The pupils who have received twenty merit marks for the month of February will receive a quarter holiday Friday March 25.

The High School was honored by an interesting talk on "debating" given by Mr. Kerr, a student of O. A. C. at Corvallis, and one of the judges of the debate between this place and Monmouth.

Of course we are disappointed because we did not win the debate with Monmouth, but we realize that we had to meet a very strong team. It is some satisfaction to hear people that heard all of the debates say this was the strongest debate in the league.

Student Body Resolutions.

Weston, Ore. Feb. 24, 1909. Since the Oregon State Legislature has not appropriated a sum for our maintenance for the next two years, therefore, be it resolved:—

That we, the Student Body of the Eastern Oregon State Normal School stand loyally by our school and its faculty, and do appeal to the people of the state of Oregon for their assistance until the legislature shall appropriate funds for our further maintenance.

Be it furthermore resolved, that we, of the Student Body, ask the Alumni and friends of the school to do all in their power to influence public opinion for legislation in favor of the normal schools.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to all the papers whose counties are represented in our Student Body of the Eastern Oregon State Normal school.

Signed by:
Glenn Leslie, Ira Staggs, Cecile Boyd, Ada Ely, Royal F. Niles, Fred M. Huffman, Z. May Meighen, Committee.

of noble teaching, a body of devoted graduates and students, who show their faith by their deeds. If such a school must perish, so be it; but its death will not be without mourners."

VESPERTINES

The Vespertines held an especially interesting meeting on Friday evening in that the subject was one so near to our hearts first, last and all the time—the Normal School. In the debate the affirmative won as it should. After the following program and a short business meeting, the society adjourned to a "Normal" Senate session.

DELPHIANS

The study of artists has been begun by the Delphian Society with great success. Friday evening the society took up a study of Bonheur, a great French painter. Some of her pictures adorned the walls while Hazel Jewett stated the important facts of the painters life and Maud Heffly discussed her two greatest pictures. Each member present received a little booklet in which she wrote the Painters name and some of her pictures. These booklets will serve as helpful souvenirs when filled. The work will continue next Friday evening with a study of Millet.

The program rendered last Friday evening was as follows.
Song—Society
Roll Call—Quotations, Lowell
Recitation—Edith Wolverton

One of our prominent business men said to the Herald man Tuesday that he had taken the Oregonian for 25 years without intermission, but had stopped it the first of the month because of its persistent misrepresenting the Normal situation. He said that if concerted action was taken by the 1000 graduates of Monmouth and the more than 2000 others who had attended the school, that such a falling off in the subscription list of that paper could
