

Local and Personal.

Miss Buckham was an Independence visitor Saturday.

Miss March Brewster was an Independence visitor Monday.

President Ressler, of the Normal, was a business visitor to Salem Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Huber spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hembree.

D. M. Calbreath shipped a dozen fine blue Andalusian pullets to Seattle last week.

Mr. Putman, of Talmage, visited a few days of last week at Salem and Oak Grove.

Miss Edna Seeley spent three days with her parents at William-son, Oregon, last week.

Miss Louise Stengle, a student of the Portland Business College, visited over Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Pettit, of Black Rock, are down visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pettit.

Miss Ethel Lucas returned from Dillard Saturday, where she has been teaching. She entered the Normal Monday.

C. A. Kurre, of Oretown, Tillamook county subscribed for the Monmouth Herald through his father Peter Kurre.

Mrs. U. G. Heffley returned Friday from a weeks visit at Albany. She was called there by the illness of a little niece.

The sermon subjects at the Christian church Sunday will be: "The Ideal Congregation" at 11 a. m. and "The Great Emancipator" at 7 p. m.

Fred Moseman has the foundation laid for a new chopping mill which he is erecting on the ground where the old Talmage Flouring Mill used to stand.

Miss Rosa Smith, a successful teacher in the public schools of Portland, spent last Sunday and Monday at her home, and visited with old time friends.

Miss Bessie Foster, a teacher in one of the Salem schools, came over Friday evening. Miss Maude Davis, a teacher in the High school at the same place, came home with Miss Bessie.

Miss Laura Bean and Emma Kramero, of Salem, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Beery. These ladies had a vacation on Washington's birthday and this allowed them to have a three days stay in Monmouth.

W. H. Ireland came down from Summit, Benton county, Tuesday to look after business matters and visit old friends. The Herald received a friendly call. He reports considerable stormy weather in his section this winter.

The Perkins Pharmacy has finished laying a nice lineoleum on the floor of the drug store and with new glass counter cases makes one of the nicest interiors in this county and it will compare favorably with any in Portland.

The old Normal bell rang out as merrily as of yore on Monday morning and we predict that it will be still ringing long after the death knell has been rung for those who attempted to assassinate our public school system last week.

L. J. Corl came down from Corvallis Saturday for a visit with friends at this place returning Sunday. He is now engaged in looking after the furniture business of a friend there who has gone east after his family. On the return of this gentleman Mr. Corl will return to his home in Forest Grove.

Miss Edith Wolverton was a Dallas visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fugate returned Monday from a visit at Corvallis.

Miss Marie Smith has been quite sick with the La Gripp for over a week.

T. J. Pettit took seriously ill with La Grippe Monday, and as yet is no better.

Smith B. Holt, principal of the Buena Vista school, visited in our city over Sunday.

Miss Anna Kurtz, of Perrydale, was the guest of Miss Clara Hartsog over Sunday.

Mr. Dadman, of Talmage, had his large flag floating high on Washington's birthday.

Miss Leota Foster, teacher in the Ballston school, spent Sunday with home folks in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis have returned from a visit with friends in Corvallis and report a pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dornsife, of Independence, attended services at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Misses Edna Seeley, Anetta Miller and Edith Stoddard, returned Monday from a few days visit at their homes.

Mrs. L. A. Robinson begins selling off her furniture today preparatory to going to New York to join her husband.

President Hirschberg of the I. & M. Railway was a Portland visitor the fore part of the week, returning Tuesday evening.

The friends of Mrs. Kurre met at her home Tuesday afternoon and quilted a quilt for her, that had been pieced by many of the same friends years ago.

It is reported that O. M. Lehman has received a fine pair of dancing pumps from the east and that he is now prepared to execute the latest steps with neatness and dispatch.

Miss Grace Wallace, of Independence, returned Tuesday from a four months business trip in New York and Chicago. She reports a very pleasant trip and very little snow on the return journey.

A burglar entered Peter Springer's house Wednesday night and took money to about $20 from the different members of the household while they slept. In order that there might be no mistake made as to why it was taken a note was left stating that it was taken by one in need.

The editor made a flying trip to Portland Monday and found many improvements being made there and indications pointing to a prosperous time for the Willamette valley this season. Especially is this true of the real estate situation and if the people of this part of the state expect to reap any benefit from the coming immigration they will have to get busy.

A farewell party was given Mrs Robinson at her residence Saturday night by the ladies of the Book club. The president of the club, Miss Maggie Butler, with Mesdames Stine, Butler, Dalton, Doughty, Bogert, Lindsay, Travers, Fargo, Campbell, Crowley, Grounds, Bowden, Lewis, Doughty, Stump, Guilliams and Boche, met at the home of Mrs. Boche, at eight o'clock and went in a body to Mrs. Robinson's. They had a social evening with the game of travel, and after refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and salad, and many expressions of regret at losing one of their number, returned home. Mrs. Robinson goes first to visit a few weeks with her parents at Los Angeles before

The Kingsbury Hat

We are showing the New Spring Styles in Kingsburys. They need no introduction to our trade as the best $3 hat to be found.

We illustrate here the new "Trooper" shape, a very popular one with young men. It comes in the stylish green shades, and in tan, pearl, brown and black.

Come in and select your spring hat

V. F. DANIEL

W. W. Newman

General Blacksmithing and Wagon Repairing.

Horse Shoeing a Specialty

All work done with neatness and dispatch.

Cornwall's Old Stand

Normal Lodge, No. 204

Meets every Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

P. E. CHASE, N. G.

W. GRAHAM, SEC.

W. O. W.

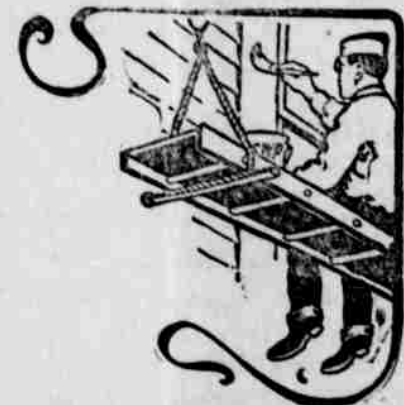

Monmouth Camp No. 49

Meets every Wednesday night.

Visiting Neighbors cordially welcomed.

ALLEN JOHNSON, C. C.

O. A. WOLVERTON, CLERK

A. B. WESTFALL

Painter and Paper Hanger

Monmouth Oregon

going to New York to join Mr. Robinson. Owing to disappointing news received late in the afternoon a number of the club members were not present.

If you want your photo on a postal, now is the time, as we will not make them after March 1. We are not going out of business simply out of the portrait postals. Any one having negatives here who want postals finished from, will have to call before March 1. Our view postals will be more extensive than ever.

Davidson Studio

College St.

Monmouth

MONMOUTH BAKERY

RADEK & SMITH, Props.

Bread and Fancy Pastry, Confectionery, Stationery, Soda and Ice Cream. Cigars and Tobacco.

Agency for

Victor and Columbia Phonographs and Records.

Ice Cream delivered to any part of the town.

Monmouth Livery and Feed Barn

Graham & Son, Proprietors.

General Transfer and Delivery Business.

Horses Boarded by the Day, Week or Month.

When your breakfast is spoiled by poor coffee don't blame the cook until you find out what kind of coffee she uses. Its more than likely the fault is with the coffee and not with the cook. If you find the fault is with the coffee, change your brand and use importations. Then if the coffee does not taste right, change cooks.

CHASE & SANBORN'S

25, 30, 35 and 40 cts.

T. A. Riggs

Monmouth,

Oregon