

Local and Personal.

L. S. Fuller was in town Monday.

Oliver Chase, of Salem, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Edith Wolverton spent Sunday in Independence with friends.

A party of our young ladies went to Independence Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Henson attended the skating party in Dallas Tuesday night.

Mrs. Wm. McCready returned to her home in McMinnville the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grigsby are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Martin this week.

Jesse Simpson, of Albany, was down for an over Sunday visit with the home folks.

Vocal Recital Tuesday night, November 10, in the Normal Assembly Hall at 8:15 o'clock.

Rev. Chase preached at the Baptist church Sunday and may hold a series of meetings here.

The members of the senior class had a jollification Tuesday night and certainly enjoyed themselves.

Coy Boyd has returned to his home in Idaho, while his brother Walter has entered school at the Normal.

Peter Kurre was in from his fine farm between here and Independence Tuesday. The Herald will visit him for 52 times.

Mr. Chaney, who bought the Wheelock place is having the house worked over and otherwise improving his beautiful home

Otto F. L. Herse, the great tenor, will be assisted in his concert in the Normal Assembly Hall Tuesday night by Frank A. White, pianist.

Mrs. Williamson, of Spokane, was visiting here last week with her sister, Mrs. S. R. Smith, she will also visit with a niece in Portland before returning home.

Mrs. Rodney Coulter, of Baker City, formerly Miss Fern Butler of this place writes that although the weather is quite crisp there it is beautiful for his time of the year.

Mrs. John Riggs, of Salem, visited in town the last of last week taking with her on her return home, her mother Mrs. Surilda Percival who has gone to make her home with her.

H. W. Strong, of Portland, was visiting over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Strong. He has been in Morrow county for the past couple of weeks looking after business matters.

Manager Martin, of the Lucklumute sawmill, shut down the mill for a couple of days while he went to Dallas to vote for Taft. He was accompanied by Mrs. Martin and they visited with friends at the county seat.

A masked Hallowe'en party was given at the home of Miss Mary Hansen last Saturday night. The rooms were gay with Jack o'lanterns made to represent certain people and a jolly time was enjoyed by all trying to guess the impersonation.

Phy Simpson was down from Airlie the first of the week visiting with R. M. Simpson and family and reports having cut a fir tree at his logging camp last week that measured seven feet in diameter and made 200 feet of logs. This would indicate a tree of close to 300 feet in length, which is an exceptionally fine tree for this part of the state.

Miss Hazel Lorence went to Independence Monday.

Mrs. J. V. B. Butler was a passenger to Independence Monday.

Miss Laura Mallory spent Saturday and Sunday with E. Bogert's family.

The Sophomores and the Freshmen are having war in the same old way.

E. W. Strong is having a fine modern fireplace installed in his residence.

Miss Ova Smith, who recently sustained a severe accident, is recovering.

President E. D. Ressler returned from his trip to McMinnville, Monday.

Mrs. V. F. Daniel is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mona Brown, in Dallas.

Mrs. Clarence Clodfelter visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Griffa last week.

Hear the celebrated tenor, Otto F. L. Herse, at Normal Assembly Hall Tuesday night, Nov. 10.

A party of our young people attended a masqued skating party in Dallas Tuesday night.

Miss Mattie Strong returned to Portland Monday after a two weeks visit here with her parents.

Mrs. Wm. Riddle, Jr., and baby visited with Mrs. Wm. Metzler, near Rickreall Tuesday afternoon.

At the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Monday night there will be nomination of officers and work in the first degree.

Mr. Isman, of Grants Pass, passed through town Thursday enroute to Portland where he will make his future home.

John Scott is removing the autumn leaves and other debris from the college grounds and putting them in shipshape for the winter.

There was quite a crowd in town Tuesday night awaiting the election returns and the streets were thronged with people until a late hour.

Victor Reynolds, who has been clerk in a hotel at North Yamhill, visited friends here the last of the week enroute to Portland where a position as clerk awaits him.

The vocal recital to be given in the Normal Assembly Hall next Tuesday night by the great tenor, Otto F. L. Herse, will include classical and popular English, German, Scotch and Irish songs.

Evangelist L. F. Stephens and wife will begin a series of meetings in the Christian church about Nov. 16. They have just returned from New Zealand where they have worked the past year as evangelists for the churches there and on their way home they visited Palestine and other Oriental points of interest.

It is reported that two of our prominent citizens have laid themselves liable to prosecution by burning a house. The house is said to have been a very valuable one and to have belonged to another prominent citizen who expects to recover heavy damages. We have not had time to investigate these reports, but hope they are untrue.

We have made arrangements with the Pacific Monthly whereby we are able to offer that excellent magazine and the Herald for less money than you can get it and any other paper in this county. We will club both papers for $1.75. You would have to pay $1.50 for the Monthly alone, thus you get the Herald for practically 25 cents. This offer will only last a short time. Dur-

Two Piece Suits

V. F. DANIEL

You Can Get a Two Piece Suit Tailored to Fit You Perfectly, for the price you would have to pay for a three piece ready made suit.

We have Over 500 Samples to Select From, and Guarantee to Please You. Come in and Let Us Prove What We Say.

W. W. Newman

General Blacksmithing and Wagon Repairing.

Horse Shoeing a Specialty

All work done with neatness and dispatch.

Cornwall's Old Stand

Normal Lodge, No. 264

Meets every Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

CHAS. NEWMAN, N. G.

JOSEPH RADEK, SEC.

ing this time we accept ballots in the voting contest, which has been postponed until Christmas on account of the small number of ballots being taken out.

J. D. Walton, of Fruitland, made a short visit with D. S. Martin's last week, being a former friend in Iowa. He is leaving this week for a visit at the old home in Iowa and among relatives in California and Missouri.

Harvey Sargent, of Corvallis, was in the city the first of the week visiting with E. W. Strong, who is an old time friend. Mr. Sargent worked in the Strong sawmill at Corvallis for seven years before Mr. Strong purchased it. He is the inventor of Sargent Gopher Gun and has appointed J. E. Winegar & Co. as agents for Monmouth and vicinity. He drove down from Corvallis in the afternoon and did not drive out of a walk. He has driven his horse 1800 miles this season and can get over $300 for him at any time. He will have an ad in the Herald. He manufactured and sold 1000 guns last year and is prepared to put out 2000 this season.

The Davidson Studio

Successor to C. C. Lewis

Artistic Photography

Firstclass Equipment in Every Department

Guaranteed Work at Right Prices

College Street

Monmouth

VOCAL RECITAL

Special Number in Citizens' Entertainment Course, to be Given Tuesday, Nov. 10

Otto F. L. Herse, a tenor singer who comes to Oregon for the first time, with excellent testimonials, will give the second number in the Citizens' Entertainment Course, next Tuesday night in the Normal Assembly Hall. He will give a song recital, consisting of English, German, Scotch and Irish selections both classical and popular, and will be assisted by FRANK A. WHITE, Pianist.

Reserved seats are now on sale at the Acorn Book Store at 35c for adults and 25c for children and students. Season ticket holders may secure reserved seats without additional cost. Concert begins at 8:15 o'clock.

T. A. RIGGS, Sole Agent.