

SUPPLEMENT

The Monmouth Herald

M. W. Jones and wife visited in Salem over Sunday.

C. Lorence is putting in cement walks around his farm residence.

A number of the farmers of this vicinity visited the demonstration train.

A. N. Poole has the contract for building D. M. Hewitt's new, modern six room cottage.

C. L. Starr, secretary of the State Board of Regents, was looking after business matters in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Roy Bullard and Miss Mattison, of Independence, were guests of Mrs. J. Graham the first of the week.

C. G. Griffa is having the old well in the south part of town deepened. The well drill having been at work there for a several days.

The Polk County Sunday School Convention will be held in the Christian church in Independence, Nov. 18 and 19. Space prevents giving the program in full.

Buena Vista.

The Nash Bros. launched their gasoline launch Sunday.

W. Bevens finished digging his crop of potatoes last week. He had about 2000 bushels.

Dr. Parish, of Monmouth, launched his new gasoline boat on the Luckiamute south of here this week.

Mr. Wilson, of Sacramento, Cal., was in town this week with a fine imported Percheron Stallion which he has for sale.

John Cushman, of Brownsville, who was enroute to Monmouth, stopped here over Sunday. He was the guest of A. J. Hall.

George Hall, of Gifford, Idaho, is visiting with his mother, Mrs. E. C. Hall of this place and expects soon to make an extended visit in California.

Mrs. Knighton and son, Roy, returned Monday evening from Vancouver, where they visited one of Mrs. Knighton's son's.

They also visited two of her daughters in Salem.

The school children went out in force Wednesday and raked the dead leaves off the school yard and burned them. This added a great deal to the looks of the grounds.

Mr. Dietz, accompanied by his son and family, is visiting here. The former is a brother of Grandma Harmon whom she has not seen for twenty-seven years. He will return to his home in Arkansas, while the son will reside here.

We have made arrangements with the Pacific Monthly whereby we are able to offer that excellent magazine and the Herald for less money than you can get it and any other paper in this county. We will club both papers for $1.75. You would have to pay $1.50 for the Monthly alone, thus you get the Herald for practically 25 cents. This offer will only last a short time. During this time we accept ballots in the voting contest, which has been postponed until Christmas on account of the small number of ballots being taken out.

Falls City.

L. B. Low made a business trip to Portland this week.

Mrs. Charles Hopkins, of Dallas, made a short visit to Falls City this week.

Miss Cecil Dodd is yet seriously ill at Corvallis where she went to attend school.

Mr. Severe, of Kansas, is visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. C. L. Barnhart.

Dr. Snook has decided to locate here permanently and went to Sheridan Monday for his family.

The Christian and M. E. Sunday schools elected delegates Sunday to attend the county convention which will be held in Independence Nov. 18-19.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give a southern dinner Nov. 18 for the benefit of the reading room. The dinner will be given in the reading room from 5 to 8 p. m.

Leonard Frink and Art Trask met with a serious accident while returning from a trip in the country. Their team ran away and threw them both out. Frink escaped with a few scratches while Trask had his leg broken.

Airlie Items.

Tom Allen of Kings Valley is clerking for Simpson Bros.

The carpenters finished A. Newbills' house the last of the week.

Our school commences next week with Miss Mallory as head teacher.

Quite a few from here attended the sale at A. Wing's last Saturday.

A. Newbill finished moving his household effects to his new home last Sunday.

Mrs. E. J. Lewis came up from Portland the first of the week to visit for a few days with her son A. R. Lewis.

Mrs. Dave Grant of Dallas visited her sister, Mrs. J. C. Turner the last of the week.

Joe Stevens returned Wednesday evening from a trip to Falls City and Black Rock. He reports everything prosperous up there.

A. R. Lewis' daughter Lillian, returned from Portland the first of the week, where she has been visiting her grandmother for the last two months.

Ed. Willis and family of Eastern Oregon spent Wednesday evening with Dave Simpson. They were on their way to Wells where they have rented a farm.

For Sale.

One of the nicest residences in Monmouth, 12 rooms, hot and cold water, bath and pantry. Furnace heat. Four lots, some fruit trees and shrubbery together with almost entire furnishings for $2500. Terms can be given on a part of this. Enquire of the Polk County Realty Co., at the Herald office.