

Local and Personal.

J. L. Murphy has gone to his home in Lincoln county.

T. J. Pettit is still quite ill at his home with the lagrippe.

Joe Craven has been quite sick for a few days with a severe cold.

J. Lindsay went to Portland Monday to lay in a fresh lot of goods.

Paul Baughman, of Independence, was a Monmouth visitor Sunday.

Miss Hattie Cooper went to her home at Mt. Hood the first of the week.

The classes of the Normal are preparing to send delegates to the Oratorical Contest.

N. W. Heffley purchased a fine team, wagon and harness from Mr. Metler, of Talmage.

Dr. J. W. Cole was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cole this week. Dr. Cole is the father of E. C.

Miss Inez Murphy was the guest of Miss Alpha Wilson at her home in Dallas Saturday and Sunday.

Phy Simpson, a prominent merchant and logger of Airlie, was transacting business in Monmouth Tuesday.

Charles Allen, of Airlie was a business visitor in this city Monday. —Corvallis Republican.

Mrs. Will Mack returned a few days ago from Minnesota, where she spent the winter visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Peter Kurre and two daughters, of Talmage, spent Tuesday at the home of her sister Mrs. Will Mack in Pleasant Valley.

A. B. Westfall returned the latter part of last week from Independence, where he has been painting Dr. Parrish's new steamboat.

The Commercial Club will have fifty members before it is six weeks old. Watch it grow and expand and do things for this part of the country.

Charles Shennelfield, manager of the Bell Telephone Co. at Independence, accompanied by his wife, attended the military hop at the armory last Monday night. —Corvallis Republican.

Miss Hattie Cooper, a student of the Normal School, left Tuesday for her home at Mt. Hood. Although anxious to return home she hated to leave the dear old Normal, and she will be missed by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowery were down from the Lewisville district Tuesday and paid this office a pleasant call. They will leave in a short time for California to make their future home, Mrs. Lowery having lately sold her farm to Marion Smith.

There is a good opening here for a dentist and one could do a good business as all the work from this section of the state goes to other towns. Independence has two that are doing well and it is not twice as large as our town, besides a great deal of the business going there goes either through this place, or from it.

Dr. Parrish recently purchased a steamboat known as the Rough and has had it fitted for use on the Willamette between Salem and up river points. This boat was at one time used on the upper Snake and has made a record for fast running. It is said to have the finest outfit of machinery of any small steamer in the state. It will be used as freighter for a time and may be fitted up for passenger traffic later, as it has been in the passenger service.

Frank Groshong went to his home in Corvallis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Herren went to Buena Vista Friday.

We are hopeful for a great future for the Old Normal School.

Miss Josie Mercer went to her home near Tillamook this week.

The five week tests occur Thursday and Friday of this week.

Miss Marie Smith returned to school Monday, after two weeks illness.

Holt Crowley, of Rickreall, was transacting business in Monmouth Saturday.

Miss Loretta Smith who has been teaching in the Weston Normal is at home again.

W. Fred Woltz, a newcomer from Missouri, was a pleasant caller at this office Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robinson, of Portland, are visiting the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Fream.

Dr. Mary T. Cole who visited with her son E. C. Cole returned to her home in Aumsville last Friday.

Vol Huber returned to his home in Gilliam county Friday, after spending the winter here with relatives.

Perhaps some one will suggest that the Commercial Club enter a protest against the long continued wet spell.

The barber shop will close promptly at 8:30 Saturday evening as the barber wants to go to the DeMoss entertainment.

The Young Ladies Missionary Circle of the Christian Church met with Luella Daniel Monday night. A short program was rendered.

What's the matter with having a planing mill put in here? It looks like one could be made a paying proposition if properly handled.

John Chambers, who has spent the winter in the town with his family, went to his farm at Kings Valley Tuesday. —Corvallis Republican.

There will be a public sale of livestock and household effects at the home of Mrs. Emma Lowery, known as the Haggard place, near the Burns mill Saturday, March 12. E. H. Hosner, auctioneer, will handle the sale.

It is reported that Charles Edward Hicks, editor of the Independence Enterprise, was admitted to the bar March 2, making a great speech and giving a fine exhibition of his capabilities at the time.

Work will be begun in a short time on the new ice plant that is to be put up in connection with the creamery. Monmouth will be able to furnish all the ice needed in this section of country this summer. No need to send away from home for anything of that kind.

Master Grove Peterson had the misfortune to fracture his leg above the ankle Tuesday afternoon while wrestling with another boy in front of his father's bookstore. However the fracture was not so bad as a broken leg and he will soon be out and forget all about it.

Mrs. George Sullivan gave a birthday party in honor of her little daughter Bessie's eighth birthday, on Tuesday evening, March 2nd. She received many dainty presents from her little friends. Games were played by the little children. After refreshments, the children returned home wishing her many more happy birthdays. Those present were; Oshia and Johnnie Tate, Lora, Mary and Johnnie Chute, Mada Huber, Mildred Hoover,

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT

Our stock of Spring Goods is now complete.

We invite you to come in and inspect our New Dress Goods, Silks, White Goods, Wash Goods, Laces and Embroideries, Muslin Underwear, Lawn Waists, Etc.

We have the late Novelties in two-tone and side band effects in the Correct Materials and Colors.

Prices are lower than for several seasons

We have also our Spring Oxfords from the celebrated Roberts, Johnson & Rand Shoe Co's Star Brand factories.

We will be pleased to show our goods and quote you prices.

V. F. DANIEL

W. W. Newman

General Blacksmithing and Wagon Repairing.

Horse Shoeing a Specialty

All work done with neatness and dispatch.

Cornwall's Old Stand

Normal Lodge, No. 204

Meets every Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

P. E. CHASE, N. G.
W. GRAHAM, SEC.

W. O. W.

Monmouth Camp No. 49

Meets every Wednesday night.

Visiting Neighbors cordially welcomed.

ALLEN JOHNSON, C. C.
O. A. WOLVERTON, CLERK

A. B. WESTFALL

Painter and Paper Hanger

Monmouth Oregon

Clay and Neal Moreland, Joe Heffly, Bessie Clark, Clem and Bernice McKinney, Cecille Poole, also two of Bessie's school teachers, Misses Shore and Williams.

If you want your photo on a postal, now is the time, as we will not make them after March 1. We are not going out of business simply out of the portrait postals. Any one having negatives here who want postals finished from, will have to call before March 1. Our view postals will be more extensive than ever.

Davidson Studio

College St.

Monmouth

MONMOUTH BAKERY

RADEK & SMITH, Props.

Bread and Fancy Pastry, Confectionery, Stationery, Soda and Ice Cream.

Cigars and Tobacco.

Agency for

Victor and Columbia Phonographs and Records.

Ice Cream delivered to any part of the town.

Monmouth Livery and Feed Barn

Graham & Son, Proprietors.

General Transfer and Delivery Business.

Horses Boarded by the Day, Week or Month.

When your breakfast is spoiled by poor coffee don't blame the cook until you find out what kind of coffee she uses. Its more than likely the fault is with the coffee and not with the cook. If you find the fault is with the coffee, change your brand and use importations. Then if the coffee does not taste right, change cooks.

CHASE & SANBORN'S

25, 30, 35 and 40 cts.

T. A. Riggs

Monmouth,

Oregon