Four lots inside the city limits of Monmouth, 63 and one-half by 165, or nearly an acre, all in young orchard. Price $200. We have other good buys. Polk County Realty Co., office at Herald office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Boots have returned from a protracted stay at Hot Lake and both are much improved in health. Mr. Boots is very enthusiastic over the curative properties of the water of the lake.

Nice cottage of five rooms and pantry with good woodshed. Well on porch. Prunes, apples, pears and small fruits together with one and eighty-seven one-hundredths acres of good land in Monmouth for $1000. For sale by Polk County Realty Co., at Herald office.

Following along the lines laid down by Standard Oil and other monopolistic corporations, the I. & M. Railway has doubled the fare on its line between here and Independence. This will have a tendency to cause some who have been in the habit of going to Independence regularly, to trade at home, thus making it more profitable to Monmouth than otherwise.

Taft carried Oregon by 25,000 and for that reason the Oregonian advocates the Statement No. 1 legislators should violate their pledge to the people. However it makes no mention of the fact that the bill providing that members of the legislature shall vote for the person receiving the highest number of votes in the June election, received a majority of 48,506, or nearly double the majority of Taft.

Needed No Tonic.

Wednesday morning we found on our desk a large bottle of some colored substance, labelled Election Tonic, no doubt left by some our republican friends. We have not taken any yet—the color was all right, but the smell did not suit us. In fact, we did not need a tonic, much as they may think so. We have ran democratic papers too long to be particularly cast down by a defeat. If we are not cut down by the scythe of the reaper, Time, four years from now will find us advocating the cause of the people.—Itemizer.

A Sure Test.

The schoolmaster put to his class the question: "Two jars of gas, one containing nitrogen and one carbon dioxide, are given. How may the gases be discriminated?"

One eager little pupil said: "Get a man, and let him take a deep breath of both. When he gets the carbon dioxide he'll die. That's the way to tell."

His Status.

"Is that ex-New Yorker who likes London so well a naturalized Englishman?" "No," answered Miss Cayenne, "merely a denatured American."

His Only Chance.

Mother (crossly)—Tommy, haven't I told you you must not talk when I am talking? Tommy—But, mamma, you won't let me stay up after you go to bed!—Sketch.

Mutual Dislike.

Brahms and Tschaiakowsky, the famous musicians, met but twice. On the last occasion Brahms was sufficiently interested in Tschaiakowsky's fifth symphony to travel expressly to Hamburg in order to make its acquaintance. After the performance the distinguished composers dined together, and the conscientious Brahms frankly admitted that he did not like the work at all, whereupon the usually meek Russian plucked up sufficient courage to inform his host that the dislike of each other's music was mutual. They parted on excellent terms nevertheless.

An Introduction.

"Long introductions when a man has a speech to make are a bore," said former Senator John C. Spooner. "I have had all kinds, but the most satisfactory one in my career was that of a German mayor of a small town in my state, Wisconsin. I was to make a political address, and the opera house was crowded. When it came time to begin the mayor got up. 'Mine friends,' he said, 'I haf asked been to introduce Senator Spooner, who is to make a speech, yes. Vell, I haf dit so, und he vill now do so.'"

Horsemen Attention.

We are prepared to print horse cards for less money than you can get the same quality of work done anywhere in the state. We print cards 14x21 for less than others print 12x18 and we print on good quality bristol board and not on cheap poster paper. If you want a cut made from photo of your horse we will have it done for less than you can get the work done. Get our prices.
