"itor in town Monday." James Holt, formerly of this place, was drowned near Oak Harbor, Washington, recently.

P. O. Powell will represent the Mt. Tabor nurseries in this vicini y and states that he can save the people money on their orders for fruit trees.

Crosby Dalton was over from Independence attending the lecture at the Assembly Hall, entitled "How, When and Whom to Love." Judging from the expression on his countenance during the lecture one would naturally infer that he believed he knew already.

Tuesday morning opened up as fine as a day in May. If we could transport some of the people from the inter-mountain states out here on such a day at this time of the year, we would have no trouble in populating this country with a family on every twenty acre tract in the county.

Miss Catherine Campbell who is teaching the Cochrane school three miles north of here is becoming quite a pedestrian as she walks the distance morning and Morning Service at evening and says she enjoys it very much. Now say that Eng. Y. P. S. C. E. lish women can beat American Prayer Meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m. wemen in the art of walking.

If we receive encouragement enough the Herald will get out a special edition of 1000 copies in time to send east before the colonist rates take effect in the spring. We are getting views together and will have something nice to show of Monmouth and Farm Lands, Houses and Lots surrounding country. If you are interested in getting immigration to this part of the state come in and talk it over with us and give us an order for a few extra copies.

Dr. George Gilbert Bancroft, assisted by D. Lillian Lewis (Bancroft) gave a very entertaining lecture at the Normal Assembly Hall Thursday night of last week. He handled his subject nicely and told the people some potent truths, which if followed would make the world much happier. He suggested putting an occupation tax of $75 per year on all Our New Brick old bachelors, but said that he admired old maids. He said a couple he advised to get married over in Coos county, named their first child George Gilbert Bancraft Rogers. At last accounts it was still living.

F. A. Koser, of Rickreall, proprietor of Meadow Lane Farm, writes us that he has finished threshing his clover seed and that he obtained from one tract of 15 acres 79 bushels and 20 pounds, and from another of 40 acres 248 bushels and five pounds, or 19,645 pounds from the entire 55 acres. While this is a profitable yield at the price offered, from $8 to $8.50 per bushel for firstclass seed, yet the yield is only a little more Cor. Knox and Jackson Sts.

than two-thirds as large as usual.—Oregon Agriculturist.
