhorn"

Keystone Comedy, "A Lover's Might"

SATURDAY ONLY

Bessie Barriscale in "The Payment"

Keystone Comedy, "Skirts"

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Blanche Sweet in "The Evil Eye"

Bray Cartoon Comedy

REGULAR PRICES

Myrtle Stedman
in
Paramount Pictures
Produced by Oliver Morosco Photoplay Co.

"The Happiness of Three Women"

A Fascinating Society Drama
AT ORPHEUM TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY
February 27, 28
Also Black Diamond Comedy, "Their Week End"

Paramount Pictures