

WILLIAMS' JUBILEE SINGERS

Here Saturday Night Followed
By Dr. Green On Monday Night.

Everybody knows or has heard of the famous Williams Dixie Jubilee Singers. They will give the fourth number in the Citizens' Course, Saturday evening in the Normal assembly hall at 8:30 o'clock. This will probably be the last visit to Monmouth as the demand for them is so great that they must cut out the smaller places.

The fifth number in the course will be a lecture by Dr. Thomas E. Green, Monday evening, Mar. 15, at 8:30 o'clock. Monmouth is extremely fortunate in securing this famous orator, who is really a national figure. Dr. Green is not only a speaker of eloquence and power, but a man of affairs, whose counsels are sought by leaders in civic and moral reform.

This lecturer commands $100 per night for his services and he is worth it. He has a message which inspires men and women to higher achievements and spurs them on to happiness and success. Our people cannot afford to miss this opportunity to hear one of the foremost public speakers in the country.

Admission to this great lecture—Adults 35 cents, Students and children 25 cents. Reserve seats, without extra charge, at the Normal Bookstore.

Airlie

Marquis Bevins, of Ranier, an old time resident of this place, is reported dangerously ill.

Walter Brinkley had the misfortune to cut his foot quite severely a few days ago while chopping wood.

Gladys Hastings is staying at the home of J. D. Bevins, while her mother is in Ranier. Being called there by the dangerous illness of her brother.

C. L. McKenna, of Portland, who bought the place where J. C. Simpson lives, spent a week here looking after business. While here he organized a commercial club.

The commercial club met last Saturday night and appointed a committee to see about opening the streets and allies that are still closed. Also to see about building a large hitching shed for the accomodation of the people who do not wish their horses to stand out when they come to town. They also have a movement on foot to build a hall with hard-wood floor to be used either for skating or dancing or athletic games that can be played inside.

Death at Buena Vista

Harley Glen, the seven month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dietz, of Buena Vista, was suddenly taken very ill Saturday night and in a few minutes had passed away. The cause of the death is not known.

The child was apparently in good health and its death comes as a very great shock to the bereaved father and mother. All join in extending to them our deepest sympathy. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Launer in the Evangelical church on Monday and interment was in the town cemetery.

Social Hour Club.

On March third the Social Hour Club met at Mrs. Riddell's and were entertained by mesdames Riddell, J. B. V. Butler, Boothby and Mulkey. In spite of heavy showers the attendance was good. When all were assembled each lady was given material to make and trim a spring hat. Various degrees of skill were shown in this art, but Miss Stump's hand showed a truly parisian touch and the first prize was awarded to her. Refreshments were served at the close of a very enjoyable afternoon and the club adjourned to meet at Mrs. John Stump's on March 17.

about doing good?

Why did not God permit Dorcas to die?

Why does God sometimes permit those to die upon whom so much depends: the bread winner of the family, the mother of little children, the pillar in the church, or the "Dorcas" in the community?

Verses 39—Should a Christian always be ready to go to the home of sorrow, to render help and impart comfort?

It is a beautiful custom to speak of the good deeds of the dead, and it is well kept up; but is there not almost criminal neglect in speaking of the good deeds of the living? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 40-43.—Is there any use to-day in praying that the dead be raised?

Why did God raise the dead in those, and not in these days?

What great purpose has that miraculous age served?

Even if these miracles should prove to be but legends, will it effect one iota, any essential truth of Christianity?

The Commercial Club is getting ahead in good shape, the membership is growing and every one is enthusiastic. The beneficial results attendant on its organization will soon be felt.

We have 50,000 impressions ahead to make in the job department. This means 150,000 kicks on the treadle of the little job press. We'll have to put in power before long. Among this lot of work is an order for 10,000 letter-heads from Independence. Good work, good stock and reasonable prices are bringing us plenty to do and we don't have to go to Salem for hot air.

Won Her a Diadem.

How did the French come into Sicily? A woman did it. At a festive entertainment held at a French court Beatrice, countess of Savoy and wife of Charles of Anjou, the brother of Louis IX. of France, was removed from the superior range of seats occupied by her two younger sisters, the queen of France and the queen of England. Mortified by the humiliation, she returned to her apartments and burst into tears. Upon learning the cause of her chagrin and her saying that she would be able to give up her life to confine her tresses for one hour beneath a diadem Charles embraced her affectionately and said, "Set your heart at rest, countess, for before long I will make you a greater queen than either of your sisters." So he promised her. He defeated Manfred, the last of the Norman kings, and caused Conradino, the great-grandson of the Emperor Frederick, to be mercilessly slain, he himself and Beatrice witnessing the scene. Upon the death of his brother Charles became king of Naples, thus fulfilling the cherished desire of his wife for a diadem.
