Crowley.

Miss Emma Pettit has returned to Monmouth.

Ex-commissioner Riggs is up from Portland on a business trip.

Mr. Frimere has moved from Jefferson to the Mrs. May Bowden-Babbitt place.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Crowley have returned home after a two weeks stay with Dr. Crowley in Monmouth, and Mrs. Craven in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Pewtherer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor. Mr. Pewtherer is thinking of going into the dairy business soon.

There was a skating party given at the rink Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ollie Pettit, of Monmouth, and Miss Edna Morrison, of Dallas. Every one had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer White, of eastern Oregon, are visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. White is running a large farm of 1600 acres. He has 450 acres more grain to put in in the spring and 700 acres of summerfallow to plow.

News reached here from Zena our joining district that Mr. — while on his way to pay a fashionable call a few evenings ago, was held up by a lone man and was forced to hand over his purse which contained $20. As soon as the robber dismissed him he hurried to the next house where he borrowed a gun, overtook the robber and made him give back the purse; then each went his way.

Monmouth Heights.

Edward Rogers rides in a new John Deere buggy.

Milt Bosley has three of his eastern friends visiting him this week.

Miss Amy Chaney, who has been away on a short visit, came home Sunday.

Ten cents admission was charged in Dallas last week to hear the roosters crow.

Misses Elda and Millie Clark spent Sunday with their sister Mrs. Bell Sullivan in Monmouth.

David Olin, of Riverside, has leased the Treanor place for five years and will soon move onto the same.

Mrs. Martha Addison spent the first of the week with Grandpa and Grandma Foster and Mrs. Callie Parker, of Monmouth.

Joe Houseman, wife and daughter, Myrtle and Verna, of the O. S. N. S. city' visited with R. M. Bosley and wife Sunday.

Herman Wunder and daughter Minnie, Miss Ida Duignan, A. J. Shipley, Amon and Lunda Pitzer, Ed Rogers, Jay and Roy Clark, Mr. Cannoy, and William Herren were tradere in Monmouth, Saturday.

Social Hour Club Meets.

The Social Hour Club met at Mrs. E. Butler's on December 16 and were entertained by mesdames Butler, Boche, Riggs and Dalton. There was a large attendance, almost all the members and several guests being present. The rooms were bright and gay as suited the occasion, the electric lights giving a very pretty effect to evergreen boughs and Christmas red used for decoration. Cards here and there on the wall with designs cleverly used to represent books kept the guests busy at guessing. Mrs. J. B. V. Butler won first prize, having guessed correctly all but three books.

Refreshments were then served and were much enjoyed by all, and the ladies took their leave,

At the Poultry Show

At the Dallas Poultry Show last week C. P. Cornwell was awarded a number of premiums. 1st on cock; 1st on cockerel; 1st and second on hen and 1st on pullet on Exhibition Games. 2nd on cock; 1st on cockerel, 1st and 2nd on hen, 2nd on pullet on Pitt Game. A. H. Harris' cup for best bird in show, non-weight; Northwest Poultry Journal's special for best particolored bird in show, non-weight variety.

C. C. Marks 1st on cockerel, Indian Run'er Ducks.

These were the only people from Monmouth exhibiting at the show. A much longer and better show is expected next year.

A St. Helens citizen, says a correspondent, led water going to waste by troughs to a vacant lot, and with a very little leveling down, now has a fine looking garden spot, where only rocks were in evidence before. Other owners with larger holdings are also building troughs and if the mud holds out, will soon be setting out walnut trees.

A Mayger carrot is 11 inches long and 18 and one-half inches in circumference.
