

Local and Personal.

Glen Work has recovered sufficiently from his burns to be out again.

Marshal Johnson has been a busy man the fore part of the week, looking after crosswalks and stray stock.

J. B. V. Butler went to Portland last week to attend the meetings of the Mystic Shriners, returning Sunday.

Harry E. Coleman, a former graduate of the Normal, came up from Portland to attend the funeral of Ira F. M. Butler.

Governor Chamberlain was elected United States senator Tuesday, receiving 53 votes. Fulton received 19 and Cake 17.

Miss Incy Baker, who has been absent from school since before the holidays, returned from her home at Forest Grove Wednesday.

Misses Clara Tinnerstett, Ida Goyne and Carrie Hathaway, who were held up at Dolph by the heavy snow, arrived here Monday.

T. J. Newbill, a graduate of the O. S. N. S., but who is now principal of the Woodlawn school, came up to attend the funeral Sunday.

W. E. Smith, a graduate of the Normal, now in the Behnke-Walker Business College was present at the funeral of the late Mr. Butler.

Mrs. Coleman feels very grateful to the many kind friends who rendered aid during the recovery of Glen Work from the effects of the Christmas fire.

G. M. Frost, a graduate of the Normal, now in the real estate business in Portland, came up from that city to attend the funeral of Mr. Butler.

J. E. Beezely came down from Falls City to attend the funeral Sunday. Mr. Beezely has recently been appointed postmaster of that thriving little city.

Last week our informant on the installation of the Rebekahs inadvertently omitted the chaplain, Mrs. C. E. Force, who was installed at the same time as the other officers.

C. H. Newman tore out the front of the late electric theater Tuesday and replaced the doors as they were before the room was fitted up for the moving picture business.

The children of the late Ira F. M. Butler desire the Herald to express their heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends for their aid and sympathy during the illness and death of their father.

D. M. Cummins was over from Independence Tuesday and paid this office a pleasant call. Mr. Cummins has located in Independence and will open a real estate office there. He was formerly located in Newberg.

Peter Kurre was in from his fruit farm at Talmage Wednesday and informed the Herald that the residents in that thrifty little settlement were installing electric lights in their dwellings.

We will wager a pair of our last years shoes that nowhere in the east and but few places in the west, where there was a foot of snow one week that there is now such nice green grass as we have here.

So far as we are able to learn, the recent cold snap did but little harm to the green feed for cows. Kale here in town seems to be uninjured and considerable small cabbage in the Herald garden is green and nice.

Miss Rose E. Smith, of Portland, visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith.

P. C. Elbert has been doing the towns of the county the past week in the interest of the Telegram.

Mrs. E. G. Noble, of Hepner, came in on last Tuesday's train to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith. She reports the weather in eastern Oregon as being very severe.

A. L. Chute took a span of horses to Vancouver last week during the cold snap and was 48 hours on the road, that is to say on the river and train. He went from Independence on the boat, but when he arrived in Portland he could go no farther by boat on account of the Columbia being full of ice, so he took a car and did not get out of Portland until midnight and had to lay in the yards at Vancouver until late next morning. The horses were pretty badly done up, but a few hours driving to a sleigh put them in fine condition again.

Two Cantatas by T. D.

On Saturday evening the pupils of the training department will present two interesting cantatas at the College Chapel. The first to be given is entitled "Peggy's Dream." The pupils of the third and fourth grades will sing the solo and chorus parts. The music is catchy and the action is full of life.

The pupils of the 5th, 6th, 7th and eighth grades will present "A Merry Company" at the close of the first cantata. A jolly company of cadets and a number of girls out on a holiday picnic have a good time and the fun centres around the pranks of a girl and cadet who impersonate two peddlers. Three policemen are called in to arrest the intruders, but the peddlers prove to be two of the merry company.

The two cantatas furnish a fine evening's entertainment, full of fun, and which will represent some thorough preparation by the pupils. Reserved seats on sale at the Book Store.
