Trespass notices, printed on cloth, for sale at this office.

Wheat will be taken on subscription at this office. We will allow $5 per bushel for good clean wheat.

A. E. Winiger & Co., have a lot of good second hand sewing machines, taken in exchange for the White, that they will sell cheap.

Lots of improvement is being made in Monmouth this fall. When we get the briars cut and some new sidewalk laid the change will be very noticeable.

Don't think those wedding bells are done ringing up this way. There's too much court-ing by telephone in this neck of the woods to be done just for the fun of the thing.—Sodaville corres. in Lebanon Express.
